CROWNING OF KING HAAKON

Preparations for the Event at the Ancient City of Trondhjem, in Northern Norway.

WILL BE ATTENDED BY NUMBERS OF AMERICANS.

Among the latter is William J. Bryan, who will remain at Trondhjem until Sunday, returning home via Gibraltar.

Trondhjem, June 21.—The Danish royal yacht bearing Prince Christian of Denmark, Haakon's brother, and the steamer Tromp with a special Dutch embassy, entered the harbor this morning amid a great cannonade.

The American ambassador is Chas. Graves, minister to Sweden, assisted by Major Gibson, of the army and Lieutenant Commander Gibson, of the navy.

The king received the American embassy this morning.

Several anarchists known to the European police, have been arrested quietly to prevent a possibility of attack on Haakon.

REDUCED RATES FOR COAL.

Will Be Made 50 Cents Per Ton Cheaper, for Storage.

On all coal purchased along the line of the O. R. & N. for storage purposes, between June 15 and August 1, a reduction of 50 cents per ton will be made—25 cents per ton reduction in freight, and 25 cents in the price of the coal.

This reduction is made to induce people to buy their winter's supply of coal during the summer season, when traffic in coal is not so heavy. In order to secure this reduction the purchaser must sign a statement to the effect that the coal purchased is for future use and not for immediate consumption.

Each winter the coal supply of the inland empire runs short, and owing to the rush of traffic it is impossible to supply the needs of the country. In order to induce people to lay in a large supply of storage coal, to avoid a famine during the winter months, this extraordinary offer has been made by the coal companies and the Harriman people.

At different places along the line this reduction is being taken advantage of. Baker City, which suffered a long famine last winter, will lay in a large amount of storage coal. Walla Walla and Colfax will also lay in considerable storage coal and the reduction is open to Pendleton as well.

WOOLEN MILLS IN OPERATION

FINISHED INDIAN ROBES WERE TURNED OUT TODAY.

Five Looms Running, and More Will Be as Soon as Operators Can Be Secured, and the Mills Will Be Going at Full Capacity Soon—Wire Orders for Robes Already Received from Different Western States.

For the first time in many months the looms of the Pendleton woolen mill turned out some finished Indian robes today. Although the mill has been in partial operation for a week, today is the first time any finished work has been turned out since the plant was leased by Mr. Sheuerman.

Five looms are now being operated at the mill, and more will be started as soon as operators can be secured. Within a short time it is expected to have the mill working at full capacity. With Charles Shepard as superintendent it will then be continued in operation for the 12 months which it has been leased.

Already many orders have been received for the famous Pendleton robes, and those turned out today were of that grade. Several orders have been received by wire from Montana and other states in the west. Consequently there will be little trouble disposing of the mill output.

Within a few days Arnold Sheuerman will go upon the road in the interest of the mill. He will first go to Portland, the sound country and from there through Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, the Dakotas and other western states. He expects to be in the field steadily for six months.

OREGON'S BIG COUNTIES.

Umatilla Is Sixth in Point of Voting Population.

The Portland Oregonian says of Oregon's six most populous counties:

According to the official election returns, the six most populous counties outside of Multnomah are Marion, with 6092 votes, Lane with 5001, Clackamas 4792, Linn 4655, Umatilla 4129 and Baker 4019. While these figures have no such value as the federal census, they may be taken as a fairly accurate measure of population.

The total vote by counties seems to confirm the view based on observation that western and southern Oregon are gaining more rapidly than the region east of the Cascades. We know that with diversified agriculture the farms this side of the mountains are growing smaller and homes are multiplying, while in eastern Oregon the tendency is toward larger individual holdings of field and range. If, fortunately, the promise of new railway lines shall be redeemed, the inland empire at the next general election, two years hence, will show big in the percentage column of gains.

EX-ALDERMAN ACQUITTED.

Charge of Bribery Against Same Man Then Dismissed.

SENATE AND HOUSE BOTH FAVOR HIGH LEVEL CANAL

Senate Took This Stand Today, Passing Without Division, the Original Canal Bill, By a Vote of 36 to 31, Which Passed the House By 110 to 39.

Invitation to Railroad Presidents to Appear and Explain to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Ignored By All But the Pennsylvania, Which Sent a Fourth Vice President—Immunity Bill Goes to Joint Conference—Representative Thayer Undertakes the Defense of the Pennsylvania Central—Minor Railroad Officials Testify to Owning Coal Stock.

Washington, June 21.—(Special.)—On the first vote on the canal question this afternoon in the senate the lock type won. The vote came on a motion by Kittredge to table Hopkins' amendment providing for a lock canal in accordance with the recommendations of the consulting engineers. The senate refused by a vote of 36 to 31 to table.

Immediately thereafter the senate agreed to change the title of the original bill (which provides for a sea level) and passed the bill as amended in favor of a lock canal without division.

As a lock canal is already adopted by the house (vote of 110 to 39) and approved by the president, this sanction of the senate settles the question. It will probably be completed in eight years.

Railroad Men Fluke.

