The Theater

"Yankee Consul" Tonight.
One of the most attractive offerings of the present theatrical season will be the engagement of that successful comic opera, "The Yankee Consul," which comes to the Fraser theater on Saturday. The fame of this remarkable offering has preceded it, and theater-goers will be enabled to witness the splendid production, which has created a furore in New York and Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and San Francisco. Manager John P. Slocum, who is directing the tour this season, has engaged a splendid cast, numbering 75 people and headed by Harry Short, a clever young comedian, and Miss Isabel Carrell in the prima donna role.

The successful runs of nine months' duration at the Broadway theater, in New York, and of six months at the Studebaker theater, Chicago, are sufficient criticism of the phenomenal popularity of this delightful comic opera, the locale of which is laid in the tropical isle of San Domingoy. Henry M. Blossom, Jr., and Alfred G. Robyn are the authors of the play, which threatens to rival "Ermine" as to longevity. During its local engagement the original production, with a real beauty chorus of 40 pretty girls, will be seen.

"The Little Outcast" Monday.
E. J. Carpenter's "A Little Outcast," with its splendid scenic equipment will be produced here next Monday night, December 17. This is a melodrama of the cleverest type, having every essence of human interest. It is a love story pure and simple, with every trait of loyalty and affection which could be lent to give the play a nobler intent and color. The story which is a wide departure from the usual style of drama, is marked by novelty in construction, it is built upon the vicissitudes of a young clerk and passes in swift action from stately mansions to crime-infested haunts of New York.

CHESTER THOMPSON TRIAL.

Many of the Thompson Family Have Been Insane.

All this forenoon the county court house rang with the eloquence of attorneys making their opening statements in the Thompson murder trial, says a Tacoma dispatch. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Miller, of King county, made a statement for the prosecution. His speech to the jury lasted half an hour and recited all the incidents leading up to the murder of Judge Emory. Miller went into minute details to prove that Thompson bought a revolver and went to Judge Emory's house for the purpose of killing someone.

Judge Thompson, father of the prisoner, spoke for an hour and a half, when a recess for noon was taken. He resumed at 2 p. m. The burden of his speech was that insanity is hereditary in the Thompson family. He opened his talk by giving the history of his family for many generations back, relating numerous instances of insanity among his ancestors.

After exhaustively covering this he took up the peculiarities of his son. Beginning at his babyhood he recited the mental characteristics of the boy, told of his moods, peculiarities, likes and dislikes, his irresponsibility under various conditions and his proneness to irrationalism when his emotions were stirred.

His statement is of the most sweeping character, and may last all the afternoon, all acts of Chester Thompson being covered and placed before the jury with elaborate care. Not half of the spectators could enter the court room and the doors were locked a few minutes after the session opened this morning.

Killed by Powder Explosion.
A premature explosion of a delayed black powder blast in Porter Bros. & Welch's camp No. 5, near Reus has left the country and he tried to the Swedish foreman, and seriously wounded Sylvester Devito, an Italian laborer, at 9 o'clock this morning. Carlson, who was 45 years of age, is a well known railroad construction foreman, and previous to accepting a position on the prairie extension, was with Grant Smith & Co., the well known Spokane contractors.

There are no heavy rock cuts in the vicinity of camp No. 5, and a charge of black powder had been placed in the dirt to loosen it. The fuse worked poorly and the explosion was delayed. Carlson concluded that the fuse had failed of its purpose and instead of waiting for a possible result, hurried back to the scene. He was standing directly over the hole where the charge had been placed, when the explosion occurred. His body was hurled about 12 feet in the air and he fell heavily to the ground in a cloud of dust. Death was instantaneous from concussion and broken neck.

Devito, who is about 40 years old, and who has a wife and three children in Italy, was standing about 10 feet from the hole when the explosion hurled Carlson to his death. The force of the flying dirt broke his right leg, badly lacerating his face and filled his eyes with dust so that there is danger of losing one or both.—Lewiston Tribune (No Corres.)

GENERAL NEWS.

The shingle manufacturers of Washington have agreed on a shut-down for a period of 69 days to curtail production.

The latest from Teheran is that the shah of Persia has taken a decided turn for the worse. He has lain unconscious for several days.

James Murray Coleman is dead at Seattle. He was a pioneer of 1872 and at the time of his death was the wealthiest citizen of the place. He leaves $6,000,000.

Chief of Police Decker has raided all the gambling houses of Wardner, closing all games. Much of the paraphernalia has been shipped out, the remainder packed into back rooms.

The Clearwater Lumber company has bought 1120 acres of timber land in Nez Perce county, Idaho, along the north fork of the Clearwater, for $12,400. J. B. West, Fred Veach and Mrs. Harry Brucker sold the land.

May Kelly, an inmate of the under world, was found dead in her rooms, and beside her, dying of a wound in his temple, lay John Van Ness, a stationary engineer, late of Superior, Wis. The man will not talk and cannot live long.

The school house at Jacksonville, Jackson county, burned recently. The building cost $16,000 and was built but two years ago. There was insurance to the amount of $10,000 on the building, but school books and supplies are a total loss.

The weather has moderated in the Grand Ronde until it is reasonably certain that the 3000 tons of sugar beets yet in the ground when the early frozes came, will all be saved. These 3000 tons represent about one-tenth of this year's crop.

Mrs. Sarah T. Brown is dead at Whitebird, near Grangeville, aged 69 years. She and her husband founded the town of Mount, Idaho, in 1862. She was one of the best known pioneers of north-central Idaho and was extremely popular. Pneumonia caused her death.

It is estimated that 7,500,000 persons live in the section of country in the United States and Canada within a radius of 1000 miles of Seattle, who are directly interested in making the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition the true exponent of their material wealth and development.

At Seattle Eugenio Batinoello set a trap gun in his trunk to protect his contents. His landlady, Mrs. Emma Dally, was shot and killed while ransacking the trunk, though it was probable that her only motive was curiosity. Batinoello has been convicted of murder in the second degree.

The city employees of Seattle have organized and ask for an advance in their salaries, urging the increased cost of living. Should their demands be met, the city's expense account will be about $350,000 larger per year. The employees are backed by all the influence the labor unions can bring to bear.

The jury in the case of Orlando Murray, who killed Lincoln Whitney at Portland because the latter would not marry his sister, unanimously acquitted Murray within five minutes after retiring. The jury then took two ballots to get an expression on points of law, and brought in their verdict 45 minutes after retiring. Whitney's brothers are said to have made veiled threats against Murray. Popular opinion in Portland is practically unanimous with Murray.

CHICAGO-SEATTLE GAME.

Seattle Brings Chicago Team West at Cost of $2000.

The nerve of the Seattle high school lads in bringing a football team to Seattle from Chicago to play for the interscholastic championship of the west is everywhere commented upon favorably, and the boys probably will be rewarded by the biggest crowd that ever turned out to a football game in Seattle, New Year's Day, says the Seattle Times.

Nothing like this trip was ever even contemplated by a high school team before. Years ago the Michigan team, then in its glory, made a trip to California to play Stanford, and Stagg once took a Chicago team out there during the holidays. Both these trips were the talk of the athletic world at the time. But for a high school team to travel half across the continent to play a game of football was not even dreamed of a few years ago, much less talked of.

The Seattle team this year is unquestionably the best on the coast and northwest. The north division school won the championship of Chicago and the middle west, defeating the Hyde Park school, which turned out such great players as Eckersall and the Hammond boys, so that the winner of the game here New Year's Day will have a clear title to championship honors in the west at least.
