Attorney General Finds That Abandonment of Station at Union is Not Necessary.

GRASS AND GRAIN PLATS WILL BE MAINTAINED.

The Cattle Will Be Sold in Accordance With an Order Issued—No Changes in the Faculty of O. A. C. Except Additions Thereto for the Coming Year—President Gatch is Retained—Prof. Withycombe Retained by a Vote of Seven to Four—Chair of Horticulture Established—"Hold-up" Delays Building of a Girls' Dormitory.

W. M. Pierce, a regent of the Oregon Agricultural college, returned to Pendleton this morning after having attended a meeting of the board of regents at Corvallis on Wednesday. It was the regular annual meeting of the board, and some very important matters were disposed of, one of these being the decision to continue the branch experiment station at Union, which is under the supervision of the board.

According to Mr. Pierce a decision was given by the board by Attorney General Crawford, by which the use of money which is now on hand will be allowed during the next two years. This sum is said to be sufficient to keep employees at the station to maintain the grass and grain plats until another appropriation can be secured. These are the most valuable part of the station, and for a time it was said that they would have to be abandoned. However, the cattle at the station will be sold, an order having been made to that effect at the recent meeting.

Regarding the faculty of the agricultural college, several additions were made, but no removals. While there was some opposition to President Gatch on account of his age, it was not strong enough to cause his removal, and the matter was not brought before the meeting. President Gatch is now over 70 years of age, and is one of the most noted educators in the state. He came to the college in '97, at which time H. B. Miller was removed, and has served as president ever since. Within that time the school has prospered greatly under his management. Yet it is felt by many that the president is now too old to fill such an active position, and should resign.

Some what of a contest occurred in the regents' meeting over a move to force Director Withycombe to either resign from the faculty, or else abandon his campaign for governor. Several of the regents believed that the present course of the director was not proper. However, when the matter was put to a vote the proposition was downed by a vote of 7 to 4. Consequently Dr. Withycombe may continue his campaign for the republican nomination without any danger from the board of regents.

A chair of horticulture was established and Professor Irvine of Iowa, was chosen to fill that position. Also, two assistant professors employed—one for the mining department, and one for that of agriculture. Permission was granted to the Y. M. C. A. to erect a building on the college grounds under certain restrictions, and it was also decided to secure water from the new system which is being constructed by the city.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford was re-elected as president of the board of regents, and John D. Daley was retained as secretary.

As to the effect of the hold-up of the appropriation bill on the school, Mr. Pierce says that the only bad feature will be that the proposed new girls' dormitory cannot be erected. However, the money for the regular maintenance of the school, about $80,000, was not affected, as it is mostly from the national government.

"During the past year," said Mr. Pierce, "there were 530 students enrolled in the college, and it is now regarded by many educators as the best educational institution in the state as well as the largest."

AFTER CAR THIEVES.

O. R. & N. Detective Working on Recent Robberies.

Detective Fitzgerald of the O. R. & N. company, arrived here last night from Portland, and left again this morning for Baker City. He is endeavoring to get track of some thieves that have been robbing freight cars very persistently during the past few weeks. Another car is believed to have been robbed here a few nights ago, as several packages of freight were found missing.

Delighted With the West.

J. E. Van Nuy's family, of Franklin, Ind., are visiting at the home of his brother, Rev. W. L. Van Nuy, of this city. Mr. Van Nuy was delighted with the fair at Portland, and the showing made there of the resources of the west was a revelation to him. He will visit in Pendleton for a few weeks and then return to his home in Indiana with the intention of coming west to make his home later if he can find a favorable opening.

Pleaded Guilty and Was Fined.

This forenoon a complaint was made against T. G. Montgomery by J. W. Myrick, charging him with disorderly conduct by fighting. On being served with the warrant Mr. Montgomery entered a plea of guilty and was fined $5, which he paid.

New Pipe Line for Water Works.

