DEATH OF J. H. McNETTE.

Caused by Paralysis—Passed Away at Wallula.

J. H. McNette, a pioneer resident of the county, and father of Mrs. T. G. Montgomery and Miss Flo McNette, of this city, died at Wallula yesterday afternoon. Word of the sudden death was received here late in the afternoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and Miss McNette have gone to Wallula to attend the funeral.

Two years ago the deceased suffered a stroke of paralysis and he never recovered from the same. Since then he has been confined to his bed, and his death was due indirectly to the stroke.

Aside from his children living here, the deceased also leaves another daughter, Mrs. L. E. Rehm, of Helix.

DEATH OF MISS BOLLERMAN.

Took Place at Walla Walla at 123 Park Street, Yesterday.

Miss Christiana Bollerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bollerman, died at Walla Walla yesterday. The death occurred at the family home on 123 Park street and the funeral will occur this afternoon.

The deceased was well known in Pendleton, where she formerly lived with her parents and attended school. She was 27 years of age, being born on Long Island in 1880. She was a member of Daphne circle, Women of Woodcraft, and this forenoon several members of that organization left for Walla Walla to attend the funeral.

Among those to go over were Mrs. V. Stroble, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Cronin and others.

MERTON COOPER DEAD.

Death Resulted from Kick of a Horse Upon His Skull.

Merton Cooper, the little boy kicked by a horse on Little McKay creek, died yesterday afternoon from his injuries. He was kicked in the head by a horse which he was following about the yard. His skull was fractured and there was never much hope for his recovery.

The funeral occurred at 1 o'clock this afternoon, the interment being in the cemetery at Pilot Rock and the service conducted by Rev. Robert Diven.

Satisfaction vs. Contentment.

An Irishman says satisfaction and contentment are nearly synonymous but thinks there is a slight difference, and illustrates it in this way. Any one may be satisfied with the furniture and carpets they have in their home, but they are not contented with such furnishings after they get a good look at the many pretty and useful things to be seen at RADER'S. There is a difference. U C?
