"YANKEE CONSUL" DEC. 15.

Laughable Comic Opera Coming to the Frazer.

"Mignon" is one of the favorite members of "The Yankee Consul" company which comes to the Frazer theater on Saturday, December 15, and is regarded by every other member of the company as a most important personage.

Moreover, Mignon is one of the charter members of the organization, having been especially engaged for the opening performance and played the part ever since. Mignon is a handsome little Rocky mountain burro, and is the only acting burro on the stage today. The patient little beast actually seems to enjoy stage life and the members of the company are convinced that he can understand "cues" and "business" as well as any of them.

Mignon is friendly to every member of the cast, but his special favorite is Manager John P. Slocum, to whom he is devoted. After every performance, Mignon eagerly awaits the coming of Mr. Slocum, well knowing that his reward for faithful performance of duty will be several lumps of sugar of which he is passionately fond.

COCONUT GROWERS.

Cubans Clever in Production and the Shipments Are Large.

The Cubans are clever with coconuts. One port alone, Baracoa, shipped 15,500,000 nuts last year. Their favorite nut is the San Blas, from South America. It is planted about 25 feet apart, about 15 trees to the acre.

When the trees are large enough so that the cattle can not reach the branches and injure the leaves, the land may be used for grazing purposes, but it can be more profitably used in the growing of cacao.

Cacao trees can be planted 14 feet apart, or about 150 trees to the acre, with the coconuts. Citrus trees also do well in the grove. When cacao is planted bananas also should be planted near the young cacao trees to give them shade, so that in plantation times they may be growing coconuts, bananas and cacao at one time.

The banana tree is only allowed to stand until the cacao tree begins to bear, or about the third year. The coconut tree begins to bear in about five years on the seashore and seven or eight years inland. Age does not count against the tree; some of the best trees are over 50 years old.

Each tree drops about 60 nuts a year. These nuts are gathered twice a month, hulled and brought in to the exporter. One man can gather and husk 1000 nuts a day.—Chicago Tribune.

CHILD LABOR ISSUE

URGED TO THE FRONT BY NATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

Recognized as a Great and Growing Evil by Societies Which Have Sent Over Four Thousand Delegates to Cincinnati—There Are Now 2,000,000 Children Employed in the Manufactories of the United States, and the Number is Constantly Increasing.

Cincinnati, Dec. 13.—The annual convention of the National Child Labor association, which commenced here today, was a notable one. When Dr. A. H. Frieberg called the meeting to order in the convention hall of the Hotel Havlin there were over 4000 persons present. Every state in the union sent delegates. Governor Harris of Ohio, and Major Dempsey of this city in brief addresses welcomed the delegates. Dr. Felix Adler, chairman of the National Child Labor committee, said the suppression of child labor was the most important of the country has to deal with. Among the speakers were Gov. J. W. Folk of Missouri; Governor Charles Deneen of Illinois; Charles P. Neil, United States commissioner of labor; Senator Beveridge of Indiana; John Mitchell, president of the National Mineworkers; President Nicholas Murray Bates, of Columbia university; President C. W. Bahney, of the University of Cincinnati, and Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago.

In the course of an interesting address Dr. Lyndsay, professor of sociology in the University of Pennsylvania, laid great stress on the terrible injury child labor was working in this country. He stated that according to the United States census of 1900 there were 1,750,173 children over 10 years of age and under 16 engaged in gainful occupations. Since that time he claims that the number has increased to 2,000,000. The manufacturers of the country, he said, will assist in the abolition of child labor, for they recognize that the problem of what the country is going to do with millions of children in dangerous occupations of life, health and education, growth and morals, is a very serious one.

Prof. R. S. McLendy stated that an urgent call for the organization of the national committee came from the south, which was the greatest sufferer, but Georgia was the last state to pass a law prohibiting child labor. The law passed, however, he was sorry to say, did not go far enough to suit those interested in the matter.

Governor Folk's statement that President Roosevelt was giving the association his active co-operation, elicited prolonged applause. The Hon. J. H. Morgan, inspector of workshops and factories, said the labor unions everywhere were their energetic allies.

Dr. Felix Adler, who is leader of the society for Ethical Culture, and professor of social and political ethics in Columbia university, delivered the annual address. His subject was "The Child in History." "The evils of child labor and the power of the public to prevent them" was the subject of an extremely interesting address by Gov. Folk of Missouri. The governor of Illinois spoke on the same subject. Resolutions were adopted calling on the government to totally abolish child labor. The convention will sit until Saturday night.

OUT OF SORTS.

People Not Really Sick Are Often Most in Need of Care.

The people who actually are most in need of kind words and medical treatment are not those who are really sick, but just "out of sorts."

The old-time energy, force, strength, and happy spirits are lacking; the physical and mental powers are flagging; there is poor appetite, and they cannot get the good out of the food they eat. In nine cases out of 10, this results directly from a weakened stomach, and no other treatment equals MI-O-NA to restore strength and health.

When the nerves and muscles are weak, if there is sleeplessness, irritability, and specks before the eyes, when the head aches and there is a dull pain in the back, and there is any distress and heaviness in the stomach, dizziness and sometimes nausea, the use of MI-O-NA stomach tablets for a few days will make a world of improvement, and continued use for a reasonable time will restore perfect health.

These tablets are not mere digestives; they absolutely strengthen all the organs of digestion, so that there is good appetite, perfect digestion and strong nerves, when they are used.

A large box of MI-O-NA stomach tablets is sold for 50 cents by Tallman & Co., with an absolute guarantee that they will be successful in curing digestion and restoring health, or the money will be refunded. Ask them to show you the liberal guarantee they give with every 50-cent box of MI-O-NA.
