AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Rich Copper Strike.

The mining world yesterday was startled by the news of the discovery and strike on Snake river by Ed Butze, Sr., of what is probably the richest copper and gold property in Eastern Oregon, and perhaps any other country.

Ed Butze is one of the best known mining men in the Northwest, and was formerly a resident of Nevada and worked in the Tonopah fields, which, by the way, he says has been greatly overestimated and consists of a very narrow and contracted mineral zone, and his judgment on mining matters is excellent and has been backed by his associates in the Copper Consolidated company, which is floating the property located and discovered by Mr. Butze. A. E. Johnston, of Anderson, Ind., who is a capitalist himself, and represents others in the company, has just returned with Mr. Butze from Snake river where the property is located. The company is a close corporation and has plenty of money for the development of its ground. Mr. Johnston is enthusiastic over the situation. They own 11 claims adjoining the celebrated McDougal property on the north and the big Iron Dyke mine on the southeast. The leading claims of the 11 are the San Salvador, Knob Hill and Snake River. Mr. Johnston and Mr. Butze brought back with them samples of ore which are marvelous in their richness. The ledges run from 30 to 75 feet in width. The ore runs in some instances 22 per cent in copper and $17 in gold. All of the ore is very rich and is shipping ore ready for the smelter.—Baker City Democrat.

Bourne Road Will Be Built.

Tony Mohr, always exhuberant of spirit and endowed with a belief that the Sumpter mineral zone has unrevealed riches certain to make several Baker county millionaires, arrived in town last night to transact some personal business. Incidentally he had a little documentary evidence in his possession to show that the proposed Sumpter-Bourne road is not and iridescent dream.

This project has evidently secured a new bevy of boosters and the tall talk of the promoters of the early springtime, which had gone into subsidence, is again being revived but by a new coterie of financial kings. The subscriptions to the stock lists which Mr. Mohr has in his possession, have leaped into the thousands of dollars and when this first bunch of the circulating medium has been expended in actual construction the present promoters figure that the further cost will be easily forthcoming from anyone of many of the financial underwriting concerns that bid for western securities.—Blue Mountain American.

Condon a Good Town.

"Condon is destined to be one of the best towns in Eastern Oregon," said F. W. Wilson, deputy district attorney of Wasco county, who, with Andrew Keller, returned home from that place yesterday afternoon. Mr. Wilson delivered the oration there, and says they had a great time for three days. It was a novelty to ride over the new road, and coaches and freight cars were overflowing. He says there were fully 2500 people there and that at the baseball game on the Fourth they took in $375. Times are good up there and so optimistic are the people over the opening of the road that they couldn't hardly celebrate enough in three days. —The Dalles Chronicle.

To Start a Chain Gang.

Hoboes may be seen hard at work upon the street within the next few days, for unless the army of tramps that infest the city folds its tents and silently steals away the police department intends to establish a chain gang. The chain gang or rock pile is the one sure cure for the tramp evil. Arrest and a jail sentence possess no terrors for him, as he knows that when in jail he will be fed well. Any idea of work is repellant to the knight of the road, but to work without pay is appalling.—Spokane Chronicle

Subject for Whipping Post.

David Sherman Oliver, a farmer of the Gooseberry country was arrested Friday upon complaint of his wife, charged with wife-beating. He was given a hearing before Justice Whitelaw and was placed under $500 bonds. He claims that he can furnish bonds but has not been able to produce so far, and is in the county jail. His trial will come up at the November term of circuit court.—Heppner Gazette.

RACES RECALL OLD TIMES.

Baker City Paper Talks in a Reminiscent Strain.

Do you remember when the old mile-track north of the city was the scene of large gatherings of people and as many as 200 head of as good runners and trotters as ever hit the earth in those days congregated for the fall meetings? says the Baker City Democrat.

That was about 20 years ago and such long distance runners as Patsy Duffy, Red Boy, Richard III, Queen, Trade Dollar, Winters and scores of others were pitted against each other.

Baker City was then in the Portland, Walla Walla, Island City and Boise circuit.

Baker City was not then the eastern Oregon metropolis that it is today, but the sporting inclinations of those times made pool selling a rich harvest.

Such bloods as Cy Mulkey, Jim Virtue, Bill Matlock, Jim Wisdom, Joe Kinney, John Dooley, Fred Dill, Alex La Buff, Major Glisan and other old-time sports were then with us and they played their dough, too.

It was nothing uncommon to see from $2000 to $5000 in the pool box—there was no Paris mutuals in those days.

Race horse men came from all over the Inland Empire and from Idaho.

Gambling was wide open and at night the sporting house did a land office business.

All the above is written to show what was doing in the race horse business many years ago. Time elapsed and the old race track went into decay—some say because racing was not done on the "square." True or not, interest decreased and there was nothing doing on the turf until the Baker County Speed association inaugurated the sport again last year. Good success rewards the enterprising efforts of the promoters and this has been again repeated the past few days. On the Fourth fully 3000 people witnessed the events of that day and yesterday nearly as large a crowd was on hand, showing that the people still have a quickening pulse for race events. The fall meeting which is scheduled will certainly be a greater event that ever.

SUNDAY CLOSING FOR BOISE.

Unexpected Turn in Municipal Campaign in Idaho's Capital.

A special from Boise to the Oregon Daily Journal says:

A sensational turn was given to the city municipal campaign late this evening at a council meeting. The democrats have been pressing the republican ticket hard by reason of democrats having a platform demanding Sunday closing of saloons, effective prohibition of gambling and regulation or closing of the red-light district. The tide had been running very heavy against the republican ticket and it is believed by a great many it will be defeated.

Tonight the council, which is republican, passed a Sunday closing ordinance. Two weeks ago it would have been impossible to secure decent consideration for such an ordinance in that body.

The Portland Journals calls attention to the fact that Pendleton has a population of 5700 and has 27 saloons, or one saloon for every 211 people. Pendleton isn't in it with Arlington, for we have a population of 400, and have five saloons, or a saloon for every 80 inhabitants.—Arlington Record.
