FINANCES OF MEXICO.

Gold is Taking Place of Silver in the Southern Republic.

Consul General Hanna of Monterey, reports that Finance Minister Limanour of Mexico, made the following statement concerning the finances of the republic, while on a recent visit to Monterey:

Since going on a gold basis Mexico is as prosperous as her most sanguine friends could desire. We are shipping out vast quantities of silver, and for every silver dollar going out we are getting 50 cents in gold in return. We have $27,000,000 in gold for circulation, $7,000,000 of this having been received from the Philadelphia mint within the past seven weeks and the mint is continuing to turn out a million a week. The mint of Mexico is also turning out $100,000 in gold daily, besides the new silver money of various denominations.

This gold is gradually getting into circulation. The banks are accumulating stores of the new money, and the gold standard is an accomplished fact in Mexico. Naturally the stability of the country's finances has added largely to the material prosperity, and enterprise is the watchword all over the republic. Business was never on a surer footing, new railroads are building in various sections, and the tone of sentiment throughout the country is decidedly optimistic.

Pasadena, Cal., is putting in a garbage crematory at a cost of $32,000 that will generate 200 horse-power by which the city will produce electricity for lighting and heating. The city owns the crematory, dynamos and entire equipment of both plants.

James H. Howard of Sumpter, passed through the city Saturday evening on his way home from Portland, where he has been for a few days on business.

F. R. Blair and his sisters, Misses Blair, were in town last Saturday from their home near Sagebrush spring. The young ladies have only recently arrived from Weston, in Umatilla, where they resided until about two months ago, when they had the misfortune to lose their home there through fire.—Madras Pioneer.

ROUTE IS DIFFICULT.

Surveyors in Harney County Find Mountain Passes Rugged.

The Burns Times-Herald has it from what it calls a reliable source that the corps of railroad engineers now working on the divide between Sage Hen and the Silver creek section, are finding it almost, if not entirely, impossible to get the grade desired. This may mean the abandonment of that route altogether and another survey to the north. The Times-Herald continues:

Since the possibilities of a route out through the divide at the head of Emigrant creek has been brought to the attention of the engineer in charge it has caused serious consideration. At least it will be investigated and if found practicable there is little doubt of its being the route chosen. On account of its directness toward the objective point the railroad people feel that they can afford some deep cuts and even tunneling to save the circuitous route necessary around the Buck mountain country on the route now being surveyed.

The Times-Herald has found men who are familiar with the topography of the Emigrant creek divide, who state most positively that the route is feasible. The article in a recent issue of the Times-Herald regarding this matter brought out a general discussion among the people and disclosed some additional and favorable features to this route. The business men of Burns should take pains to secure as much information as possible. It now looks most favorable considering the fact that the line now being investigated is not proving satisfactory.
