Judge Lowell Says Umatilla County Has Good Exhibit.

"There is no longer any reason why people should stay away from the Lewis and Clark fair fearing that the exhibit is not complete," said Judge Lowell this afternoon. The judge was a visitor at the exposition during the latter part of last week and was surprised to find things in the state they are, being of the impression as are many others, that the displays had not yet been placed. However, according to Judge Lowell, the fair is now practically all complete and no one should stay away longer for fear that it is not.

As to the Umatilla county exhibit, of which there has been so much criticism in the past, Judge Lowell regards it as the equal to that of any of the other distant counties of the state and thinks there is nothing about it that citizens of this county should be ashamed of. The counties of the valley are able to make more presentable exhibits since being so near they can have their booths better adorned with flowers and fruits. During the summer new grasses, grains, fruits, etc., should be sent down from this county to be placed with the county exhibit and he says that if such is done a very creditable exhibit can be maintained.

Delighted With Hawaii.

In a private letter to the East Oregonian Rev. W. E. Potwine says he is delighted with his location and work in the Hawaiian Islands. His work is of a missionary nature among the Asiatics in the islands, and he enjoys it. He says the semi-tropical climate of the islands is delightful. While it is not disagreeable at any time, yet it is invigorating even in the hot season, owing to the constant sea breezes.

BUSY WEEK AT FAIR

BIG EVENTS TO BE CROWDED INTO PROGRAM.

Beginning Sunday, July 9, with an Address by Newell Dwight Hillis of Plymouth Church, Next Week, Will Be a Memorable and Interesting Period of the Exposition—Western Authors Day on July 15.

With four bands engaged and many special events arranged, the seven days, beginning with Sunday, July 9, will constitute probably the biggest week so far at the Lewis and Clark exposition. There will be something doing on every day, and it is expected that the attendance, which has been increasing steadily since the opening, will break all records during this week.

Liberatti's famous Italian band, whose engagement began June 29, will play two concerts daily. Besides the band numbers there will be vocal solos by three soloists whom the great Italian bandmaster takes with him on his tours. De Caprio's Administration band will also give two concerts daily. The concerts will be held in the bandstand at the foot of Lakeview Terrace, on the shore of Guild's lake. There is also a military band supplied from some regiment of the department of the Columbia, by order of the secretary of war, which will give daily concerts on the government peninsula, where Uncle Sam's magnificent $800,000 display is located. The Indian band from the Sherman Indian institute, which is said to be one of the best of the Indian bands, will also play frequently.

On Sunday, July 9, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, successor to Henry Ward Beecher and Lyman Abbot as pastor of the Plymouth church in Brooklyn, will preach in the auditorium at the exposition, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Hillis is one of the foremost preachers in the United States and is a most successful lecturer.

Monday is Wyoming and Rock Springs day. On this day, also, the opening exercises for the National Association of Food and Dairy Commissioners, which will be in session all week, will be held. The Northwest lacrosse championship will also be decided in the stadium adjoining the exposition grounds.

The American Medical association, which will attend the exposition 2000 strong, will begin its sessions on Tuesday, and on the same day there will be Y. M. C. A. athletic games, the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's association will meet, and the Lewis and Clark Methodist congress will begin a prolonged session. Tuesday also will be Laramie day.

Wednesday will be Advertising Men's day, Evanston day and Jason Lee day. Thursday will be Pure Food, Sheridan, Casper, Newcastle, Mazamas and Idaho Press Association day. Elaborate preparations are being made for entertaining the visiting Idaho newspaper men. There will be interesting automobile tests on Friday, and that day will be also Green River and Rawlins day. On Saturday there will be more automobile tests, and an organ recital in the auditorium. Saturday also will be Cheyenne day.

The week beginning July 9 will be Western Author's week, and a large attendance of men and women prominent in literary work is expected.

Saturday will be Joaquin Miller day. The veteran "Poet of the Sierras" will be present.

Charles G. Kilpatrick, whom the exposition is paying $500 a week for thrilling bicycle and automobile feats, will perform his even more exciting ride up a steep ascent and down again in an automobile. Kilpatrick is a one-legged man, his performances are free to all and are given in the afternoon and evening every day.

MITCHELL MAY NOT APPEAL.

May Be No Grounds on Which to Carry His Case to Highest Court.

Senator Mitchell will appeal his case to the United States circuit court of appeals, and if there is ground to warrant it will carry it to the United States supreme court.

Council for the convicted senator are by no means certain that the issue obtains upon which an appeal can be taken to the United States supreme court, and will cast about for grounds upon which to carry it up on the plea that there has been a violation of the constitutional rights of the defendant, says a Salem paper.

The right of direct appeal from the circuit court of appeals to the United States supreme court in a criminal case, such as that of Mitchell's, does not obtain in the course of ordinary procedure. There must be some good reason to carry it up at all, but the right to appeal does not follow as regards the supreme court, as it does from the district or circuit court to the circuit court of appeals.

In an appeal to the supreme court in a criminal case the appeal is addressed to the discretion of the supreme court on a question wherein the constitutional rights of a defendant have been usurped or it is made to appear that some grave injustice has been done him.

Then the action takes on the character of a writ of certiorari, wherein, upon a showing that the rights of the defendant have been unwarrantably abused, a writ issues to take the record before the higher tribunal, when an inquiry is made into the facts. But this is wholly discretionary with the appellate court, and it is rare that such action is taken.

This mode of procedure corresponds to a writ of review in a state circuit court, where, for instance, a writ of review might issue out of the circuit court of Multnomah county, commanding that the records of the municipal or county court be brought before a circuit judge for examination.

WANDERLUST.

Beyond the east the sunrise, beyond the west the sea,
And east and west the wanderlust that will not let me be;
It works in me like madness, dear, to bid me say good-by!

For the seas call and the stars call, and oh! the call of the sky!

I know not where the white road runs, nor what the blue hills are,
But a man can have the sun for friend, and for his guide a star;

And there's no end of voyaging when once the voice is heard,
For the river calls, and the road calls, and oh! the call of a bird!

Yonder the long horizon lies, and there by night and day
The old ships draw to home again, the young ships sail away;

And come I may, but go I must, and if men ask you why,
You may put the blame on the stars and the sun and the white road and the sky!

—Gerald Gould in Spectator.
