The CHURCHES

Methodist Episcopal Church.
Sunday school, 10 a. m.; A. J. Owen, superintendent; sermon, 11 a. m.; class meeting, 12:15 p. m.; Intermediate and Junior Leagues, 3:30; Epworth League, 6:30; leader, A. J. Owen. Topic, "Sacred Songs That Have Helped." Evening service, 7 o'clock. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening, 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all services. Robert Warner, pastor.

Presbyterian Church.
Morning worship at 10:30, theme, "The March of the Soul From the Bondage of Death to the City of God." The return of Israel from the Babylonian captivity was not more stirring than this. Evening praise and prayer at 7:30. A large place is given to the individual worshiper at this service by means of familiar gospel songs and responsive reading. The spirit and purpose of the meeting is evangelistic. Bible school at 12 m. Young people's devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m.

Church of the Redeemer.
Rev. Henry Dixon Jones, rector. Services for the 18th Sunday after Trinity. Morning prayer and sermon, 11. Evening prayer and sermon, 7:30. Sunday school and Bible classes, 10 a. m. Subjects of sermons: Morning, "Saint Luke, the Beloved Physician; a Sermon for St. Luke's Day; a sermon for all who practice medicine, and for all who have ever taken medicine." Physicians and patients are cordially invited to be present. Evening subject, "The Great Physician." The public will be given a cordial welcome at all services. Vestrymen await strangers to greet them and show them to places.

Congregational Church.
Services tomorrow as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; morning preaching at 11 o'clock; Junior C. E. at 4 p. m.; C. E. at 6:30; evening meeting at 7:30. This evening service will be one of our popular illustrated services, in which hymns will be sung by the congregation and by soloists, and illustrated by Rev. Richard Brown by the use of a Colt's Stereopticon. These meetings are open to all, and we invite you to worship with us. Prayer meeting Thursday evening, 7:30. T. R. Egerton, pastor.

First Christian Church.
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; morning service, 11 o'clock; Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m.; evening service, 7:30 o'clock. R. L. Cartwright, of Berkeley, Cal., will preach. Miss Fraker will sing. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. Everybody invited to attend. N. H. Brooks, pastor.

At Salvation Army Hall.
Knee drill, 7 a. m.; holiness meeting, 11 a. m.; free and easy, 3 p. m.; salvation meeting, 8 p. m. Subject, "Obedience." All are welcome. Jas. Holden, captain, Frank Kuhns, lieutenant.

"THE OLD-TIME RELIGION."
Illustrated and Sung at Congregational Church.

Come and enjoy it. Come and sing about it. Your good old mother sang the "old songs." You come and help us sing them. They'll do you good. Where? In the First Congregational church. When? Sunday night, October 22, 7:30. You will be delighted with the service. It will help you in your religious life. A beautiful set of pictures, real works of art, will be used to illustrate these good hymns of the church, by the aid of a Colt stereopticon. Come early. Bring your friends. Let the children come with you, and let us help you to help them in their religious life. Courteously, T. R. EGERTON, Pastor.

Unpleasant Reminder.
"I'll scamp that reporter!" growled old Weston Nurox over the morning paper. "Why, popper," replied his daughter who had her coming out reception the night before. "I thought he wrote me up real nice."
"But he speaks of ye wearin' 'some soft, clingin' material, an' that reminds me too much o' the time I was tarred an' feathered out in Montanny."—Philadelphia Press.

Hard on Norah.
Scene: The Wilsons' dining room.
Norah, the slovenly cook, puts her head in at the door.
Norah—Plaze, ma'am, will ye be after tellin' me whin I'm to know whether th' puddin's baked or not?
Mrs. Wilson—Stick a knife into the middle of it, and if the knife comes out clean the pudding is ready to send to the table.
Mr. Wilson—And, Norah, if it does come out clean stick all the rest of the knives in the house into the pudding—Woman's Home Companion.

The Brick In His Hat.
"Shorry I'm sho late, m' dear," began Dingle apologetically, "but shome fresh jokers stopped me an' wouldn' lemmee go."
"Indeed?" interrupted his wife. "Why didn't you take the brick out of your hat and hit them with it?"—Philadelphia Press.

Be Not Rash.
One need not thrust his hand into a raging furnace even though he knows that a precious jewel lies therein. He may be patient until the flames are spent.—From "The Bishop's Niece," by George H. Picard.

His Part.
Wife—I see by this paper that the average family has four and seven-tenths persons. Husband—I suppose I'm the seven-tenths in this family!

Wit should be used as a shield for defense rather than as a sword to wound others.—Fuller.

GENERAL NEWS.

