COMMERCIAL CLUB

DISCUSSED THE PUBLIC HITTING PLACE ISSUE

Referred to Committee to Co-operate With City Council—Matter of Changing the Wild Horse Road Was Also Considered and Referred to Roads Committee and the County Court—Association Subscribed $25 to Baseball Fund.

At the meeting of the Commercial association held last evening the subjects of a public hitting place in the city and of changing the course of the Wild Horse road were the main topics of discussion.

The question of how to secure a suitable place for farmers to hitch their teams while in town has been bothering the council for many months and apparently no solution has yet been found for the problem. Last evening the topic was brought up at the club meeting by Leon Cohen, and after some discussion, the matter was left with the committee on city interests, with authority to co-operate with the council in the matter.

The proposition of changing the Wild Horse road so as to make it less susceptible to damage from floods was brought up by W. L. Thompson. Since the road was so badly washed out during the flood this spring the county court has been considering the matter of changing the road to the hillside in accordance with the general policy of getting the roads out of canyons wherever possible. The committee on roads was authorized to work with the county court in endeavoring to secure the change wanted.

The sum of $25 was subscribed to the baseball fund for this year and the routine business of the past month transacted.

Deed Already Given.
 This morning County Judge Gilliland stated that the county court has already secured from Peter Tachella a deed to the land desired by the county for road purposes, so no further efforts by the Commercial association will be necessary. The strip given by Mr. Tachella for the new road is 600 yards long and will now make it possible for the court to change the road at that point on Wild Horse so that further washouts will not occur. The road will be changed for about a half mile, extending to the line of Judge Halley's place. A remuneration of $75 was paid Mr. Tachella for the right of way.

During the high water this spring the water from Wild Horse rushed down the road by Tachella's place, washing it out badly. In order to prevent damage in the future, should the old route have been retained, an expense of $1000 or more would have been necessary, according to

MOSES TAYLOR'S KINDNESS.

Little Story of Human Interest From Oregon Penitentiary.

A little story of deep human interest in which Moses Taylor, the pioneer citizen of Weston, plays a prominent part, has just come to light.

While serving a sentence in the penitentiary Mr. Taylor met and became a friend of Henry Wintzingerode, of Washington county, who was serving a life sentence for killing a man in 1850. "Dutch Henry," as Wintzingerode was called, had served 27 years of his sentence and was growing old and feeble and was suffering from an enormous goitre on his neck.

Mr. Taylor took compassion upon his fellow prisoner and upon Mr. Taylor's release from the penitentiary a few days ago, he at once interceded for "Dutch Henry," promising to bring the old German to his Weston home for the remainder of his life if Governor Chamberlain would pardon him.

Yesterday Mr. Taylor passed through the city to his home at Weston, and in company with him was "Dutch Henry," who will live at the Taylor home near Weston hereafter.

Off to the Assembly.

Adams is the delegate from Pendleton presbytery, having been elected at the late meeting at the Tutuilla Indian mission, and Mr. Yates is lay delegate from Pendleton. Rev. Adams will attend the Jamestown exposition before returning. Mr. Yates will perhaps return immediately after the assembly closes.

 Tom Milarkey, jr., left yesterday for Boise to make the trip overland by means of a buggy. The rig is the property of the Warren Construction company, and he will drive over the route that was followed by his father while driving pack teams to Boise in the early days before the advent of the railroad.

Suit for $983 on Account.
 Suit to collect the sum of $983.76 and also $120 attorney's fees, has been filed against Joe Craig by T. J. Tweedy. The papers in the case were filed today and in the complaint it is alleged that Craig is indebted to the plaintiff for that amount for numerous notes now past due and for merchandise sold to him and not yet paid for.

LONGSHOREMEN'S RIOT.
 Caused by Attempt to Land 300 Strike-breakers.

New York, May 8.—The longshoremen's strike is becoming so serious that Commissioner Bingham says it may be necessary to call off the annual police parade Saturday.

A serious riot was precipitated by the arrival at Coenties slip of a barge with 300 strikebreakers. The barge drew out of range.

• Madison Jones Badly Hurt.
 • Madison Jones, the pioneer resident, was painfully hurt this afternoon through falling into the excavation in the sidewalk on the Alta street side of the Savings bank. About 2 o'clock the old gentleman was walking along the sidewalk and evidently failing to see the hole, he fell in, striking his head upon the concrete walk, and was picked up in an unconscious condition. He received a bad cut about the head which required several stitches to mend.
