

Among the Exchanges of the Inland Empire

No Mutton Sheep in Yakima. James Wright, the Yakima sheepman, got an order March 19 from the Union Meat company, of Portland, for 10 carloads of mutton sheep to be delivered in Portland immediately, price 7 cents at Portland. This price is equivalent to about 5 1/2 cents here.

When Mr. Wright was seen by a Yakima Republic reporter in regard to this order he was at that time on his way to the telegraph office to wire the Portland firm of his inability to fill the order. There were several well known sheepmen who were talking to Mr. Wright about the proposition, but none of them had the mutton sheep on hand with which they could accommodate the Portland people.

"There are no mutton sheep in the valley at this time," said Mr. Wright, "and I mean by that good, fat grained sheep that are ready to market. We have no klick at the price offered, but the big demand for mutton this last fall and winter has depleted the ranks of the marketable mutton."

Sam Cameron, in talking about the matter to a Republic reporter, stated that if the sheepmen had held their mutton until this spring they would have realized big prices. "Our men are turning down orders for mutton every day," said Mr. Cameron, "and Mr. Wright's inability to fill this Portland order is nothing out of the ordinary on account of conditions which have existed here for some time."

No wool sales have been reported since the deal which was closed last Thursday afternoon when Hellbron & Co., of Portland, bought 5000 pounds from Kanack Bros., paying 22 cents, as previously announced by the Republic.

Paying Off Cornucopia Claims.
Another bunch of claims against the Cornucopia mines was liquidated in cash yesterday and $4300, as the result, was put in circulation in Baker City and vicinity.

Attorney Callahan, representing eastern interested parties, presumably ex-Receiver Beatty for John E. Searles of New York, paid into the sheriff's office in $10 pieces $4300 for the liquidation of old claims against the property, for the satisfaction of which the same was advertised in the newspapers. This has nothing to do with the satisfaction of the liens recently filed against the same property under the lease by Pierre Humbert by Attorneys Butcher, Clifford & Correll for about the same amount.—Baker City Democrat.

Baker Practically Out of Debt.
In striking contrast with the financial condition of Baker county, Grant county presents an indebtedness on March 1, 1906, of $126,631.61.

Baker county is practically out of debt and its warrants command a premium.

Only a few years ago Baker county was deeper in debt than Grant county is now, but by good business management on the part of Judge Travillon and his able assistants on the county board, that debt has been wiped out and Baker county stands at the head of the list of state counties as regards its financial condition.—Baker City Democrat.

Charged With Embezzlement.
Upon information laid before District Attorney Lomax, a warrant of arrest was issued and served yesterday upon Art Harris, ex-manager of the Geiser Grand hotel company, charging him with embezzling of certain cash books, alleged to be the property of the hotel company and wanted by experts in checking up the accounts of the late management of the hotel. The witnesses whose names are signed to the information are E. L. Felix and E. D. Geiser. Bail in the sum of $500 was fixed and was readily given by Mr. Harris.—Baker City Democrat.

May Be Case of Leprosy.
It is reported here that one of the Chinamen of the city has a severe case of leprosy. Steps will be taken to investigate the case, but the Chinaman threatens to prevent an examination. None of his fellow countrymen will venture near their brother, who they declare to be afflicted with the dreaded plague.—Grangeville Free Press.

Suit Against Psyche Mine.
Two actions have been brought in the circuit court by Cato M. Johns, the Sumpter merchant. Mr. Johns has filed complaint against Michael W. O'Boyle and John H. Foy, partners doing business under the name

Train Killed Nine Bees.
One night last week a train, running into some cattle near Soda Springs, killed nine fat bees and injured that many more. The fence was covered with snow which was hard enough to let the cattle walk over it onto the track.—Malad Advocate.
