Were Not Allowed to Introduce Testimony Which They Allege Would Prove Much Discreditable to Estes Aside From Mere Question of Honesty-Much Parleying and Debating Between the Attorneys, Who Argued Many Objections Pro and Con-Many Witnesses Examined.

In the McManus trial the defense has been continuing its testimony today, and from present appearances the case may not be ready for argument before tomorrow afternoon or possibly Monday. During the fore-noon today most of the witnesses were called for the purpose of testifying as to the bad reputation of Bob Estes as to his honesty. However, none of them were permitted to go into details as to the life he led.

This afternoon the defense began by calling physicians to testify as to the probable attitude of Estes when shot.

Motion Partially Sustained. The motion which had been argued for two hours yesterday afternoon, when it was attempted to admit teswhen it was attended to the character of Bob Estes, was ruled upon at 5 o'clock by Judge Bean. The judge o'clock by Judge Bean. The judge held that the question as to character was too general and sustained the objection. He stated, however, that It would be proper to admit evidence more special in its nature and which would tend to show reputation as to honesty. The court then adjourned until this morning. Deputy Marshal Short on Stand.

Deputy Marshal Short was on the stand during the argument yesterday afternoon and again took the stand this morning.

The officer said he had known Es tos since 1894. Objections by the prosecution to all questions regarding the occupation of Estes were sustained.

Supervisor Gallagher of San Francisco Makes Sweeping Confession Which Is Published in Full in the Call of That City-Implicates Ruef and Schmitz and Telephone Officials-Call Subject of Investigation by Grand Jury-More Labor Troubles Ahead.

San Francisco, April 26.-Superior Judge Hebbard today applied for a warrant for the arrest of Heney on the charge of criminal libel. speech at Stanford university last night Heney referred to Hebbard as one Ruef's henchmen, and also referred to what he termed Hebbard's unfitness to sit on the bench, intimating he was not always swayed by law in rendering decisions.

In the same address Heney denounced W. F. Herrin, a Southern Pacific attorney, as being the real boss of San Francisco, declaring that Ruet is merely his understudy.

Hebbard Drunk and Threatening. The warrant was refused. Heb-bard then went to police headquarters, where he flourished a revolver declaring he would kill Langdon if the warrant were not issued. He was taken to the chief's office and a guard placed over him. Langdon ordered him arrested if he made any further disturbance. Hebberd was drinking.

Gallagher Turns State's Evidence. San Francisco, April 26 .- The publication in the Call this corning of the full text of the confession of the supervisors has created a great sen-sation, as the story of the corruption is laid bare before the grand jury made it public, and on the day following the confessions. The verbatim statements as published today completely substantiate the unofficial statements published March
