

Horse Sense

We believe the people of Pendleton and vicinity have an unusual amount of that rare yet desirable article; good, hard, common sense. Fakirs do not find this an especially green pasture. It was P. T. Barrow, the big showman, and king of fakirs, who said: "The American people like to be humbugged," but we would call the attention of some of our competitors to the fact that even the big shows, with all of their facilities for humbugging, steer clear of Pendleton. Multiplied yards of banners with their cartoons, red and yellow paint, announcing "destruction sales" (?) etc., etc., do not draw trade in Pendleton, as many of our competitors are learning from hard experience. No, the people are "on to you." If you do business in this way you will have to go where the suckers are. A square deal, Golden Rule prices, Golden Rule treatment and dependable goods are the only things that reach the people in Pendleton.

You should see the prices we are making on saten and zephyr gingham petticoats, shirt waists, kimonas, walsings, dress goods, etc. See our window display for some of these things. If you want a square deal, lowest prices, right treatment and good goods, come to the

DOWN ON THE BEACH

E. N. SMITH FINDS A TRULY COOL SPOT.

Large Number of Pendletonians at Long Beach—More Arriving Every Day—Twenty-One Pendleton People Around One Campfire Last Week—Scene From the Beach is Delightful.

Long Beach, Wash., Aug. 7.—(Editor East Oregonian.)—It may be of some interest to the readers of the East Oregonian to know there is one place on earth where one can keep cool. That place is here at Long Beach. We landed here August 4. There are a great many Pendleton people here, and more coming every day. There were 21 from Pendleton around one campfire one night this week, and that was not all of them. The weather is perfect and the sight of old ocean's waves as they come rolling in is a sight never to be forgotten by one who was raised in the interior.

A. M. Elam and wife and daughter, and Miss Frazier of Milton, came up yesterday. Also Harry Bartholomew of Pendleton.

I know of no better place where one could spend the summer than here. The well water is splendid—soft and cold. The surf bathing will take the kinks out of an old person and make them young again. And such an appetite! Is it any wonder, with clams, crabs and oysters; boiled, fried, stewed or baked?

This morning there were three large full rigged sailboats and two ocean steamers in sight. This is a very orderly and quiet place. All are here for a good time, but do not disturb the rest of the others. The East Oregonian arrives regularly and is carefully read by the Pendleton people, as it is like getting a letter from home. Respectfully yours,

E. N. SMITH.

FOUR MEN WERE DROWNED.

The Willamette River Claims All the Victims.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 8.—Owing to a want of presence of mind in all but one of the 20 occupants of a launch, which had collided with a rowboat, two of the three occupants of the rowboat drowned within a dozen feet of the launch. Those drowned were:

Fred Steffensen, aged 29, and his sister, Madeline, aged 16.

The launch and the rowboat were traveling along the river in front of the city after dark tonight in opposite directions. The captain of the launch failed to see the rowboat, which carried no light, and the launch hit the three occupants of the boat, Miss Lillie Therkelsen, and dragged her aboard. The others on the launch were so excited that they allowed the boat to drift away without attempting a rescue. The two left in the rowboat had become frenzied with fear and their actions capsize the boat. After struggling helplessly for a few moments they drowned in plain sight of the then powerless people in the launch.

Bathers Drown.

Two accidental drownings occurred in the Willamette river, just below the city today. The first was that of a young man named Eric Bigelow, recently from Chicago, who in company with a companion, was bathing. Bigelow was seized with a cramp and sank. His companion could not swim and was powerless to render assistance.

The second drowning was that of Floyd Havird, aged 17, who in company with several boys, was paddling about the river on a board. Havird, aligned from the board and his small companions were too frightened to render assistance. Havird's body was recovered.

STAND BY LAFOLLETTE.

Illinois Baptists Endorse Roast of Rockefeller.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 8.—The Illinois Baptist assembly, which is holding a Chautauqua at the State fair grounds, amid a scene of excitement today voted down a set of resolutions which criticized Governor LaFollette for his bitter attack upon John D. Rockefeller last Sunday, when the Wisconsin statesman vehemently told the assembled Baptists that their fellow churchman was the greatest criminal of the age.

The defeat of the resolutions followed the departure of Dr. R. S. McArthur, of New York, who had been billed to make a reply to LaFollette, and who surprised his audience by uttering never a word in defense of the oil king.

