MILES OF RED TAPE

HOW WILL TROOPS REACH
ALASKAN TERRITORY?

American Soldiers Must Be Sent to Alaska to Relieve Third Infantry, But King Edward Will Not Permit Foreign Troops to March Across His Territory and so Complications May Arise—Delicate Matter is Now Being Settled.

Washington, Feb. 3.—International complications may attend the moving of the Third Infantry from Alaska next July, and as the authorities do not just know what they may be "up against" they are preparing to hand the problem to some guileless contractor to solve as best he can.

When the Third is moved some other regiment must be sent to take its place and the department is in doubt as to the best route for the new body of men to take. The White Pass and the Yukon route would be the best from a distance-saving point of view. The attitude of the Canadian government, however, ought to be ascertained before our soldiers are sent marching across King Edward's territory.

In order to find just what the Canadians would think of the idea it would be necessary to unwind a tremendous amount of red tape. The state department would have to be asked by the war department to sound the British foreign office. The British foreign office would refer the matter to the secretary of war. The secretary of war would pass the matter up to the secretary of state for the colonies and the secretary of state for the colonies would then get busy and communicate with the Canadian officials who in their turn would sift the question through a dozen selves.

It would probably take until July before the answer trickled back to war department in Washington. To take a short cut through the reel of tape the war department has decided to let the contract out for the transporting of soldiers. The contractors who get the job will be required to give bond to the department that should there be objection to the transportation across the Canadian territory, the contractors will see to it that the troops reach their destination by some other route without additional expense to the government.

LEAVES MARSHAL'S OFFICE.

Deputy Under Reed Goes to Wallowa County to Run for Office.

United States Deputy Marshal S. Henderson has tendered his resignation to Marshal Charles J. Reed and enter the race for nomination for district attorney for the district including Union and Wallowa counties, says the Oregon Daily Journal. Marshal Reed stated this morning that he would not appoint a new man to fill the vacancy, adding:

"When the land fraud cases came up for trial I needed more men than I had in office. I made two additional appointments. I do not now need six men and will not name any one to take Mr. Henderson's place."

Mr. Henderson is a resident of Enterprise. He was deputy district attorney under LeRoy Lomax in 1904 for the district comprising Union, Wallowa and Baker counties. The last legislature cut off Baker county and made it a district by itself. Governor G. E. Chamberlain in May appointed a democrat district attorney for Wallowa and Union counties, Clarence Crawford, who named John S. Hodgins as deputy to succeed Mr. Henderson, a republican. Mr. Henderson then came to Portland and secured the appointment as deputy United States marshal.

When Marshal Reed took the oath of office last May he appointed L. C. Driggs, F. A. Clark, W. B. Griffith and S. Z. Henderson as his deputies. When the land fraud cases came up and additional men were needed to serve papers, L. Becker and G. A. Bushae were named as extra deputy marshals. They have retained their positions ever since. In view of the additional work that will have to be done when the land trials begin again this month, Marshal Reed decided not to dispense with the services of his six men. He anticipates that five will be sufficient to do the extra anticipated work during the forthcoming trials.

Frightfully Burned.

Chas. W. Moore, a machinist, of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "a quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for Burns, Wounds, Sores, Eczema and Piles. 25c at Tallman & Co.'s and Brock & McComas, druggists.

Horses Wanted.

Wanted—500 saddle and pack horses, to conform with the following description. All must be of hardy colors, good condition, thoroughly sound and all to be geldings, weighing from 1000 to 1,000 pounds; deep in the chest, well muscled, good disposition and good lookers; and free from blemishes; from 4 to 8 years old, and all broke—gentle to ride.

The undersigned will be at Pendleton February 6th, to inspect, buy and receive the same on the above date, without fail.

FRYE-BRUHN INC.

All old-time cough syrups bind the bowels. This is wrong. A new idea was advanced two years ago in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy acts on the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs and loosens the bowels at the same time. It expels all cold from the system. It clears the throat, strengthens the mucous membranes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by Tallman & Co.

All Portland persons subject to the occupation tax, and who have not yet paid for last year, are given a few days of grace more, after which they will be arrested if they do not at once square with the city.

A great stamp in cattle has taken place in Idaho. Two hundred and seventy head of cattle, many of them grade Jerseys and Holsteins, sold at Emmett a few days ago at $12.25 per head. They are being taken to the Malheur range.

The Interstate Telephone company, of which J. A. Phelps, of Spokane, is president, is credited with having arranged for the purchase of all the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company's lines in Kootenai and Shoshone counties in Idaho. The deal is said to be for about $200,000.

Senator Haysburn, of Idaho, has developed a genuine case of appendicitis and is confined to his hotel at Washington. Adherents of the Roosevelt policy toward forest reserves, feel certain that his spleen is affected, as he was taken ill the day following his heavy speech favoring repeal of the present forest reserve law.

A Policy-Holder's Com'y

All the profits earned by the Oregon Life Insurance Company go to the policy-holders and are distributed to them in cash as a dividend at the end of each year. The company is purely mutual, with the additional advantage of having a guarantee fund of one hundred thousand dollars to start with. This sum is unselfishly furnished by Oregon's most prominent business men. Investigate our superior methods and lower rates before you sign an application for life insurance.
