Doubtful Claim Against Shoshone.
Prosecuting Attorney Glyde of Shoshone county also appeared before the board to make some inquiries regarding back taxes charged up against his county. The state auditor has Shoshone county charged with about $10,000. Some of this has been charged against Shoshone county for 15 years. Mr. Glyde claims that taxes charged previous to 1895 are unjust charges, never having been collected by the county. At that time many of the small towns of Shoshone county were built on government lands and under the law then in force it was impossible to collect a large per cent of the taxes assessed. The attorney asked that the board take some action on the matter before adjournment and fix up an equitable sum that Shoshone should pay. He said the county is anxious to have a final settlement with the state, pay what is due and get a receipt. The matter has been taken under advisement.—Boise Statesman.

Raising Watermelons.

Marvelous in its reality is the experience of J. K. Cox in raising watermelons. Last winter Mr. Cox purchased 20 acres of land in the Zillah region. It was planted in fruit trees 2 years old, and cost him $200 an acre. This spring he planted between the fruit trees, six acres in watermelons. Thus far he has picked but the first crop from two acres. He has sold 3000 melons at $1.25 per dozen from these two acres, netting over $100 per acre, and left the melons on the other four acres untouched. And even now, before he has picked the first crop from the remaining four acres he is trying to figure out how much per acre he can realize on the second crop of the two acres already stripped. He expects to make from $25 to $50 per acre on the second picking.—Yakima Republic.

Dragged by Foot in Stirrup.

Mrs. Agnes Staples, aged 43, wife of Clifford Staples, who lives near Forest City, may die from the injuries received by being dragged down the mountain side by one foot which had caught in the stirrup of her saddle, and lying exposed for 24 hours before being found.

Several days ago Mrs. Staples started for the Mike Rudolph ranch on the Salmon river, to get some fruit. The horse she rode was a lively animal. While on the Deer creek trail, which is very steep, it is thought that the horse either stumbled or threw Mrs. Staples. She caught her foot in the stirrup of her saddle, and was dragged several hundred feet down the mountain side.—Lewiston Teller.

Forty Tons of Hay Burns.

A rancher by the name of Sam Olsen, living near Durkee, lost 40 tons of hay yesterday by fire. Mr. Olsen has several hired men at work for him and as his sleeping accommodations are limited, several of the men have been making their bed in the haystacks. Yesterday morning early, one of the men awoke and wishing to see what time it was, lighter a match to look at his watch and carelessly threw the lighted match away without extinguishing it. In a few minutes after the stacks were found to be in flames. The loss amounted to 40 tons of hay and some hundreds of dollars' worth of harvesting machinery, including sheds and granary.—Baker Democrat.

Immense Turntable at Kamela.
The O. R. & N. company has just installed an 85-foot turntable at Kamela. This is 19 feet longer than any other turntable in the northwest and is for the accommodation of the heavy engines in the helper service on the mountains. A new feature of this turntable is an air motor by which each locomotive furnishes its own power for turning itself. The power is furnished the motor from the air pumps on the engine. A new siding is being put in between North Fork and Huron and two passing tracks are being laid at all stations between La Grande and Bingham Springs.—La Grande Observer.

Lineman's Back Broken.

E. C. Manley, a young lineman, fell from a pole at Genesee late yesterday afternoon while stringing telephone wires, and will probably die, as he is paralyzed from hips down, his spinal column being broken or fractured. At the time of the accident Manley was stringing wire that was run into his own home. His wife was in the front yard watching him at work, when Manley missed his foothold, slipped and fell to the ground, striking on his shoulder. Attending physicians hold out no encouragement for his recovery.—Genesee News.

Buying Stock.

There have been a number of stock buyers in Long Creek during the past 10 days and some important sales have been made. Joe Hayes, of Heppner, bought 600 2-year-old ewes of Grant and Steve Harer, paying $1 a head, and 107 head of Mulkey & Fields for $2.50 a head. Jim Jones, of Pendleton, has been buying cattle and has secured a good number at $15, $13 and 21 per head. Three men from North Yakima were in Long Creek last week after horses and paid as high as $60 a head for saddle horses.—Long Creek Ranger.

Commenced This Morning.

Jack Childs, with a crew of men, commenced work this morning moving the Baptist church to the property of John Wilson, the purchaser, near the hill on Sixth street. Rev. Gibson, the pastor, expects to commence excavating for the new church just as soon as the building is removed. It will be up-to-date in every particular, to be constructed of brick and stone, the estimated cost of which will be about $8000.—La Grande Observer.

Morrow County Sheep Deals.

C. A. Minor, manager of the Penland Land & Livestock company, reports to the Gazette the following sales this week:
Thirteen hundred 2-year-old ewes to D. O. Justus at $4 per head; 2000 mixed lambs to M. S. Corrigan for $2.75 per head; 75 head of picked steers at $3; also 50 head of beef cattle for $2.75.—Heppner Gazette.
