THE COMMERCIAL CLUB NEEDS LARGER REVENUE.

Dues May Be Raised to Two Dollars Per Month—Association Is About $500 in Debt, and Has a Few Over Two Hundred Paying Members—The Gymnasium Is Responsible for the Stringency, and It Is Proposed to Charge Additional for Its Privileges.

The board of managers of the Commercial association has proposed an amendment to the by-laws of the club whereby the dues are to be raised to $2 per month. A notice of the proposed change has been posted in the association rooms, and the proposition will be voted on at the next monthly meeting.

At present the association is about $500 in debt, and the change is suggested so as to provide revenue for expenses. There are now but a few

The COLD CREAM MONTH

March is the month when complexions suffer unless protected by the use of some preparation that will prevent drying, chopping and roughening of the skin. A good cold cream will answer the purpose better than anything else, providing you get one that is rightly made. Our cold cream is right in every particular. It's a dainty pure white, delightfully perfumed cream, that will feed the tissues and protect and beautify the complexion.

HARTMAN WILL RUN

SEEKS THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR JUDGE.

Petitions Are in Circulation and in the Event That He Is His Party's Choice He Will Make a Vigorous Campaign for His Old Position as a Member of the County Court—Apparently, the Race Will Be Between Hartman and Gilliland in June.

Judge G. A. Hartman has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for county judge, and petitions in his behalf were sent out this morning.

Ever since Judge Bean announced he would resign and thus cause a new judge to be elected, there have been rumors that Judge Hartman would become a candidate and friends have repeatedly urged him to run.

However, he has waited to make sure of there being a vacancy before announcing himself. Now that he is in the race it is understood that he will make an active campaign for the nomination and election.

Judge Hartman is one of the best known and most popular residents of Umatilla county. He is a pioneer and has been closely connected with the business and political affairs of the county for many years. He was county clerk from 1896 to 1900 and served as county judge from 1900 to 1904. Two years ago he was defeated for that office by the narrow margin of 36 votes. During the campaign everything possible was done to defeat him, but even then the election of Judge Bean came as a surprise.

From appearances now, the race for county judge will be between Judge Hartman and Commissioner T. F. Gilliland. The latter was commissioner with Mr. Hartman between 1900 and 1904 and their relations have been very friendly.

ARTISANS WILL MEET HERE.

District Assembly for Umatilla County on May 15 in This City.

Alpha Assembly No. 9 and Harmony Assembly No. 113, Order of United Artisans of this city, are making preparations for a district convention of the artisans of Umatilla county, to be held in this city on May 15. Dr. W. O. Manion of Portland, supreme medical director of the order will be present, and a profitable and interesting session will be held.

Pendleton enjoys two local societies of the artisans and a large membership is enjoyed by Umatilla county and the district convention will be largely attended.

The chief officers of the local lodges are as follows: Alpha No. 9, N. R. Springer, master; Artisan, Mrs. L. F. Lampkin, secretary; Harmony No. 113, W. F. Taylor, master; Artisan, and C. M. Hogue, secretary. Both assemblies are in a thrifty condition and Umatilla county is one of the leading districts in the state in point of membership according to population.

G. A. ROBBINS RETIRES.

Proprietor of the Owl Tea House Will Leave for California in April.

George A. Robbins, who for the past seven years has conducted the Owl Tea House in this city, one of the most popular crockery stores in eastern Oregon, will permanently retire from business about April 15, and will probably go to California for a visit before leaving.

G. M. Vinton of Spokane, who will have charge of the Owl Tea House after the retirement of Mr. Robbins, is now in the city assisting in taking an invoice of the business and is well pleased with the business outlook in Pendleton.

Mr. Robbins has conducted a most successful business, unique in some of its features and has a wide patronage extending all over Umatilla county. He will take a rest from business for a time, owing to failing health and will visit relatives in California and will perhaps make no definite business plans for several months.

He has a wide circle of friends in business and social life, who regret to see him leave the city.

WINTER IN BAKER COUNTY.

Stockmen Hard Pressed, But No Very Heavy Losses Probable.

Seemingly the winter is not over yet at Baker City, for passengers from that place report a snowstorm there last evening. J. H. O'Neil, representative of the O. R. & N. company, who arrived on No. 5 last night stated that it began snowing in Baker about 4 o'clock last evening and was still snowing when the train left at 11 o'clock. Before the snowing commenced there was already an inch or more of snow.

According to Mr. O'Neil the weather is working a hardship on the stockmen of Baker county, for feed has been scarce with them and hay has greatly advanced in price. But he says the stock seem to be doing well in spite of the storm, and he does not look for great loss.

MID-COLUMBIA MEETING.

Congregationalists Will Hold Convention Here April 28-29.

The Mid-Columbia association of the Congregational church will meet in this city on April 28, 29 and the members of the First Congregational church are now making arrangements to entertain the visiting members.

The Mid-Columbia association includes all the Congregational churches in the counties of Umatilla and Morrow and two or three counties in Washington, and is in one of the important church divisions of the north-west. Last year the association met in Heppner and held an interesting session of three days. The meetings at the coming convention will be held in the First Congregational church in this city and a large number of delegates are expected to attend.

SOME ACTION IS EXPECTED.

Resolutions Framed to Form Nucleus for a Conclusion.

From indications there will be something done regarding street paving at the council meeting tonight. An ordinance has already been drawn in which the specifications for the Warren company's pavement are given. It is understood this will be introduced tonight. Also that resolutions will be presented in which the paving of Main and Court streets will be ordered.

It is said that should the Warren company be granted the contract for paving Main and Court streets it will also make a bid on the macadamizing of East Court from Mill street to the edge of the city. As the company would need all of its machinery here for the paving work, it will be in a position to bid for the macadamizing, should it wish to do so.

Mayor Fee has been in Portland for several days and has not yet returned. He is expected this evening, however, and will doubtless be present at the meeting.

KNOCKED OFF PASSENGER CAR.

Victim Painfully Hurt and Now in a Doctor's Care.

Early this morning a man named Nelson was knocked from the top of passenger train No. 6, on its arrival here. He is thought to have been struck by the pipe that extended out from the water tank. He was thrown upon the ground beside the track and when picked up was unconscious. He was turned over to the police and his wounds attended by Dr. Ringo. He was found to be badly hurt on the head, and his face was scratched, though his injuries will not be serious. He is now being cared for at the Arlington lodging house. His home is at Troy, Idaho.

This will be one of their most important shops.

Reynold Harris, of Walla Walla, is to be manager of the local shop in the future.

He will also take up some Indian land cases before the United States court while in Portland.

The Dalles district is one of the most important in the northwest and the convention will be attended by about 50 ministers, although there are but 25 active churches in the district.

The meetings will be held in the Methodist church in this city and a large number lay members from all parts of the district will attend in addition to the regular delegates. An interesting program will be rendered and the business of the district will be transacted at the meeting.

Among the prominent ministers of the northwest who are expected to be present are Rev. Walton Skipworth, of The Dalles, presiding elder of the district; Rev. John Coleman, president of Willamette university, Salem; Rev. E. T. Todd, president of the Puget Sound University, Tacoma; Rev. D. L. Rader, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, Portland.

The ministers and many of the delegates who will attend the district conference here will go from here to Walla Walla to attend the district convention of the Epworth league, which meets on May 24. The same delegates have been elected to both meetings in many instances.
