PIANO OF MERIT.

Miss Kinsella, the Gifted Musician, Selects a Melville Clark in Preference to All Other Instruments.

The Melville Clark piano scores again, having been selected by one of New York's talented musicians, Miss Kinsella, a recent arrival in this city. Miss Kinsella has been soprano soloist with the celebrated Kattenborn Orchestra of New York, and has also appeared before critical audiences at the Madison Square Garden, Waldorf-Astoria and the Mormon tabernacle. She is a thoroughly cultured musician, and having toured the United States with various musical organizations, has had opportunity to test the quality of all the leading makes of pianos.

Therefore her selection of the Melville Clark piano in preference to all others is a very flattering tribute to the firm of Soule Bros., of Portland, and the quality of pianos they carry. This beautiful piano has been placed in Miss Kinsella's home by Mr. Silas H. Soule, the well known traveling representative of Soule Bros.' Piano company. This firm buys direct from the factory and sells direct to their customers, thereby saving to their patrons the enormous profit made by agents and commission men.

Piano buyers order direct, and direct your orders to Silas H. Soule, Soule Bros.' Piano Co., 374 Morrison street, Portland, Ore.

GAMES ARE GUARDED

GAMBLERS FEAR LAW ENFORCEMENT LEAGUE.

Almost Impossible to Get Into One of the Gambling Rooms Without Buying Checks in Advance—Lookouts Are Posted at Peep-Holes in Gambling Rooms and Signals Are Given on the Approach of Danger.

So persistent have been the efforts of the Law Enforcement league in trying to suppress gambling in this city that greater precautions are now taken by the gamblers than ever before in the history of Pendleton.

All the saloons where games are run have built boxes in the back end of the buildings, where the games are now conducted under the greatest secrecy. Peep-holes are provided in these boxes and a look-out is kept on guard at the peep-hole at all times, so it is impossible for a stranger or any suspected person to enter the gambling rooms. The look-out keeps a close watch upon the front door and at the least sign of danger warns the players who make ready to run or hide the gambling paraphernalia to prevent detection.

The bartenders can also give signals to the look-out without being observed by people in the barroom and so all the five big games that are running on Main street are thus made almost inaccessible to the uninitiated.

It is said that the recent raid upon the game in the Rainier beer hall was made upon the information of one of the boss gamblers who became agitated at the boys playing in this place because they had failed to contribute to the fund kept up by the gamblers for purposes of protection and mutual aid in keeping out of court.

When the boys failed to "divvy" with the boss he demanded that the game be raided. It is openly declared among gamblers, and thus they were made to feel the heavy hand of the law to the tune of a fine of from $10 to $15 each.

In order to prevent spies from entering one of the big rooms on Main street a new rule has been adopted. Hereafter any one could wander into the gambling room and look on, and in this way several of the leading members of the fraternity have been caught and fined in that place.

Now it is necessary for a person wishing to enter this place to purchase $2.50 worth of "chips," or poker checks in advance, to insure the keeper that the visitor is looking for a game for business reasons, and is not a spy.

One result of the persistent efforts of the Law Enforcement league in collecting evidence against gamblers has been to confine gambling to locked and barred rooms and has taken it away from the front rooms where strangers and boys were enticed into games, formerly.

Gambling is now confined principally to professional gamblers and a few farmers who are in with them, and who furnish the principal part of the money with which the games are continued.

MORE ALLOTMENTS.

Umatillas Who Have Been Absent From the Reservation May Now Come Home and Be Given Their Land.

At the time of the allotment to the Umatilla Indians a large number of the members of the tribe were away from the reservation, with the Yakimas and Nez Percés, and did not come home to take their land and consequently have been without a home of their own since that time.

As they were only visitors on the other reservations they had no right to land there, so they have been homeless. The members of the Umatilla tribe are now taking up the matter of allotting these absent Indians on the reservation and the subject has been brought before the Indian commissioner who will direct an investigation into the subject in the near future.

The Indians who are urging the allotment of their brethren do not want to allow any half or quarter-breeds to have an allotment, but insist that the full-bloods only, who are absent from the reservation shall secure their heritage.

JOKE HAS REACTED.

Result of Burning a Drunken German's Feet With Alcohol.

A little affair that was meant as a joke at Umatilla, may have a serious result. A saloon joke was played a few days ago at Umatilla and had a serious ending for the perpetrator. The victim in the case is Charles Schmidt, an old German who became drunk a few days ago at Umatilla and, lay down in the back room of a saloon to sober up. While there Tad Stevens, a bartender, is said to have poured alcohol upon his feet and set the same afire. Instantly the old man's shoes were in a blaze, and as the bystanders could not get his shoe off, his foot became badly burned. Also, his shoe and sock were burned off.

This morning the old man went before John McCourt, acting district attorney, and told him of the affair. As a result a complaint was filed against Stevens, and it is said he will be indicted before the circuit court unless a proper remuneration is made the old man. Should Stevens be prosecuted it would be upon the charge of assault and battery, for which the maximum penalty would be one year in the penitentiary.

CHARGES WIRE DISMISSED.

Two Men Were Bound Over to the Circuit Court.

In the justice's court today the charges against the two negro barbers for working without a license was dismissed because of failure of witnesses to appear against them.

Also Williams, whose real name is Corterin, and who was arrested a few days ago for pointing a gun at Roy Stewart, was admitted to $250 bail and bound over to the circuit court. Also, the same was done in the case of Knight, charged with larceny by baillee for having left the county with a wagon belonging to Fred Weber.

Idaho Is Champion.

In one of the fiercest contested football games played in the northwest, Idaho won from Whitman college at Moscow Saturday by the score of 9 to 0, giving Idaho the undisputed championship of Washington, Montana and Idaho, says the Walla Walla Statesman. The result came as a thunderbolt from a clear sky to the Idaho backers, who predicted a score at least 20 to 0, and when the game was ended with one accord the Idaho rooters cheered the plucky little missionaries.

Goes to Nebraska.

George B. Goldsby, who has resided in this county for the past 12 years has sold his farm on Birch creek to Leedy Brothers, and will leave tonight for Superior, Neb., to reside permanently. Mr. Goldsby came to Morrow county first and then settled on Birch creek in this county, and while he likes the country, yet he prefers a corn country and will invest in corn land in that portion of Nebraska.

Two Cases of Diphtheria.

Two cases of diphtheria were reported today, both of them being attended by Dr. C. J. Smith. One of the new cases is that of Daisy French, who lives on Thompson street, and the other that of Clara Groves of 1000 East Webb street. Both cases are said to be mild, as in the case of those previously reported.
