They were placed under arrest last evening and will soon be arraigned before Judge Ellis, when they will probably give bail.

O. F. Turner, deputy game warden, is responsible for the arrest of the three men, and in working up the cases against them that official and District Attorney Phelps did some good work.

In the indictment the three men are

The Advantages of Arch Crown Mountings are These

The series of well-designed arches permit the greatest brilliancy. There are no prongs on top to catch in clothing. The appearance of a diamond is greatly enlarged.

By the scientific construction of mounting, the security of a stone is assured. Have your diamonds remounted in this way. We know you'll be more than pleased.

WINSLOW BROTHERS

JEWELERS-OPTICIANS. Postoffice Block.

The man who is known to his friends and neighbors as a safe and successful business man does not invest his money in every scheme that presents itself with the "promise" of large returns. He is satisfied with a reasonable rate of interest and the absolute security on both principal and interest, such as this strong bank offers to its depositors. This course may not appear so attractive as some of the schemes offered, but is far the safest and most satisfactory in the end.

EAGLES WILL PRINT PAPER

ORGAN OF THE ORDER IN NORTHWESTERN STATES.

Publication Begins in Pendleton April 12, and it will be exclusively an Exponent of the Fraternity, and Editorially Neutral—Next State Convention of the Order Will Be Asked to Make the Paper its Official Organ.

"The Northwest Eagle" is to be the name of the paper published by the company which was incorporated yesterday. It will be a monthly, and published as an organ for the order of Eagles in Oregon, and probably Idaho and Washington. J. T. Hinkle will be the editor and manager.

Last night a meeting of the stockholders of the company was held, and an organization perfected. The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: Frank Salling, president; Frank O'Hara, vice-president; J. P. Sullivan, secretary; Anton Nolte, treasurer; J. T. Hinkle, treasurer. The board of directors is composed of J. T. Hinkle, Roy Bliner and W. G. Bogart.

According to Manager Hinkle the first issue of the Northwest Eagle will appear on April 12. He states that the paper will be devoted entirely to the interests of the order, and will take no part editorially in politics. However, advertising space will be sold for such purposes.

At the state convention of Eagles, which will be held here in May or June, the meeting will be asked to designate the paper as the official lodge paper for Oregon. Later the same will be done with respect to Washington and Idaho. Should the entire northwest field be secured, there will be a splendid opportunity for the paper.

WARDE MET WITH THE ELKS.

Delivered a Beautiful Address Following Installation.

Frederick Warde was the guest of the Pendleton lodge of Elks at a social session last evening, and his presence was greatly appreciated by the members present. At the regular lodge session the officers for the present term were installed. Upon the arrival of the noted visitor Exalted Ruler C. J. Ferguson called him to the chair to preside during the social session.

In a beautiful address Warde spoke of the order and his connection with it. He became a member when there were but 14 lodges in existence, and a few thousand members. There are now as many hundred thousands. The order has followed the flag across the Pacific, and in speaking of his travels Warde told of being entertained by the lodge at Honolulu and the one at Ilo Ilo, Philippine Islands.

At the conclusion of his address Warde called on a number of local members, and among those who responded with brief talks were Judge Ellis, Judge Fitz Gerald, C. J. Ferguson, J. H. Lawrey and others. Refreshments were then served, and the session was brought to a fitting close by singing "Auld Lang Syne," and the toast "To the Absent Brothers," which was beautifully given by Warde.

WILL BUILD A CHAPEL.

Congregationalists Will Erect Place of Worship in West End of the City.

Rev. H. N. Smith, state superintendent of Congregational Sunday school work in Oregon, has been in the city for a few days making arrangements to build a chapel on the property recently purchased by this church at the corner of Webb and Chestnut streets, in the west end of the city.

While in the city Mr. Smith has been the guest of Rev. C. H. Nellor and family, at the Congregational parsonage.

Big Oil Car Here.

One of the first of the big Southern Pacific oil cars to come to Pendleton is now in the O. R. & N. yards, having been unloaded, at Wyath. The tank is eight feet in diameter and 36 feet in length and has a capacity of 12,638 gallons. It has running boards and hand rails for trainmen on each side of the tank. The car is equipped with air brake and steam heat and emphatic notices are printed on the car, warning train men to forbid any one passing over or under the car with a torch or unprotected light. Trainmen are also forbidden to apply more than 15 pounds of air pressure to the brake, for fear a heavier pressure might create sparks on the wheels and brake shoes and thus cause an explosion. The cars are used in transporting crude oil from the fields in California along the lines throughout the Pacific coast.