The adjourned meeting of the city council last night for the purpose of considering the question of putting in a wooden pipe line to carry the city supply of water from Big Salmon to Marble creek, elicited much discussion concerning the various phases of the matter in which there was a unanimity of expression upon practically every point. It was made clear that the city has $10,000 worth of bonds to dispose of if that sum should be necessary to carry out the work.

The pipe line was in high favor, and as it is deemed a peremptory necessity it was decided to enter into a contract with the Washington Pipe and Foundry company for 16,000 feet of the piping or so much less as Engineer Sanderg's surveys, which he is now on the ground making, shall determine.

Mr. Mendenhall, representing the company, was present and agreed that they would take the bonds for the amount of the bill at 35 cents per foot delivered in Baker City. The city to advance the freight bills and deduct from the price. In the event that a better bid than par is made for the bonds, they are to accept cash and give a discount of two per cent.—Baker City Democrat.

Musical Entertainment.

On Thursday, July 27, C. E. Nebergall, assisted by local talent, will give a musical entertainment at the Christian church. Mr. Nebergall will be remembered by all old-time Pendletonians. He worked at the Hotel Pendleton some years ago. It was while working there that he met the accident that cost him the sight of both eyes. In addition to instrumental and vocal music there will be a reading by a local elocutionist.

Gone to Presbytery.

The following Presbyterian ministers left this morning to attend a called meeting of the Presbytery at Milton: Dr. W. S. Holt, W. L. Van Nuy, W. H. Bleakney, J. M. Cornelison, R. J. Diven and J. A. Mitchell. The object of the meeting is to receive into the Presbyterian church the two Cumberland Presbyterian churches located at Freewater and at Fruitvale.

Mill Porch Fell.

A section of the porch on the west side of the Byers' mill fell with a crash late yesterday afternoon and caused somewhat of a sensation in that neighborhood for a time. It was the portion about the middle of the building on the west side, and was 50 or 60 feet in length. The fall was apparently caused by the accumulation of too much weight on the porch.

Athena Visitors.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins, pastor of the Christian church of Athena, and Rev. E. Baker, pastor of the Methodist church of the same place are in town today in connection with the violation of law in that city. The law enforcement league in Athena is an active and vigorous body and is doing good work in compelling law breakers to respect the law.

Railway Agents Going East.

Last evening about 8 o'clock a special train of 10 cars laden with railway passenger agents, passed through here going east. The crowd is composed of general and traveling agents, station agents and others of the railway service and they are returning home. They came out a short time ago, coming west over the Great Northern.

To Egerton Grove.

Rev. T. R. Egerton will leave Sunday night for Egerton Grove on business connected with the missionary committee of the Congregational church for eastern Oregon, of which committee he is chairman. While in the valley he will spend a few days in Portland, taking in the sights and "hitting the trail."

Assumed a Name.

A few days ago a man was arrested here on suspicion of having robbed a saloon at Pilot Rock, and his name was given as John Jordan. However, it now comes to light that such was the name of the proprietor of the saloon at the Rock, and the real name of the offender was Jourdal, nor Jordan.

Leg Broken.

Ben Noyes, an employe of the Blue Mountain creamery at La Grande, had his leg broken yesterday afternoon. By some accident his leg was caught in a belt and it was carried around a pulley, breaking both of the bones in his right leg below the knee.

Fine Horse Died.

Yesterday one of the black horses of the Baker & Polson team died from the effects of insufficient exercise and overfeeding. The animal is one of the team that ran away with Jesse Falling and nearly caused him to lose his life a year or so ago.

The Gratzes to Montana.

Miss Sophia Gratz left today for Billings, Mont., where her father is in business. Mrs. Gratz and Miss Annie and Albert Gratz will leave tomorrow morning for Billings, where they will reside in future.

In Police Court.

In the police court this morning J. P. O. Sullivan was fined $5 for disorderly conduct, while William Barnhouse, Walter, an Indian and George Clemmer were each given the same for being drunk upon the streets.
