Chinaman Gets Seven Years.

Wong Tung Hee, the Chinaman convicted of the crime of manslaughter at the recent session of the superior court for the killing of Eng Chung the latter part of May, was yesterday sentenced to serve seven years in the penitentiary, says the Walla Walla Union. Wong's attorneys made strenuous efforts for the granting of a new trial, claiming as grounds for the same that the prosecuting attorney had made statements in his arguments before the jury that were not substantiated by the evidence, and that the judge had erred in several places in giving his instructions to the jury. Judge Brents denied the motion for a new trial and Charley Tung was called as interpreter for the defendant while sentence was being passed.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

HARVEST IS HERE BUSY DAY IN COURT

FIRST CROPS CUT NEAR PILOT ROCK.

Wheat Prospects Are Now Excellent—Headers and Threshers Will Be Running All Over County in Two Weeks—Barley Harvest Will Be Well Under Way by Next Monday.

"The fall wheat of the county has ripened to such a stage that it can not now be injured by hot winds, should such come within the next few weeks, and the same will be true of the spring grain in 10 days from now."

The above statement was made this morning by A. L. Knight, the grain buyer, and it is agreed in by others who are in close touch with the crop conditions over the county. It is the statement of all that the fall grain, and there is really none other on the reservation and in the Athena-Weston country, is now practically ripened, although it will not be right for harvesting for another week yet.

Concerning the spring grain of the country northwest of Pendleton and along the W. & C. R., several who have been here within the past few days have said that 10 days more will put the grain there out of danger. The warm weather of the past week is said to have been very beneficial, and to have greatly hastened the ripening of the wheat. While some of the more fearful have been afraid that it might cause the grain to shrivel, most farmers are agreed that no injury will result unless winds should prevail along with the hot weather.

Already the noise of the header and thresher has been heard over the county and from indications quite a number more are going to start Monday. Most of those who will commence then are farmers on the reservation, and the work next week will be in barley for the most part. Then on the following Monday they will commence on the wheat. Among those who are preparing to start threshers and headers Monday are Lorenzen brothers, of the reservation; Jack Brigham, south of the Mission; John Crow and the Pierce-Tweedy company.

The earliest threshing has been done south of Pendleton in the Pilot Rock neighborhood. Most of the grain there is fall sown and was not affected by the freeze during last winter, consequently it is ready for harvest now, and in fact considerable was cut during the past week. Yesterday Tom Jacques, from near Pilot Rock, was here with samples of grain which he had just threshed and which was found to test 52.

It is said that harvesting in the spring grain north and west of Pendleton will not commence until about August 1.

Umatilla Best of All.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bechtel, of Pilot Rock, returned last night from a three-months trip through Idaho, Baker City, Boise and Huntington, said Mr. Bechtel, "and I have not seen a place I like as well as old Umatilla county, and I'll tell you something else to the credit of Pendleton and Umatilla, I have nowhere seen a paper that can compare with the E. O. Up at Cottrell's sheep camp we used to fairly wear them out reading them. By the time the 40 men in the camp had read it it was pretty well worn out. Myself and wife and my daughter, Hazel, will go back to Pilot Rock in the morning. We may run our hotel there again or we may leave it."

Hottest Day of Season.

Today has been the hottest day in Pendleton this summer by several degrees. This afternoon the official thermometer at the residence of H. E. Johnson registered 98 degrees, whereas it had not gone over 94 on any previous day. However, higher temperatures than the above were registered this afternoon in warmer parts of the city. About noon the thermometer at the O. R. & N. depot registered 101.

Echo Warehouse Complete.

The wheat warehouse which the Pacific Coast Elevator company has been building at Echo is now all completed and Will Moore, the Pendleton agent of the company, is expected to come up from that place this evening after having seen the completion of the work. The new warehouse is 40x200 feet in size.

Fight on the Street.

Just before noon today two men, George McLaren and G. H. Wilson, became involved in a fight on Main street in front of the Louvre saloon and were arrested by Marshal Coffman. On being arraigned before the city recorder they were given a fine of $10 each which they paid.

POLICE COURT GRIST UNUSUALLY HEAVY.

