As usual the program at the pavil-fon will commence at 7:30 p. m., with muzic by the De Caprio band. Between that hour and $120 a brief ad-dress will be delivered by the governor, and it is also planned to have short talks from Jefferson Myers and A. Bennett, of The Dalles. Mr. Myers will speak upon the subject of the Jamestown fair, which is to be held next year.

At 8:30 the recention at Muzic hall will commence and will continue for an hour the grand march being held at 9:30. Much interest is being taken in the official ball, and from all indications Muzic hall will be filled to-night as never before.

3000 Vizitors Yesterday.

Yesterday was the bunner day of the fair thus far. From the opening of the gates in the afternoon until the cloze of the evening's program 3000 people were admitted. That the attendance was larger than on previous days was partly due to the fact that all Woodmen and the viziting fysicians were admitted free. However, the paid attendance was also several hundred in excers of any previous day.
