F. A. WATERS IS OUT

RESIGNED SATURDAY AT REQUEST OF MAYOR.

Improper Interference at Dance Caused Downfall—"No Right to Interfere With Innocent Pleasures," Says Mayor—Action Gratifying to Members of Company L, Who Claim Vindication—Gurdane Is Well Liked.

Because of his intrusion at the dance given by company L in the Armory last Thursday evening, F. A. Waters is no longer a policeman. His star was given up Saturday afternoon when, at the request of the mayor he tendered his resignation as night officer. As a result of the action taken by the officers and members of company L, as well as others who were present at the dance, feel gratified, for they feel that reparation has been made for the affront given.

After the complaint against Officer Waters had been made to the police committee by the officers of company L, Mayor Fee and Councilman Murphy investigated the matter very thoroughly. They say that they found that the officer's action in butting into the dance as he did was inexcusable, and that he was removed for that reason. According to Mayor Fee, the administration has no desire nor right to interfere with the mere pleasures of the people as long as they are indulged in innocently. However, should the bounds of propriety be overstepped at a dance or other social function it is the duty of an officer to insist that the management maintain order.

Aside from the complaint from company L, other charges of over-officiousness were also made against Waters. However, the mayor states that they found no other incident wherein he could not be upheld. During the time Waters was upon the force he was regarded as being a very capable man in many ways and was undoubtedly a brave officer. However, his judgment and knowledge of people was defective.

Gurdane Is Popular. While objections were made to Waters, no fight whatever has been made upon Marshal Tom Gurdane or the other members of the police force. On the contrary, the chief is personally popular with those who were objecting to his deputy and he is regarded as unusually competent.

Who will be chosen to take the place of Waters is not yet known, and last night Officer Kearney was the only one on duty.

INCREASED FLOW SOMEWHAT. Resumption of Operations on La Grande Artesian Well. The artesian well in the O. R. & N. yards has this afternoon increased its flow from a little more than 100,000 gallons per day of 24 hours, to 172,800 gallons, according to the La Grande Observer of Saturday last.

This increase is due to the cleaning and sinking of the six-inch pipe through which the water flows from the interior to the surface.

The 59 feet of sediment which had settled in the bottom of the pipe have been removed and the well lowered 9 feet. At this point the diggers ceased operations for a while to ascertain the nature of the increased flow. The last 10 feet of filling in the pipe was a mixture of hard black rock and shale. Since increasing the depth of the well, the water is loaded with sandy sediment.

Mr. West stated late this afternoon that the thought they would go a trifle deeper still, but before doing so they wanted to study the nature of the flow as it is now running.

Test the Flow. An accurate test was made this afternoon of the flow. A 52-gallon barrel was filled in 25 seconds, which amounts to the flow in 24 hours as stated.

"The water is there and will surely flow if it is allowed to do so," is the opinion of all who are connected with the success of the well. The exact depth is now 859 feet.

PECULIAR HEIRSHIP CASE.

Decedent "Left" Unsurveyed Land Which Heirs Will Get. A Moscow, Idaho, dispatch has the following account of a peculiar issue in title to realty, and the outcome: Judge Steele has just rendered a decision in a case heard in Idaho county brought by James De Haven as administrator against James L. Perkins. In 1872 one Pollock settled on the land and with a view of making a pre-emption entry when the land was surveyed. The land was not surveyed until 1904 and consequently no filings had then been made. Pollock, however, died in 1902 and the defendant Perkins went upon the land and took possession of it as unappropriated government land. One Bridges also attempted to take a portion of the land in the same morning. Perkins and Bridges placed their rights before the land office, paying no attention to and probably believing that the Pollock estate had no further rights in the land. When the case came on to be heard Judge DeHaven as administrator offered his pre-emption filing and asked to intervene in the case before the land office. This was permitted and as a result he obtained a favorable decision in all of the hearings had, his fight being made in the interest of the Pollock heirs. In 1900 the pre-emption laws were repealed, reserving, however, the right to good faith settlers to complete their claims. Since the death of Pollock, the defendant Perkins has held possession of the land and yet holds patent although patent has been issued to the Pollock heirs. This suit is brought for the possession of the land and for $690 damages, which it is alleged was the reasonable rental value of the land. The decision rendered sustains the contention of the administrator in the main and gives him possession and $100 damages.

Will Kennedy, a resident of this city, who has been braking on the passenger for Fred Waffle between this city and Huntington, met with a painful accident yesterday morning in which he received a broken collar bone and he was otherwise painfully bruised.

He was picked up by the trainmen a little later, and was immediately sent to Portland. Reports from there today say that he is resting easy, and that his wounds are not serious.

