NOTES OF UMATILLA

HOTEL WILL BE BUILT BY MAN FROM PENDLETON.

Found & Sons Have Received a Burglar and Fire-Proof Safe—North Bank Tunnel Nears Completion—Slight Collision Sends an Engine to the Albina Hospital—O. R. & N. Pumping Plant Broken—Dislocated His Shoulder—Closing Game of Basketball.

Umatilla, Ore., April 10.—Hiram Stephens is visiting his brothers, Omer and A. B. Stephens, Jr., the past few days.

J. C. Scott, of the Jones Scott company, of Walla Walla, was in town yesterday.

J. C. Fox, an insurance man from Spokane, was in town Monday.

A new sign adorns the front of the sheds at Switzer's lumber yard.

J. H. Pound & Sons have just received a new fire-proof safe.

It is rumored that a new hotel is soon to be built here by a business man of Pendleton.

The north bank tunnel will be completed in about three weeks.

George W. Kelley has sold his place here in town to J. E. Hatler and will soon leave for Troutdale, where he has farm property.

Miss Pearl Carlisle of Arlington, was in town Tuesday. She is a candidate in the Telegram contest for Jamestown exposition.

A slight collision occurred at the roundhouse last night. A hostler helper running a large compound engine into the switch engine No. 24, No. 24 will have to go to the Albina shops for repairs.

The O. R. & N. pumping plant is broken down and the town is temporarily out of water. Engines are being taken to Echo and Coyote for water.

Mrs. Joseph McCulloch's father, Mr. McMann, accidentally slipped and fell Monday and suffered a dislocation of his right shoulder. He was taken to Pendleton and is resting easy now.

The Hepper high school basketball team played the U. A. A. C. team in Medus hall last Saturday night and were defeated 13 to 10. It was a good fast game and was enjoyed by all present. This will finish the season here. We hope to have a good team ready for the next season, when we will undoubtedly have a new and larger place to play.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures in grippe coughs, and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Koepfen's Drug Store.

HELMISTON NOTES.

Weather Has Been Favorable for Reclamation Work.

Hermiston, April 11.—Tonight the Hotel Williams at this place will be opened with a grand ball, for which Johnson's orchestra at Pendleton will furnish the music, and the Hermiston cafe will furnish supper. The dancing will be in the third story of the hotel, in a room 70 feet long and 30 feet wide, with an excellent floor. A large crowd of people is expected to attend from different parts of the county.

The present good weather will be a great help to the contractors who are running the new county roads over the government lands. These roads will later have trees planted along them, and will be made very beautiful.

The visit of the Portland business men is being looked forward to by the people of Hermiston, though it will be short. Nothing will be left undone to show them the worth of the future of this end of Umatilla county.

The meetings are still being well attended in the Chapel car. Mrs. Hermiston, wife of the Rev. Mr. Hermiston, will go to Pendleton Sunday, where she will speak in the Baptist church at that place.

The foundation for the Hermiston Mercantile company's building is rapidly nearing completion, and it will not be long before the building will be put up.

Work is now progressing rapidly on all parts of the Umatilla project since the weather is so favorable. The buildings which are in course of construction will soon be completed, and more new ones are being planned.

The different contractors who had work to do on different parts of the Umatilla project expect to complete their work within the contract time, which is May 1 for some of them.

SOME NEWS FROM MILTON.

RUSHING WORK AROUND ADAMS

Bumper Wheat Crop Expected—Son Born to the Seaneys.

Adams, April 11.—Farmers are putting in good time in the fields since the rains have gone. They were somewhat behind with their spring work. Everything looked bright in this part of the county for a bumper wheat crop.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Jim. Seaney, April 5, a 12-pound boy.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Koepfen's Drug Store.

At Sherwood, Ore., Carl Stowaser, was pouring babbitt metal into a mold when it exploded and Stowaser was badly burned about the face, neck and head by the hot metal. One eye was badly injured.

SCOTCH TERMS.

The Word "Clan" and the Relation of Clansmen and Chief.

Everybody knows that the word "mac" (pronounced in Gaelic machk) means son, so that, for example, Mac Donald literally means the son of Donald. But it is not generally known that when a woman is spoken of the highlanders substitute for "mac" the feminine "nich," which means daughter; that the vocative of "mac" is "richk" (we spell phonetically), which always replaces mac when a person is addressed, and that the nominative plural is michk (sons) or clann (children). Sir Walter Scott's ignorance of Gaelic frequently led him into error upon these points, both in his poetry and in his novels.

