

Not Ignorance But Misinformed

about tea and coffee has made you prejudiced about insisting on package goods. Perhaps you could never buy any other. It stands to reason that coffee fresh from the roaster, and tea direct from the Orient are superior to a grocer's bin coffee or tea in cartons, where you get 12 ounces for a pound. Weigh your next package of tea—then you'll believe us and be ready to listen to more solid facts.

Keep your eye on this space and we'll attempt to give you information straight from the shoulder about "stewed teas," "WHY COFFEE DISAGREES WITH YOU," "COFFEE FRAUDS," Etc.

Our Java and Mocha coffee is roasted fresh every day and you'll find every cup full of satisfaction. We put this coffee up against a grocer's 40c and 45c coffee. Try a pound—it's better.

WANTED: A GODDESS

PROBLEM THAT CONFRONTS
CELEBRATION COMMITTEE.

An Effort Will Be Made to Secure the Co-operation of Indians From the Reservation; They Have Assisted Upon Former Gala Occasions—The Committees Appointed Will Have Charge of Every Phase of the Celebration, Which Will Have Features That Will Please All Circles.

Who will be the Goddess of Liberty at the coming Fourth of July celebration? This is one of the momentous problems now confronting the Fourth of July committee, and it is one which had been seemingly overlooked until today. However, it is the intention to have a Goddess of Liberty to preside over the celebration, and during the day various young ladies of the city have been mentioned for the honor. It is the intention of the general committee to meet some time this afternoon, at which time the subject of a Goddess of Liberty will be brought up and a means of selecting one decided upon.

Indians for Parade.

At a meeting of the general committee it was decided to ask the Indians of the reservation to take part in the parade on the morning of the Fourth. Major Lee Moorhouse was requested to lay the matter before the Umatillas and will do so at the earliest opportunity. Whether or not the braves will consent to such an arrangement, remains to be seen. However, they were persuaded by Major Moorhouse to take part in the celebration a number of years ago, and at another time the warriors were brought to the city in their war paint, the occasion being a visit from President Harrison. In view of these precedents it is hoped the Indians will consent to take part in the celebration this year.

Sub-committees.

The following sub-committees have been named by the general Fourth of July committee to have charge of the various features of the celebration:

On parade—Sheriff T. D. Taylor, grand marshal; Roy Ritter, William Bogart, Lee Drake and Carl Cooley. Liberty car—John Halley, jr., chairman.

Decorations—George Fell, chairman.

Sports—Roy Alexander, Allie Knight, and Ernest Ruppe.

Music—Prof. L. R. Traver and Rev. W. L. Van Nuys.

Bands and orchestra—C. E. Roosevelt and M. A. Rader.

Transportation—Leon Cohen, T. C. Taylor and Charles Bond.

Red lights—Sol Baum, L. G. Frazier and H. E. Cook.

Advertising and program—E. P. Dodd, Charles Bond and Fred W. Lampkin.

Amusements—Charles Gray, K. J. Taylor and Charles Ferguson.

Indians—Major Lee Moorhouse.

Chinamen—Joe Sullivan.

Broncho riding—Charles Eppinger, Clay De Graff and Berkeley Halley.

The general committee will have charge of the financial arrangements for the celebration.

SUMMER NORMAL GROWS.

Three Recruits Added to Prof. Traver's School, Now in Progress in This City.

Three new recruits were added to the summer normal school which was opened Monday in the high school building by Prof. L. R. Traver, city superintendent of public schools of Pendleton.

Those who registered this morning were Miss Greta Philipps, of Echo; Miss Neva Lane, of this city, and Miss Naomi Stengel, of Condon. The total attendance of teachers is now 21 and the work is progressing in a highly satisfactory manner. The work this week is confined to primary teaching and the methods of Prof. Traver are highly adapted and practical.

Other teachers from this and surrounding counties are expected to arrive this week to take the remainder of the course.

EIGHTH GRADE EXAMINATIONS.

Will Be Held in All Districts Except in Pendleton.

On Thursday and Friday of this week eighth grade examinations will be held in all the school districts of the county excepting in the Pendleton district. At the coming examination many of those who failed to pass at the eighth grade examination held not long ago will again try the test.

Although many of the schools of the county have already closed, this fact will not affect the eighth grade examinations in any way, as the examinations are conducted by members of the school boards or parties designated by them. The teachers are not allowed to conduct the examinations.

TOURISTS COMING.

