COULD USE 2000 MEN.

Portland Industries Are in Need of Many Employes.

If 2000 men who are willing to go out on construction work or in the mills or woods arrived in Portland today every man would be given employment within 24 hours, say employment agents, and then there would be no glut in the labor market, says the Oregon Daily Journal.

WILL OIL TRACKS.

O. R. & N. Will Oblviate Dust Nuisance Between Pendleton and Alto Hill.

In order to obviate the dust nuisance on the Spokane branch of the O. R. & N., that system will oil the tracks between this city and Alto Hill, in Washington, this spring.

The appropriation for the oil has already been allowed and work will begin within a few weeks on the new plan. This is one of the most dusty sections of the O. R. & N. system and it is thought that a few applications of crude oil will entirely eliminate the dust nuisance. It is the intention of the company to ballast the track of the Washington division next year, but it is impossible to do any ballasting this season because of the immense amount of work being done on the main line between Baker City and Huntington.

OFFERS TWO TROPHIES.

One Is for the Winners in the Coming Field Meet.

In the window of Royal Sawtelle's jewelry store there is now displayed the silver cup which Mr. Sawtelle has offered as a trophy in the coming field meet between Pendleton, Baker City and La Grande. The cup is a handsome one and will go to the team winning two out of the next three annual field and track meets. After the contest in this city on Decoration Day, the winning team will have possession of the cup for the ensuing year, and next year it will again be given to the victor.

Aside from the above cup Mr. Sawtelle has also offered a smaller trophy for the winner of the eighth grade contest, which will be held at the local field meet on Saturday, May 26.

A SHOCK AND A BLAZE.

"Destruction of San Francisco" Meets With Bad Luck.

While making preparations to draw their show to a close yesterday afternoon, Messrs. Read and Corbin, of the "Destruction of San Francisco," had an experience they will not forget soon. In the front of the room there is an iron pillar with a base of similar material. During the afternoon Mr. Read chanced to lean against the pillar, while at the same time his foot rested on the base. Instantly he received a shock that nearly felled him. Just how the pole became charged is not known, but it is presumed it became connected with the electric wires in some manner.

About the same time the riotist of the Knetescope became afire and it was necessary to carry the machine to the street to extinguish the flames. In doing so the picture throwing machine was badly damaged, and it was necessary to close the show.

REYNOLD HARRIS ARRESTED.

Charged With Disturbing the Peace by "Spelling."

Reynold Harris, manager of the Garden City Produce company's shop in this city, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Marshal Sheer for disturbing the peace. At the time the butcher was "spelling" in front of his shop, and Acting Chief Sheer requested that he move inside his shop. At this the Walla Wallian became enraged and indulged in profanity. Thereupon he was arrested and taken to police headquarters. After a few moments he was released and his case set for trial at 2 o'clock this afternoon. During the forenoon a complaint against him was sworn to by Officer Sheer.

This afternoon J. P. Winters appeared for Harris and filed a demurrer to the complaint. This was overruled by Judge Fitz Gerald, and the case was continued until 2 o'clock tomorrow.

Complaints of Theater Building.

The East Oregonian is in receipt of a letter from a regular patron of Fraser theater, censuring the owners for not repairing it and making it a first-class place of amusement in every way. Public sentiment is very strong in favor of a new and larger theater building and as Pendleton is an excellent theater town, it is possible that some effort will be made to erect a modern theater building. Several projects have been talked of during the past year looking toward a new building and it is hoped that some of them may take form before the theater season opens again.

Portland undertakers and physicians are now claiming that the death rate of that place is the smallest of any of the cities of the Union, notwithstanding that Kansas City, Mo., makes the same claim.

SETTLERS FLOCKING IN.

Irrigation Development in the Vicinity of Lewiston.

Lewiston, May 15.—Main canals six miles long, with 14 miles of laterals, are included in the Crow Creek system, upon which work has recently been started. The dam, originally intended to be 35 feet high, will be increased to 40 feet. Both the canal system and the dam are expected to be finished by October 1.

Water rights are all sold, and the flow will be sufficient this year to irrigate 2000 acres. There is to be included under the system 5500 acres. Bromus grass, oats, Canadian peas and sugar beets will be planted on a tract of 160 acres, being prepared under the direction of a Mr. Perkins. The altitude is 5000 feet. It is believed that sugar beets will thrive there, and that the Canadian peas will do as well as in Colorado.

Nebraska interests in the Wild Horse system are represented by W. E. Reese and John Horst, of Madison, Neb., who with Mr. Perkins recently went over the land that will come under that system, and expressed themselves much pleased with the prospect. Construction of the Wild Horse project has been agreed upon. Work will begin as soon as men and teams can be secured. Water from the 40-foot reservoir in contemplation on this project will be backed up two and three-fourth miles, and will irrigate 11,000 acres of land.

Many new settlers are going into the Camas Prairie section. All lands on the prairie have been taken up, and a great portion of it will be occupied and farmed this year. The region is showing a fine stand of native grass. The wagon road from Soldier to Gooding will be completed in 60 days.

STOPPAGE OF RAILROAD WORK.

Attributed to Heat and Scarcity of Laborers.

"The heat and the scarcity of labor is responsible for the closing of the camps on the Lewiston-Riparia work," said Contractor S. B. Kolb, to a Lewiston Teller reporter, who arrived in the city last night from Diamond Crossing, where one portion of his work has been located.

"It will be uphill work to do much along Snake river during the summer and on account of the great demand for labor it is out of the question to secure white men to do railroad work under the summer conditions."

"It is stated the head contractors will import Italian labor from Chicago, but this class is very unsatisfactory. It would not seem advisable to me to open the camps before the first of October when labor is more plentiful and weather conditions are more favorable and it is safe to say that little will be accomplished by those who attempt to keep their camps open during the summer months."

Death of a Pioneer.

Mrs. Seth Jones, 69 years of age, known to all of the old pioneers of central Idaho as the first white woman to ever pass through the toll gate on the old Florence trail, died at her home in this city at 7 o'clock tonight from paralysis. Mrs. Jones was quite well this morning but suffered a paralytic stroke at 1 o'clock this afternoon and passed away six hours later.

Mrs. Jones was born in Kingston, N. Y., and came to Idaho in 1861. She was one of the first white women in Idaho county, reaching this section at the time of the excitement on the discovery of the great deposits of placer gold in the Florence and other districts. She was probably the best known woman in Idaho county and very popular with all who knew her. Besides her husband five sons and three daughters survive her.—Grangeville Free Press.

Big Apartment for Walla Walla.

Hawley Bros., owning 208 feet on East Alder street at the corner of Spokane, are planning the erection of a fine two-story business block next year, says the Walla Walla Statesman. The Hawley tract, owned by P. B. W. H. and L. R. Hawley jointly, is the finest property remaining untenanted in the business district and the owners are planning a structure to cover the entire site. Plans now being formulated call for a modern brick and stone structure, two stories in height, the ground floor to be utilized for store purposes and the upper floor to be divided into apartments, modernly equipped.

Hailey's Prospects Good.

Supreme Judge T. G. Hailey, who has been campaigning eastern Oregon with Governor Chamberlain, has just returned from La Grande, his birthplace, and is pleased with his prospects, even in Judge Eakin's home county. There is a growing sentiment all over the state for a non-partisan judiciary and Judge Hailey feels that he has excellent prospects of election.