The meaning of the Gaelic word clan, as just stated, is children, and the obedience which clansmen owed to their chief was considered by them rather as the affectionate obedience due by children to a father than as that due by subjects to a ruler. They believed themselves to be all blood relations descended from a common ancestor, of which their chief was the living representative. The clansman who hesitated to save his chief's life at the expense of his own was regarded as a coward who fled from his father's side in the hour of peril. On the other hand, the chief was expected at all times to acknowledge the meanness of his clan as his relation and to shake hands with him wherever they might happen to meet. Subordinate to the chief and generally related to him were the chieftains and tacksmen.—London Standard.

DIET AND HEALTH.

Use Foods That Will Give the System the Oil It Demands.

Every person requires a certain amount of oil in his food in order to be healthy. Our ancestors lived to a large extent on olives, filberts, chestnuts and other nuts containing oil. The present generation uses too little oil in its diet. This can be taken in the shape of the pure expressed olive oil, as an emulsified salad dressing or by eating nuts, olives, etc. It may be a matter of choice how the system gets its oil, but a certain amount is essential to the enjoyment of good health. The good results of the habitual use of the above articles in the diet are soon shown, especially when persons are inclined to colicky indigestion and constipation. Doctors will do well to instruct their patients to use pure olive oil in moderate doses, also as dressing for salads. Various kinds of nuts have a high dietetic value because of the oils which they contain and can be used to advantage. When patients incline to consumption, pure cod liver oil ranks at the head of oily substances, but the lesser oils also can be taken in moderation.

Nature furnishes many cures for the successful treatment of diseases if we will but study her methods instead of following fads. The result will be a greater progress in building up resistance and immunity from disease.—Washington Star.

The Bank Clerk.

It is the duty of the clerk to be zealous. The low spirited has no place in a bank. Neither has the frivolous. The man who works for a bank is respected in his community because it is known that the character of his work is important and particular. He must not only be direct and speedy in what he does, he must not only be faithful and constant in all that he does, but he must go a step further and do what he does with a will, and a good will at that. Zeal requires interest and enthusiasm. One of the troubles with the bank clerk is that his senses and his buoyancy are apt to be dulled by the endless repetition of details. There is no way to shirk it. No bank clerk can go home at night with his work unfinished.—C. W. Stevenson in Bankers' Monthly.

An Honest Quaker.

A sheriff was once asked to execute a writ against a Quaker. On arriving at his house he saw the Quaker's wife, who in reply to the inquiry whether her husband was at home said he was, at the same time requesting him to be seated, and her husband would speedily see him. The officer waited patiently for some time, when, the fair Quakeress coming into the room, he reminded her of her promise that he might see her husband. "Nay, friend, I promised that he would see thee. He has seen thee. He did not like thy looks. Therefore he avoided thee and hath departed from the house by another path."

Money in Words.

Mrs. Humphrey Ward got for "Helbeck of Bannisdale"—the name's enough—$75,000. Barrie got for "The Little Minister," book and play, $250,000. Hall Caine got for the book and play of "The Christian" $150,000. Mrs. Grant was paid for her husband's autobiography $250,000. Nansen got $50,000 for his "Farthest North." Sir Walter Scott got $90,000 for his "Life of Napoleon." Ruskin, for "Modern Painters," got $50,000.—Kansas City Times.

Almost a Threat.

Police Inspector—Haven't I often instructed you that you are not to allow the public to pick the flowers in this park? Park Keeper—Yes, that is my wife, who used to be your cook. Perhaps you will try to make her stop.—Megendorfer Blatter.

A Domestic Distinction.

"They say that your wife wears the pants," commented the tactless friend. "She does not," responded young Mr. Esupek with some spirit. "She merely selects 'em."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Will Advertise Oregon.

Extended stories in the large and influential eastern publications have always been considered the best publicity the state could possibly receive, and the fact that Rinaldo M. Hall, formerly advertising manager of the Harriman lines, has succeeded in inducing each of the several big publications he represents on the coast to accept 10,000 words on Oregon this year will be good news to the state at large, says the Portland Oregonian. During Mr. Hall's service with the railroad he formed a very extensive acquaintance with eastern publications, and their knowledge of his ability as a descriptive writer opened the gateway for the splendid work he will do for the state and the coast. These stories will cover every industry in Oregon and will do much toward inducing new settlers and investors to this section.