Five Plain Drunks, Two Drunk and Disorderlies and Several Vagrants—Charles Rosellin Went to Sleep on a Private Lawn and Paid $10 for His Nap—Young Man Fined for Fighting and Severely Lectured by the Court.

Eleven prisoners in all were brought before the city recorder this morning to explain a just cause why sentences should not be passed upon them for the various offences with which they were charged. As usual in the police court satisfactory explanations were not forthcoming.

Columbia Joe, Dan Rallsback, Tom Lemmon, Sam Waek Waek, and Tanco, were all accused of having been drunk upon the streets of the city, "corpus delicti" being the proof of their guilt, the men having been picked up at various places during the night by the officers.

Charles Rosellin and Roy Casey were each charged with being drunk and disorderly and were each given $10 or five days. The disorderliness on the part of the former consisted of his having gone to sleep on a certain lawn in the city, much to the disgust of the owner thereof. Casey was accused of having used insulting language to women on the street.

Jack White, John McLaughlin and Frank Bowman constituted the vagrancy class, and were given the usual five days. The latter is a genuine specimen of the genus, and was so tired that he could scarcely stand the arduous labor of his appearance in court.

George Rothrock was fined $1 for assault and battery on the person of another boy and was treated to a lecture by his honor, which was also listened to by some dozen or more other young men who were present.

SOME ROYAL NEST EGGS.

All Rulers Put Money Away in Anticipation of King Oscar's Fate.

It will no doubt astonish a large number of people that kings and queens, like poorer mortals, who have the gift of prudence, are, with few exceptions, as economical as is consistent with their high position, and every year put by some portion of their savings for a rainy day. Better than anybody else, perhaps, monarchs know that it is money makes the mare go, and to spend all their incomes as they get it is just as great a folly in themselves as in their subjects. The late Queen Victoria was one of the thriftiest of monarchs, and, though her will has never been for the public eye, there is reason to believe that the fortune she left at her death was a very large one.

The modern king is, as a rule, a very practical gentleman. Of some it is not too much to say that they do not place implicit confidence in the nation of which they are the deal. Of nearly all of them it is certainly true that they do not put all their eggs into one basket.

Every year the present czar and zarina of Russia trust a large portion of their private savings to the British and French national banks. Alexander II, grandfather of the emperor, Nicholas, was economical in a high degree, and the money he saved is said to have run well into four millions sterling. By his will he left legacies to various members of the imperial family which swallowed up a third of his vast fortune, the remaining two-thirds being given to a lady of the court, who had wedded the sovereign without mounting the throne. As this lady was not of the royal line it was impossible that she could be recognized as empress, and the legacy of two-thirds of the monarch's fortune was the compensation Alexander accorded to his morganatic spouse.

Alexander III, during his comparatively short reign, also saved a considerable fortune, and this he left by will to the present queen, Alexandra, at the time of his death Princess of Wales.

King Leopold, of Belgium has a universal reputation and not an enviable one, as Leopold & Co., rubber merchants. He founded the Congo Free State of which he is sovereign lord, and which remits to him every year thousands upon thousands of pounds sterling, derived from the natural products of the country. He is one of the largest rubber and ivory dealers in the world. He is also one of the cleverest of financiers, and knows his way about all the bourses of Europe.

The monarch who has the least confidence in the financial stability of his own country is the sultan of Turkey. He declines to trust any Turkish bank with a farthing of his savings. The fattest part of his fortune—and it is said to be not small, despite the fact that his country is in a chronic state of bankruptcy—is deposited in British banks. In Paris they say that every quarter a special messenger, flanked by a suitable escort, leaves London for Constantinople to carry to the sultan the interest on his deposits. It is not generally known that the sultan owns one of the biggest streets of Constantinople, and has a sugar plantation in the Indies.—Answers.

Fish Warden's Report.

The master fish warden yesterday filed his report with the state board of fish commissioners for the month of June. It shows that 14 arrests were made during the month for violations of the fish laws, that from these arrests the sum of $1101.85 was realized by the department. The total receipts for the month from all sources was $1731.75, while the total expenditure was $6075.67.

Twelve arrests were made in a raid on the disreputable joints of North Yakima, Friday.
