

SOCIETY EVENTS

The Sans Souci club will meet with Mrs. Moorhouse on Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank Frazier will be hostess next week for the Jolly Neighbors' club.

Mrs. W. L. Thompson entertained informally a few friends on Monday evening.

Mrs. E. R. Swinburne returned Thursday evening from a short visit at Heppner.

The Jolly club gave an enjoyable masquerade and dance last evening at Music hall.

Miss Alma Hallock, of Portland, is the guest of Misses Eleanor and Constance Despain.

Mrs. Ernest Skiles left on Monday for Walla Walla, where she will remain until the holidays.

Mrs. Norborne Berkeley entertained informally this afternoon in honor of Miss Alma Hallock.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cohen were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Redfield, of Heppner, last Thursday.

Mrs. W. L. Thompson will entertain at cards on Monday evening in honor of Miss Edna Thompson.

Mrs. C. J. Ferguson and daughter Jane returned home Monday from a two months' visit at Walla Walla.

Mrs. William McDonald, of Ogden, is a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moorhouse.

Mrs. Charles Myers returned home this week from Portland, after a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. G. A. Hartman.

Mrs. James Graham and Mrs. Edwin Smith, of Walla Walla, returned home today, having been guests at the Matlock-Laatz party.

The Alpha Psi fraternity are making preparations for a Christmas party to be given on December the 25th, at Eagles' hall.

Dr. Harry Pinkerton and bride have returned from the east and are now at home at the Disoway residence, corner of Water and College streets.

Miss Edna Thompson will be the guest of honor at a luncheon on next Wednesday, Miss Maud and Gertrude Sheridan being the entertaining hostesses.

Miss Fleda Parkes, who left last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, at Spokane Saturday and Sunday, is now the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Tuttle, at Deer Park, Wash.

The interesting social event of next week will be the "500" luncheon given by Miss Maud and Gertrude Sheridan, on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Edna Thompson.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding reception of Miss Edna Thompson and Mr. Clark Edward Nelson, on Saturday, December 22, at 5 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Leona Thompson, Water street.

Another attractive party of the week was the one given by Mrs. L. G. Frazier and Mrs. Fred Earl on Thursday afternoon at the home of the former on Alta street, in honor of Miss Edna Thompson. The playing of "500" formed an enjoyable pastime. Mrs. John Adams receiving the prize for the highest score. Miss Thompson was also the recipient of a pretty token. The guests were Misses Bertha Alexander, Maud Sheridan, Emma Sawtelle, Winnie Privett, Gertrude Sheridan, Edith Epple, Sadie Baim, Harriet Thompson, Adnah Bailey, Eva Froome, Eleanor and Constance Despain, Ettie Frazier, Myrtle Hill, Blanch Horn, Myrtle Hawks, Elsie Matlock, Carrie Sheurman, Fay Bartholomew, Ivy Kimbrell, Esther and Siddle Somerville, Mesdames Harry Thompson, Charles Myers, George Hartman, John Adams, Robert Forter, Richard Mayberry, McNabb, Frank Hayes, Louis Hunziker, Thomas Spoor, Frank Macy, Sam Thompson, Edward Cramer, Robert Ringo, Henry Rolif.

An event much enjoyed by those present was the ante-Christmas dancing party given last evening at the home of Mrs. William Matlock, when she and her daughter, Mrs. Fred Laatz, entertained about 200 guests. The reception hall and parlors were festooned in Christmas greens, mingled with the holly shades of red. The same colors were carried out in the dining room, where an appetizing collation was served. Ropes of fir hung suspended from the electroliter to four sides of the table, from which red bells hung pendant. A large bouquet of red carnations adorned the center of the table, together with red hooded candles placed at intervals. Mrs. A. W. Nye and Mrs. Aura Raley presided at the coffee urns. Assisting them were Mrs. Carl Wheeler and Mrs. Harry Bickers. Mr. and Mrs. Matlock and Mrs. Laatz received their guests in the drawing room. Assisting them in the reception hall were Mrs. Thomas Ayers, Mrs. Eugene Vaughan, Mrs. Thomas Warner, Miss Ethel Swagart and Miss Pauline Mimms.

A feature much enjoyed was the singing of Mr. Edwin Cook, of Athena. He was assisted by the opera house orchestra, who furnished good music throughout the evening for the dancers, who were loath to depart from the pleasant surroundings.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. James Graham and Mrs. Edwin Smith, of Walla Walla; Mr. Edwin Cook, of Athena; Mr. Carl Diether, of Fort Wayne, Ind.

A pretty church wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church, when Miss Gaiene Campbell and Mr. Frank Hayes plighted their troth.

At 8 o'clock the notes of "Lohen-grin" wedding march, played by Miss Lyman, announced the approach of the bridal party. The bridal procession was led by the ushers, Mr. Mark Moorhouse and Mr. Roy Raley, followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Fay Bartholomew and Miss Myrtle Hill, both handsomely attired in white net elaborately trimmed in lace, and worn over light blue taffeta silk, with picture hats of light blue, trimmed with ostrich plumes of the same shade. Arm bouquets of La France roses were carried.

The maid of honor, Miss Bertha Alexander, preceded the bride to the altar, looking lovely in an empire gown of blue silk messeline, with lace yoke. A hat of the same shade of her gown completed her toilet, together with a shower bouquet of pink roses.

The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. Thomas Campbell, and was dainty in her bridal robe of white silk messeline trimmed in lace, made with a train. A tulle veil fell in graceful folds about her. Bride's roses was the bridal bouquet carried. The officiating clergyman, Rev. Van Nuy, and the groom, who was attended by Mr. Ernest Ruppe, awaited the coming of the bride. The beautiful ring marriage service was used.

After the service was read the organist played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes led the bridal party from the church, which was filled with friends of both contracting parties.

A wedding reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dickson. In the reception room the host and hostess together with the bridal party, received their guests. In the library, where punch was served, Mrs. Fred Earl, Mrs. Clarence Penland, Mrs. John Adams and Mrs. L. G. Frazier presided, assisted by Mrs. Charles Eppinger, Miss Edna Thompson, Miss Roberts and Miss Frazier.

In the dining room, where a buffet luncheon was served from a prettily appointed table, Mrs. Elmer Dodd, Mrs. Sam Thompson, Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., and Mrs. Harry Thompson took turns in pouring coffee. Assisting them were Mrs. Frank Macy, Miss Gertrude Sheridan, Miss Harriet Thompson, Miss Eva Froome, Miss Maud Sheridan, Miss Myrtle Hawks, Miss Blanch Horn and Miss Gertrude Campbell.

Mrs. Frank Moule and Mrs. Richard Mayberry assisted in the reception hall.

Long Tennessee Fight.
For 20 years W. L. Rawls, of Bella, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Euckler's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence; 25c at Tallman & Co.'s, druggists.

Glassware at Cost.
We have a consignment of glassware, which we are selling at wholesale cost. See our display window. The water set which we are offering for $1.15 will cost you at least $2.50 elsewhere.
