

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Pleaded Guilty and Confessed.

The cases of the three men arrested at Thorpe and Ellensburg on a charge of burglary in connection with the looting of the shooting gallery on South Second street, had a hearing before Justice Targard late Monday evening. The result was that one pleaded guilty and made a full confession, clearing the other two and implicating another man named Miller.

Frank Welch, the man who pleaded guilty, told of drinking heavily with the man Miller on the night of the robbery and of noticing the trunk with the rifles, knives and other property and of taking it across the railroad track and breaking the top open, and then of hiding the watches and rifles and taking only the knives. He also promised to show the officers where the remainder of the stolen property was located.

As his confession cleared the other two men, they were allowed to go, with instructions to leave the country as soon as possible. Welch was bound over to the superior court and the county authorities will make an effort to apprehend Miller and bring him back here for trial.—North Yakima Republic.

Drunken Indians Make Trouble.

Three hop pickers from the Lynch ranch were assaulted by drunken Indians Monday night near the Shanno ditch as they were returning from town. After a bloody fight the white men overcame their assailants and brought them in to the city jail. They say that the trouble was started by the Indians, who began matters with a volley of stones, knocking one of their number unconscious. A warrant for the arrest of the Indians, who are now in the city jail on a charge of being drunk and an assault and battery, has been asked.

The three men who are pressing the charge are H. C. Colvin, Fred Stevenson and St. Bennett, all of Mount Vernon, Wash., while the Indians give the names of Charley Quash and Billy Awd.—North Yakima Republic.

Flouring Mill at Caldwell.

It is no longer a matter of doubt as to Caldwell having a flour mill as all necessary arrangements have been made and the deal closed up between the Business Men's association of Caldwell and Mr. R. B. Breet, of Minco, I. T. In speaking with J. F. Herr, secretary of the association, Mr. Herr said: "Yes, the flour mill is a sure go."

EAST INDIAN STUDENTS.

Two Men From the Punjab Join Oregon Agricultural College.

The Corvallis Times gives the following account of the coming of two East Indian students to join the Oregon Agricultural college for the coming year:

Baba Singh and Sohan Lal Ravi are the two new students. Just arrived from India to join the O. A. C. Both of them are from Punjab, the land of fine river, northwest of India. Baha Singh is a Sikh (disciple of Guru Gollind Singh, who is one of the famous heroes of India and for the first time organized the world known sect of warriors called Sikhs.) He wears a turban always, which singles out the Sikh caste from the rest of Hindu castes. He will take up a special minor course in the college.

Mr. Ravi is a graduate of commerce of Punjab university and will take up a course in mechanical engineering. Both these young men have traveled 24,000 miles at a great self-sacrifice of personal convenience. When asked today what made them travel so far, Mr. Ravi replied that "the practical education of America and the unstrained opportunities to acquire technical skill" brought them to America.

Mr. Singh said what led him to come to Corvallis was the brilliant account written by Mr. Sinha to Indian newspapers, speaking highly of the Oregon Agricultural college, the efficiency of the teaching, the kind and courteous treatment of the professors and above all, the democracy of public life of America where work was honored, where even respectable students swept the college campus, helped in the laboratories, picked apples and chopped wood. What struck the high caste Hindu most was the fact that even the Hindu professors did everything themselves, without waiting for servants.

These students have come to study the self-help and go-ahead spirit of the Yankees and expect to go back and teach to their own people what they have learned. We hope they will succeed in that which they want to do.

Catarah and Hay Fever.

Liquid Cream Balm is becoming quite as popular in many localities as Ely's Cream Balm sold. It is prepared for use in atomizers, and is highly prized by those who have been accustomed to call upon physicians for such treatment. Many physicians are using and prescribing it. All the medical properties of the celebrated Cream Balm are contained in the Liquid form, which is 75 cents, including a spraying tube. All druggists, or by mail, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

According to the statement of Lord Abbot Spenshaku, the head of the Buddhists in the United States, the temple will be a magnificent structure, closely following the oriental style of the temples in Indian and Japan.

Thief Got Four Cents.

The Presbyterian parsonage was entered by a burglar and ransacked while Minister L. F. Hayden and his family were at church Sunday evening. The burglar got very little for his trouble. All that was missing by Rev. and Mrs. Hayden on their return was 4 cents in change. There were money and valuables in the house, but the thief did not find them.—North Yakima Republic.

Two Business Houses Burn.

Fire early Sunday morning destroyed two business houses on the heights at Hood River, the confectionery store of H. F. Jochimsen and the Bateman public hall. The loss of $2200 was well covered by insurance. Efficient service of a bucket brigade saved adjoining business blocks.—The Dalles Chronicle.