Party of Iowa People Coming to Eastern Oregon This Month.

Mrs. William Hilton has just received a letter from her brother, M. H. Kirkham, of Des Moines, Iowa, who conducts tourist parties to the Pacific coast, saying that he would leave Des Moines on June 22, with a party of tourists—capitalists for eastern Oregon.

The party will be organized in Des Moines with a regular route of travel over the west and will stop at every place of importance in this section.

Mrs. Hilton hopes to see the party stop in Pendleton and believes that by a little inducement on the part of the people of this country regular excursions of capitalists could be brought here.

THIRTY MEN EMPLOYED.

Scouring Mills Running at Full Capacity and Mills Will Soon Be Running.

Thirty men are now employed in the Pendleton scouring mills, and three are employed in getting the woolen mill ready for operation. Within a short time the looms in the woolen mill will start and about 20 men will be employed there.

The wool baler is also at work now and the stored wool is being prepared for shipment.

He "Sassed" a Passenger.

A fireman on the O. R. & N. who talked in an abusive manner to a passenger who started an argument about delays to trains, has been discharged from the service. One of the most important rules in the O. R. & N. book of discipline is that employees must be courteous and obliging toward the public and shall not quarrel nor abuse any one, no matter what the provocation. Quarreling among employees is also subject to severe discipline.

Surprise Party.

The Sunday school class taught by Mrs. I. E. Earl, of the M. E. church, south, tendered her a delightful surprise party last evening at her home at 624 Spruce street. The class took delicious refreshments to the Earl home and presented Mrs. Earl with a number of beautiful presents in token of her services. It was a pleasant event and was highly enjoyed by all present.

Attending Episcopal Convention.

Rev. Henry Dixon Jones and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Slater are now in Portland attending the state convention of the Episcopal church, at which a successor to Bishop B. Wistar Morris, recently deceased, will be chosen. Rev. Jones went down last evening and Mr. and Mrs. Slater left this morning. They are delegates from the Church of the Redeemer in this city.

Died at the Hospital.

Mrs. Bessie A. Shipley, of Free-water, died at St. Anthony's hospital last evening following a delicate operation. The remains were shipped to Heppner today by Baker & Folsom, undertakers, where interment will take place tomorrow. She was 24 years of age and had been in poor health for some time.

Delegates From Helix Lodge.

The delegates from Nasburg lodge No. 93, A. F. and A. M., of Helix, came down last evening and left for Portland last night to attend the grand lodge which is being held in that city this week. The delegates were O. J. Piper, worshipful master; T. Robertson, secretary, and J. S. Norvell, junior warden.

Two Cases Scarlet Fever.

Bought 20 Horses.

Al Vogel returned last evening from Union county, with 20 head of work horses he purchased in that and Walla-walla counties. He finds good horses very scarce in both counties. The cream of the market has been bought up and now it is necessary to take whatever is offered.

DISAGREEABLE DUTY.

Taking the Children From a Mother Who Protests and Resists.

"Judge, I hope I will never have another job like this to perform, for as bad as I need money, I wouldn't do the thing again for $500."

The above declaration was made to Judge Ellis yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakley after, in compliance with an order of the court, he had taken two little children from Mrs. E. B. McFarland and turned them over to the father. Some time ago Mrs. McFarland was granted a divorce from her husband and the seven children were divided between the parents. However, the mother insisted on retaining two of the girls, whose custody had been awarded the father.

As a result an order was issued yesterday directing the sheriff to procure the children in question and turn them over to the father. Deputy John D. Brown was first sent to execute the order, but when he arrived at the house where Mrs. McFarland was staying, he found the citadel too much for one man to take, so he retired for reinforcements.

Deputy Joe Blakley then sadly took up the disagreeable duty. When he arrived at the house he found a band of women ready for him, and though he made his duty and his position in the case plain to them, the children were refused him. Just at this time two men were passing the place and they were pressed into service by the deputy, who told them he would take them into court if they refused to assist. They complied.

Finding that persuasion would not avail, Deputy Blakley then took more strenuous measures, and proceeded to take a child under each arm and run. But in doing so he was handicapped by the struggles of the children and the interference of the mother and her helpers. However, he finally reached a place of safety in an adjoining house and after locking the place had one of his involuntary deputies go for a cab. The children were then placed therein and turned over to the protection of the father.

But Deputy Blakley does not care for any more such duties, and would prefer to devote his time to catching train robbers or horse thieves rather than to the taking of children from their mothers.
