NEWS OF WESTON

WHEAT GIVES PROMISE OF FIRST-CLASS YIELD.

Heavy Rain Fell During an Electric Storm Accompanied by Wind—Union Prayer Meeting at Baptist Church—Miss Rogers Is Recovering—Purchased 600 Cords of Wood—Will Visit in Washington—Returned From Trip to Montana.

Weston, June 29.—A sudden electric storm occurred in this vicinity Thursday evening. Much rain fell in a short time, accompanied by wind, but reports from the grain fields would indicate that no very serious damage was done. Wheat, although heavy, stood up well. The hot weather did no damage, according to observers who made a tour of the fields. The prospect is first-class.

Miss Ina Rogers, who was operated upon at Walla Walla a few days ago, is getting along very fine according to late reports.

The Weston brick yard has purchased about 600 cords of wood at Kamela.

Many people from this section of the county will go to Pendleton to celebrate the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pinkerton have gone to Dayton, Wash., to visit relatives. They will visit several places in Washington before returning home.

Jesse Lueuallen has returned from a trip through Idaho and Montana.

The aid society of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Marena Michaela a few days ago.

Union Prayer Meeting. A union prayer meeting in which all the churches participated was held last evening at the Baptist church. The meeting was led by Alexander Ginnear.

ATHENA MILLS WILL SHUT DOWN

For a Few Days, Until Cars Can Be Secured.

Athena, June 29.—Rev. J. P. Sharp, who was visiting his brother here for some days, visited Pendleton this week, and while there he will lecture at the Presbyterian church on "Civic Righteousness."

Herbert Manasse, who fell from a bicycle a few days ago and sprained his knee, is getting along fine, and is about able to throw aside his crutches.

Short of Cars.

The Preston-Parson flouring mill will close down the first of next week for a week or 10 days. The mill has just closed a contract for a 2000-barrel order for China. There is considerable trouble experienced in securing cars enough to make shipments on account of the heavy orders.

The Magic No. 3.

Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Parris of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Tallman & Co., druggists. 50c.