Washington, June 21.—Today was the day appointed for the presidents of the railroads to appear before the interstate commerce commission and

PORTLAND POLISH ANARCHISTS PLOT THE MURDER OF ROOSEVELT

Portland, June 21.—(Special.)—In the municipal court this morning Walter Szalaskiewicz, a Pole, who claims to have been invited to join what the government secret service agents believe to be one of the most radical anarchist societies in America, declared on the witness stand that a plot was laid in this city last month for the assassination of Roosevelt.

He further testified that funds were raised in this city for the purpose of sending John Fryzwar, a Russian nihilist, also a member of the society, to Washington city to execute the murder. These plans for the killing of the president miscarried because of the internal dissensions which arose in the society.

Consider Immunity Bill.

Washington, June 21.—The house sent the immunity bill to joint conference today.

Not only the public schools but Columbia college, enjoy excellent patronage and have been the means of bringing an excellent class of residents to Milton.

Coman of Colfax, is president of the association; M. F. Backus, Seattle, vice president; Robert Moody, Everett, treasurer, and P. C. Kaufman, Tacoma, secretary.

Dr. Belle Ferguson was elected school director at The Dalles recently by a vote of 155 to 187. She is the first woman ever elected member of the school board at that place.

TO "TRY" THE NEBRASKA.

Big Battleship Will Make a Trial Trip in Puget Sound.

Seattle, June 21.—The course that the Nebraska will take on her builders' trial trip has been definitely decided by the official board, consisting of Captain V. L. Cottman, Lieutenant Commander J. G. Doyle and Lieutenant Julian Lane Larimer. The course is along the east passage of the shore of Vashon island. The course has been approved by Washington and beacons are already being erected. The trip will probably take place some time during the second week in July.

The test will be held to standardize the propellers, ascertain the number of revolutions per mile, in order to compute the speed which will be made during the four-hour official trial trip in the Pacific. On July 1 the Nebraska will be docked at the navy yard, her hull will be cleaned and she will endure a thorough overhauling.

PORTLAND ON A SAND BAR.

Will Probably Be Lightened and Pulled Off.

Los Angeles, June 21.—The schooner Portland is resting easily on a sand bar near Ventura. She will be lightened and pulled off unless a west wind comes up.

OIL SUPPLY IS RUNNING SHORT

THE LABOR TROUBLES AT TRISCO RESPONSIBLE.

Everything in Readiness to Begin Oiling Roadbed of Spokane Branch in Few Days, Except the Oil—Use of Oil in Engines for Fuel on the O. R. & N. May Be Temporarily Abandoned.

If it were not that the strike of the Salitors' union in San Francisco has tied up the fuel oil supply of the O. R. & N., the work of sprinkling the Spokane branch with oil would begin next Monday morning. The weeds are now being cut away from the track, and all is in readiness to spread oil over the branch from Pendleton to Grange City and perhaps to Spokane, to "lay" the dust.

The O. R. & N. oil supply comes from the southern California wells by water from San Francisco, and at present all shipping out of that city is tied up by strike of the salitors and longshoremen. It is not definitely known when a supply will be received for the track. The supply for the oil-burning engines is also very short and unless a shipment is received soon the oil burners will have to be abandoned on the Portland-Umatilla run.

The sprinkling will be done from an oil tank equipped with sprinklers reaching out on either side of the track, on the plan of a street sprinkling wagon. It is thought that two or three applications of the oil will successfully suppress the dust during the entire summer. After the oil is applied a couple of years it forms a crust on the surface which does not pulverize and thus the dust nuisance is permanently abated.

That portion of the Spokane branch between Pendleton and Starbuck is said by O. R. & N. officials to be the most dusty section on the system, and every effort will be made to permanently abate it. It is thought that heavy application of oil for two or three years will put the surface of the ground along the track in such condition that it will never again become dusty.

MAY INVADE MEXICO.

Guatemalan Rebellion Is Experiencing Ramifications.

San Francisco, June 21.—The Pacific mail liner City of Peking, arrived this morning from the southern coast. The Peking took 26 political exiles from Guatemala to Salina Cruz. Since the opening of the revolution about 6000 the situation has been too warm for several prominent politicians of Guatemala.

There is still talk on the part of the revolutionists of invading the southern part of Mexico and at Champerico attacks are expected nightly.

Chicago Wheat Market. Chicago, June 21.—Wheat closed at 83 1/2, corn at 52 3/8 and oats at 39.

May Not Be Arbitrated.

San Francisco, June 21.—The efforts of Mayor Schmitz to arbitrate the waterfront strike, will probably fail. Vessel owners are not disposed to yield certain essential points, but the sailors favor arbitration. The Umatilla sails this afternoon for northern ports with a non-union crew, and others are expected to follow.

Pendleton Should Clean Up.

Chairman R. Alexander, of the general committee on arrangements for the celebration, has made an urgent request that every resident and business man of Pendleton clean up the premises in the good condition for the Fourth of July, in order to make the best possible appearance. In the alleys and back streets in some places are piles of rubbish and waste which should be gathered up and burned before the celebration. The cost of cleaning up is very slight and the home pride of Pendleton should cause every man to do this.

Mr. Alexander feels that this will be one of the best celebrations ever held in Pendleton, and he especially desires that the city should present a good appearance to the visitors who are expected on that occasion. Pendleton is an unusually clean city, but during the spring months, especially since the high water, considerable rubbish has accumulated, and he hopes that this request will be generally complied with.
