It is complimentary to the ability of the local osteopath to be receiving parties from the different points of the state.—La Grande Observer.

COURTMARTIAL MEETS.

Ensign Wade Too Ill to Go on the Witness Stand.
Vallejo, Sept. 19.—The Bennington court-martial convened at 10 this morning. The court went immediately to the hospital at Mare Island, to take the testimony of Ensign Wade, but the defendant's counsel objected on the grounds he was ill and consequently incompetent as a witness. The judge advocate sustained the objection. It was announced that Wade's testimony be taken next Saturday, or early next week.
The court then went to the dry dock where the members inspected the hold of the Bennington. After inspection the court adjourned until 1:30, when it is expected another adjournment will be taken until Wednesday morning.
John P. St. John Speaks.
Portland, Sept. 19.—The National Temperance congress met in this city today. Ex-Governor John P. St. John of Kansas, is the principal speaker, and prominent temperance advocates from all parts of the nation are present.

Letter From Besthorn.

The East Oregonian has just received a letter from Ed Besthorn, the well known citizen of Eggedition, who is now in Germany on an extended visit. He is now at Flensburg, province of Schleswig, Germany, and is enjoying his visit greatly. He says they are having severe weather already in parts of Germany. He inquires anxiously as to who will be mayor of Pendleton for the next term and sends greetings to all his old friends through the East Oregonian. Mr. Besthorn reads the East Oregonian regularly in Germany, as he ordered it sent to a brother there long before he left, in order to find copies in Germany when he arrived there.