Sir Henry Irving was buried beside David Garrick, beneath the shadow of a statue of Shakespeare, in Westminster Abbey.

The last payment of $2,255,000, due on the lands of the friars, appropriated by the American government, was made October 13.

Mrs. May Buckley shot and killed Mrs. Clara McCluskey in Chicago. They had quarreled over a man. The women were formerly partners in a saloon.

The Count of Flanders, brother of the king of Belgium, and heir to the throne, has resigned his right of succession to his son, Prince Albert. The count is quite old and totally blind.

Negotiations by Harriman and Schwab to finance the Japanese-Manchurian railway, have entirely failed. European capital—English and Belgian—have gotten the start of them.

Up till 6 p. m. of October 20, 3340 cases of yellow fever have developed at New Orleans, of which 435 resulted fatally. There are now 108 cases under treatment, with no deaths for two days past.

Hilda Austin, a professional nurse, is under arrest in New York, charged with stealing. In her apartments were found thousands of dollars worth of silverware and bric-a-brac, all taken from hotels.

The devastation along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan by the recent storm was the "greatest in history," the water fronts of all ports being swept bare. At Holland the loss was at least $200,000 to elevators and all other property.

Elliott Fitch Shepard, son of Col. E. F. Shepard, and grandson of the late W. H. Vanderbilt, has been arraigned at Paris on a charge of manslaughter. He was driving his automobile at the rate of 80 miles an hour, when he ran down and killed a little girl.

At Los Angeles, Mrs. Josephine Roach shot and probably fatally wounded Julius Laventhal, who tried to gain admission to her apartments after being warned to keep out. They had long been friends, but Mrs. Roach, who is separated from her husband, persisted in rejecting Laventhal's attentions.

When arrested, E. G. Cunliffe, the express messenger who stole $101,000 cash at Pittsburg, declared he had cached away the whole amount; afterward he claimed to have destroyed $20,000 in bills of large denomination and to have hidden the remainder. The latter statement proved true. The $80,000 he had hidden has been found packed in a suit case at the home of Cunliffe's brother-in-law, at Bristol, Conn.

and the force will be rapidly increased.

A street railway franchise proposition will be acted upon by the Baker City council November 6. Los Angeles parties will take the $10,000 bonds for for the purpose, if the franchise goes.

Citizens of East Portland are clamoring for a passenger and freight depot to be built by the O. R. & N., and base their demands upon the city's contract with the company in 1882.

The Boise council has passed an ordinance forbidding the use of cigarettes by any person under 21 years of age, and also the having of cigarette "makings" in the possession of any minor.

The furniture manufacturing plant at Newberg, which has been closed down for several months, has been leased and will at once be put in operation by Fisher & Beer, of Vancouver, B. C.

This year's hop crop of British Columbia was very heavy and of excellent quality. Horst & Co., of San Francisco, are trying to contract for the entire British Columbia output for the next five years.

The Charleston Lumber company is building a mill with a daily capacity of $100,000 feet, at Charleston. One hundred men are employed on a dam across North Yamhill river, from which to get power for the mill.

Green Hair.

There are men living today with green hair. This weird color is not a curious fad, but the result of working in a copper mine, where in order to become a marketable commodity the crude ore is roasted in furnaces. It is stated that, although no offensive odor emanates from this process, there is nevertheless some strange substance therein that produces a chemical change of the hair and beard, so that they become as green as grass. Strange to say, the texture of the hair suffers no injury, but remains as soft and glossy as ever.—Pearson's Weekly.

Brief Criticisms.

Of Gray's "Elegy" a contemporary reviewer wrote: "The excellence of this little piece amply compensates for its lack of quantity." That and nothing more. Of "In Memoriam" a contemporary estimate was that its "simple but touching verses" were evidently inspired by "the full heart of the widow of a military man."

Good Amendment.

Husband—This cake is very good, my dear, but it seems to me there ought to be a little more— Wife (in clear, icy, incisive tones)—That cake came by mail and was made by your mother. Husband—Yes, as I was saying, there ought to be a little more—of it.

The Situation.

First Passenger—Are they a happy family? Second Passenger—I'm afraid not. The old man is seasick, but his wife and the girls have mal de mer.—Harper's Bazar.

A Suggestion.

Doctor (to pressing creditor)—If you must bring your bill every day, at least you might come with your head tied up, so that people would think you were a patient!

There lately died at Scarva, Ireland, a Robert Taylor, whose age was 115. He was the oldest postmaster in the service at the time of his death. Most of the English and Irish papers gave an account of his life. It can be proved that he was a fifer in the rebellion of 1798.
