WHERE IT PAYS TRADE

VACATION BEGINS TOMORROW.

All the Schools of Pendleton Will Re-open January 2.

Tomorrow afternoon all of the public schools of Pendleton and the St. Joseph's academy will close down for the Christmas vacation. No school will then be held until Tuesday, January 2, when work will be resumed. The Pendleton academy closed on Wednesday afternoon and will not resume until after New Year's.

In some of the rooms of the public school programs will be rendered tomorrow afternoon and at the high school the bi-weekly debate will be held.

Women Cleared $230.

The women of the M. E. church cleared about $230 on their fair which closed, after a two days' session, last night. They highly appreciate the patronage accorded them.

Son Was Born.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kidder, at their home on the Umatilla river west of the city, an eight-pound son.

At Demott's.

Turkeys, ducks, geese, chickens and oysters.

Are you still undecided what to give for Christmas? Why not give jewelry?

It is close to the heart of everyone and nothing could be more appropriate and lasting.

Jewelry is not necessarily an expensive gift.

Our experience of over nine years in Pendleton has gained for us the distinction of being the quality store, and made us famous for really worthy goods at the lowest possible prices.

Our display of Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Cut Glass, Silverware, Clocks, Fancy Umbrellas and the newest novelties in our line was never larger or more varied than this season.

Come in and see our display.