Why Dr. McArthur failed to say anything on the subject cannot be learned. This morning a synopsis of his proposed address was given out, and in it he bitterly arraigned LaFollette for his attack on Rockefeller.

CONNELL A UNION TOWN.

Telegraph Strike Breakers Not Made Welcome.

Connell, Wash., Aug. 8.—James Wilson, a non-union telegraph operator, was forced to leave town last night by a mob of 50 union sympathizers. Wilson had been installed at the Northern Pacific depot that afternoon, but before getting his baggage unpacked and instruments installed, things in his neighborhood began to warm up. After paying $1 a meal at the restaurant and 25 cents for a lone sandwich he gave in. Train No. 4 carried him to Spokane, amid the hurrahs of the crowd present. The deputy sheriff in charge of the Northern Pacific company's property here since Wednesday, has also quit.

LAWSUIT FOR FIVE CENTS.

Defendant Will Carry Case to Supreme Court.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 8.—A demurrage claim amounting to 5 cents brought by the Santa Fe railroad company against Judge W. R. Curren, of Pekin, Ill., promises to go through the supreme court before it is settled. A few weeks ago the judge had his office improved and, among other things, ordered a new door for his safe. When the door came he was not apprised of the fact until 5 cents demurrage charges had accumulated. The agent of the company attempted to collect the sum, but the judge refused and gained possession of the door by replevin. The Santa Fe came back at him with a suit for 5 cents demurrage.

Judge Curren says that he will fight the case through the supreme court before he will pay the charge, which he claims is not justified and is unwarranted.

WANT BETTER RATES.

Walla Walla Will Meet With State Railroad Commission.

Walla Walla, Aug. 8.—Members of the transportation and freight committee of the Walla Walla Commercial club held a meeting last night and made arrangements to receive the members of the railway commission when they come to Walla Walla next Wednesday.

It was decided to invite all the shippers, farmers and other persons who are interested in the subject of freight rates to be present at the meeting, give their views, and state their complaints and wants in order that the commission can be fully advised as to the conditions existing in Walla Walla county.

The principal matter to be taken up will be that of the alleged discrimination against Walla Walla relative to distributing point rates on freight from the east.

BURNED STRAW ON ROADS.

Good Work of County Commissioners Goes Up in Smoke.

In their efforts to provide good roads throughout the county the county commissioners have expended considerable money in putting straw on the thoroughfares, says the Walla Walla Statesman.

This act has been the occasion of much praise for the officials from the farmers and others who are compelled to travel the roads. Recently, however, it has been discovered that in many places the straw has been burned off. On one stretch of road near Walla Walla a farmer reported today the straw had been burned for several hundred yards and left the ground bare and much dust had accumulated.

The fact has been reported to the commissioners and an investigation is being made. Whether the burning of the straw has been the result of passersby throwing lighted matches on the road or the work of miscreants, is not known.

STUNG BY RATTLESNAKE.

Fangs Penetrated Trousers and Sock, Reaching Calf of Leg.

Wilbur Wilhelm, a 12-year-old boy who lives a few miles east of Pendleton, was stung by a rattlesnake yesterday while working in a garden, the sting being made through the boy's trousers and sock. At the time of the accident the Wilhelm boy and another lad were among some cucumber vines and had just killed one rattler. After doing this young Wilhelm stepped back a few feet, and nearly stepped on another snake and was stung.

Dr. W. L. Dick was summoned to attend the boy, who was kept at his home, and it is not thought the sting will result seriously. No word has been received from the boy today.

Damaging Thunderstorms.

The thunder showers of the early part of the week did more damage than was at first supposed. Out near Mayville, Sunday evening the lightning struck John Parry's barn and it and the contents were burned to the ground. During the storm of Tuesday evening, Ellis Schomp's barn on the Buckhorn, near Mayville, was struck and burned down. There was considerable heavy rain and hail in Tuesday's storm and Dr. Wood, who was driving into town, said the hail was nearly as large as the hail that fell in the big storm last spring.—Condon Times.

Bought 3000 Lambs.

J. R. Nunamaker of Rhia creek, spent a few days in this vicinity leaving Sunday. While here he purchased 3000 head of lambs: 2500 head of Newt Robertson and 1100 head of J. J. Simas, paying $2.12 1/2 per head for October 1 delivery, at Monument—Monument Enterprise.