SCORE SIX TO ONE

PENDLETON WAS BEATEN BY WALLA WALLA AT BASEBALL. Pendleton in Better Form Than for Some Time Past and Played With Spirit, and the Spectators Saw the Worth of Their Money—Lorimer Was a Star and Pitched a Fine Game—Walla Walla Will Play a Return Game at This Place Next Sunday.

In the ball game at Walla Walla yesterday the Pendleton team played with something like its old time ginger, and though the score was six to one in favor of Walla Walla, the spectators nevertheless saw a good ball game.

Of the runs made by Walla Walla, all were secured during the first three innings and three of them were in the first inning as a result of an unfortunate play. With two Walla Walla men on bases the ball was knocked to Graves, in throwing it home the ball went wild and passed through the pickets of a line fence in front of the bleachers. Owing to the fence it could not be gotten and all three men ran home. Had the grounds been properly laid out the thing could not have occurred.

For the Pendleton team Lorimer pitched a splendid game, especially after the third inning. As a result no more runs were made during the game. The single run by Pendleton was made in the seventh inning. The game was a swift, sort one, and lasted but an hour and a quarter.

Next Sunday Walla Walla will come here to play and it is confidently believed that at that time the "Jonah" that has followed the local team during its career thus far, will be thoroughly removed. As a result of the game yesterday there is a more hopeful feeling among the players and the fans who saw the game, for they declare that the team played good ball, if it did not win.

ESTATE FROM NORWAY.

U. of I. Team Goes Home.

The White House saloon at The Dalles was burglarized in the night by unknown parties who escaped with $300 cash.

COMPANY L WILL CAMP WITH MAIN BODY GUARD.

Seven Old Companies Ordered to Fort Stevens and Columbia—Remainder of Brigade Will Be There Too if Grounds Can Be Secured—Otherwise Will Camp Elsewhere—Company L's Expenses Will Be Defrayed by the State.

Though company L, of this city, has not been selected as one of the seven companies of the guard to camp at the national government's expense this year, it will nevertheless go upon encampment, as the entire brigade does each year, and if suitable grounds can be secured the encampment will be held near Astoria. On Saturday Adjutant General Finzer was at the coast for the purpose of arranging for camping grounds, and it is presumed that orders for the encampment will be issued within a few days.

In choosing the companies to cooperate with the federal troops the older companies of the state were selected. Those designated to act with troops at Fort Stevens and Columbia are: company A, Baker City; companies C and K, Portland; companies A and C, separate battalion, Eugene. These companies will go to Fort Stevens. Company B, Portland, and company M, Salem, are assigned to Fort Columbia, Wash. Lieutenant Colonel John M. Poorman will be in command. A detachment of hospital corps will accompany each command.

The staff officers assigned to the expedition are: Major John L. May, Captain L. H. Knapp, quartermaster third infantry; First Lieutenant Rease Leabo, battalion adjutant and Captain M. B. Marcellus, assistant surgeon. These officers will be stationed at Fort Stevens.

First Lieutenant J. B. Hubbard, battalion adjutant, and Second Lieutenant Carl Ritterspach, battalion quartermaster and commissary, will accompany the Fort Columbia division. These officers are directed to report to Lieutenant Colonel Poorman in Portland at 8 o'clock on the morning of July 6, but further than that nothing is known as to what time of day the troops will depart for their respective stations on the coast.

Nothing whatever is known as to the nature of the maneuvers that the companies will be ordered to take part in at the coast stations, not even in a general way. Orders for action are never given until dusk of the day preceding the maneuver. However, it is presumed that the guard will cooperate with the regular troops in coast defense work because the artillery has been given direct command over the movements of the entire force at Fort Stevens and Columbia.

Companies D, E, F, H, I and L, the remaining commands of the third infantry; companies B and D, of the separate battalion; separate companies E, S and F, and the field battery will probably be sent on a separate expedition to a point not far from Fort Stevens or Columbia. The state will provide for this expedition.

Prospect for Dearer Coal. A general rise in coal prices due to the scarcity of that article and the additional charges added by the mining companies to the supply of the retail dealers will be announced shortly. Word has been received by J. L. Hughes of the Yakima Artificial Ice & Coal company of an intention on the part of the mines to increase the price of coal already ordered. So sure did the mine owners feel of their ability to get the higher prices asked that they offered the local dealer the opportunity to cancel his order if he cared to do it.

The shortage of coal which is being observed in North Yakima is said to be common to most of the northwest cities. A prominent Seattle dealer said this morning that in that city the coal supply was no larger now than during the famine months last winter. The demand he pointed out was not nearly as great, so that the shortage was not felt, as it was then. That the condition does not augur well for fuel consumers was his belief.—Yakima Republic.