Notice to the Public.

I have sold the Pendleton Printery to Jack Huston, who will continue the business. All accounts up to April 1 are due me and should be paid at once. Mr. Huston is a high-class printer, formerly in the government printing office in the Philippines and I can guarantee that you will receive courteous treatment from him in all business matters. WILL PLAY WALLULA.

Game Tomorrow at 2:30 on Alta Street Grounds.

The P. H. S. Maroons will try conclusions with the Wallula aggregation tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Alta street grounds. Wallula is reported as having a fast bunch, being made up mostly by railroad boys. However, Manager Slater is confident that his diamond experts can take the sagger-brushers into camp.

Dickie Dickson, the clever little twirler, who ozonated 18 of Columbia's men last Friday, will occupy the box part of the game alternating with "Jodo" Strand, the big south-paw. The batting order of the Maroons will be as follows:

Dickson, pitcher; Bollerman, third base; Gilbert, right field; Strand, first base; Leonard, short stop; Swaggart, left field; Means, second base; Hoover, catcher; Spellmeyer, center field. Subs, Johns, Keenan and A. Means.

NEW LINE ACROSS OREGON.

Idaho and Montana Railway Company is Incorporated.

The San Francisco, Idaho & Montana Railway company, a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Idaho, and which has its principal offices in Portland, Ore., and at Boise, Idaho, has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state yesterday, says the Salem Journal.

The company proposes to maintain and operate a line of standard gauge steam railway and telegraph line from San Francisco northerly through the states of Colorado, Nevada, Oregon, Idaho, and as far as Butte, Mont., via Boise, Idaho, a distance of about 1000 miles. The line is to connect with a branch line extending from Mason valley, Nev., to Winnemucca, Nev.

Warde Did Not Appear.

Owing to the small attendance at the Frederick Warde recital at the Frazer last night, Mr. Warde did not appear. Manager Taylor of the Frazer, in a few brief remarks, requested those present to take back their money and dismissed the audience. Mr. Warde gave an excellent recital and lecture at the Frazer yesterday afternoon to a fair-sized audience. His recital from the Shakespeare plays was excellent and he had a delightful talk and recital of "Julius Caesar" prepared for the evening. It is to be regretted that he did not receive better patronage. Mr. Warde is a first-class attraction in any line, either as actor or lecturer.

Inquiring for Land.

The East Oregonian is in receipt of a letter from Robert Pool, of Pulaske, Va., inquiring for land prices and information and expressing a desire to locate in Umatilla county. He received his first knowledge of Umatilla county through a copy of the East Oregonian and will perhaps become a permanent resident of this county in time. Readers of the East Oregonian are urged to send the papers to friends in the east. This is one of the surest ways in which to secure a substantial settlement in the western states.

Peterson & Peterson, attorneys, filed answers for 75 clients yesterday in the noted Milton water suits. It is thought that the trial will begin in about a month. The testimony will be taken before a referee appointed by the district judge.

O. R. & N. Officials Here.

Robert Burns, general agent of the O. R. & N. at Walla Walla, and E. B. Coman, assistant general agent with headquarters in Portland, left this morning for Walla Walla and other north points after a brief visit here in the interest of their departments. They are well pleased with the new freight transfer arrangement in this city by which all shipments are hurried to their destinations without delay. The system is now well under way and works well.

J. E. Smith, of the J. E. Smith Livestock company, is in the city today and is highly pleased with the excellent weather which is being enjoyed by sheepmen for lambing season. There are now over 5000 lambs in the J. E. Smith herds and all are doing well. Lambing is now general all over the county.

Must We Wash?

We may live without poetry, music and art;
We may live without conscience, may love without heart;
We may live without lovers, live without hope;
But civilized women cannot live without soap.
We may live without books, what is knowledge but sorrow;
We may live without beauty, it fades on the morrow;
We may live without law suits, indictments are quashing;
But where is the one who can live without washing.
