SUSPENDED EDITOR WEDS.

Echo of Stanford's Sensation Recalled by Wedding of W. F. Herron.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Announcement was made this morning that W. F. Herron, a senior of Stanford university, who gained considerable mention last spring as the author of the poem, 'Bathsheba,' for the publication of which the faculty compelled him to resign the editorship of the college magazine, which has recently been compared as an equal of Sterling's 'Wine of Wisdom,' was secretly married this summer to Miss Stella Wynn, a graduate of Stanford of 1906, and a well known short story writer for McClure and other eastern magazines. Octopus Chiefs to Testify.

New York, Sept. 21.—John D. Rockefeller and five great chiefs of the Standard oil company were today called to testify in the government suit to dissolve the Standard oil company.

UNDER RELIGIOUS CLOAK.

Testimony Shows That Young Lady Died of Treatment.

Zion City, Sept. 21.—The coroner was convinced after an investigation that the many deaths at Zion City were hidden under a religious cloak. The case of Mrs. Greenough Wednesday is the first to secure publicity. Testimony shows that a Miss Young also died of the demon treatment by Mitchell. The bodies were kept for days by the Parhamites in the hope of incantations that would restore life.

Roast Saturday Evening Post.

Portland, Sept. 21.—Samuel Blythe and the Saturday Evening Post came in for a severe roasting last night at a meeting of the East Side Improvement club, one of the city's largest organizations, because of the recent article on Portland in the Saturday Evening Post. The article was a direct insult," declared President McKenna. "It was disgusting."

MOORE GIVES UP ALL HIS WEALTH

PRESIDENT OF DEFUNCT BANK 'MAKES GOOD'

Over 7000 Acres of Wheat Land Valued at $250,000, in Eastern Oregon and Washington, Deeded by Walter H. Moore, President of Oregon Trust and Savings Company to Receiver Devlin—This Amount Will Fall Far Short of Paying Losses.

In his efforts to help reimburse the depositors of the defunct Oregon Trust and Savings bank, which recently failed in Portland, Walter H. Moore, president of the bank, with his wife, Mrs. Laura Moore, transferred to the receiver of the bank, Thomas Devlin, 7496 acres of rich farming lands in Multnomah, Morrow and Sherman counties, in Oregon, and in Franklin county, Washington, valued at $250,000.

The deed to the receiver is made absolute and there are no provisions attached, it being the wish of Mr. Moore that the property be used to the best advantage in repaying the extraordinary losses sustained by the depositors of the bank.

While this act on part of Moore is commendable, yet it is the common sentiment that it deserves no special commendation, as the president of the bank and all its other officers are in duty bound to make good every cent of the loss to depositors. This sum will fall far short of every cent of repaying the losses which will reach to more than $1,000,000.

'PORTLAND DAY' SUCCESS.

Over 30,000 People Attended State Fair on Thursday.

'Portland Day' was the best day the Oregon state fair has ever experienced, says the Salem Statesman.

Portland certainly showed its loyalty to the state institution in the handsome manner in which the citizens turned out.

The crowd is estimated, all records having been lost by the rush and jam at the main gate when the Portland rush came on, at approximately 30,000 and the attendance would have been increased materially had the Southern Pacific transportation facilities been equal to the occasion.

Three special excursion trains, carrying from 12 to 15 coaches each, pulled in at the fair grounds between 9 o'clock in the morning and noon, bearing approximately between 4500 and 5000 souls, and it is estimated that 1000 tickets were sold in Portland, the purchasers of which the company could not accommodate, and were disappointed. Furthermore it is stated that from 1000 to 2000 people who desired to come to the fair were refused tickets and could not even get into the yards.

LOOKS LIKE WAR AT MARE ISLAND

Working Forces at the Navy Yard Have Been Quietly Increased, Many Fold.

ALL ARMORIES AND MAGAZINES FILLED TO LIMIT

The Transport Warren, Although Scarcely Seaworthy, has been Ordered to Manila With a Cargo of Harbor Mines and Other War Material—Magazine Force at Mare Island Suddenly Increased From Half a Dozen to 200 Men—Officials Indignantly Deny Statement That Fleet Cannot be Accommodated.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—The United States navy and war departments have issued orders for the preparation of war munitions on the Pacific coast. The armories and magazines are being filled with supplies and hundreds of additional men have been employed for the work within the last few months. Activities have increased remarkably at the Mare Island navy yard where the force of men is employed in the magazines has increased from half a dozen to almost 200. Each cruiser and warship arriving is being equipped with a full supply of powder and shells.

The transport Warren, though scarcely fit for the voyage, has been ordered to the Philippines with a cargo of mines and other war material.

Mare Island Can Handle the Fleet. San Francisco, Sept. 21.—The officials of the Mare Island navy yard deny the assertions of Congressman Lilley of the house committee on naval affairs that Mare Island is not prepared to take care of the battleship fleet which is coming to the coast.

They say a small appropriation will be required to deepen the Mare Island channel to the drydock, which at present has 30 feet of water at high tide. Any cruiser could be cared for, besides in an emergency Hunter's Point drydock could accommodate any ship in the navy.

British Fleet to the Pacific. Vancouver, Sept. 21.—The British navy will probably reoccupy the Esquimalt naval station in the near future if private advices received here are correct. A British fleet is to follow the American squadron to the Pacific.

Sir Wm. Hazelett, M. P., chairman of committee on the unemployed of London, is here and says the Chinese and Japanese can easily be replaced by good white workers from the old country.

REYNOLDS ACQUITTED.

Portland, Sept. 21.—After being out but 20 minutes last night, the jury in the case of Reynolds, on trial for the murder of George H. Hibbins, brought in a verdict of acquittal. Reynolds formerly lived at Freewater and Walla Walla and came to Portland a year ago. Hibbins followed and kept up his alleged familiarity with Mrs. Reynolds. The jury voted unanimously for acquittal, thus expressing its unqualified indorsement of the 'unwritten law.'

ARE NOT OF RIFF-RAFF.

Says Dr. Johnson, Who Was in Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 21.—Dr. Robert Johnson of Montreal, who was in Vancouver at the time of the riots, says today: "People of Canada must understand the problem that confronts British Columbia. It is one that must be solved by the western province. Men in the parade are not of the riff-raff, but are of the people of the working class of Vancouver. British Columbia's problem is Canada's problem."

TWO MEN ARRESTED ON SUSPICION

Suspected of having stolen a lot of valuable plunder they tried to sell here this morning two men are now under arrest and held by the sheriff under suspicion. They were arrested in the Sharon & Eddings second hand store, while they were there trying to dispose of their stuff.

According to Sharon, the men appeared at the store yesterday and pawned several new paint brushes. At the time Mr. Sharon's suspicions were aroused and he endeavored to find out if the brushes had been stolen of any of the local dealers, but

RUICK MAY HAVE FIXED THE JURY

Testimony in the Boise Trial Looks Bad for Prosecuting Attorney.

HAD A PRINTED LIST OF ALL THOSE INDICTED

According to George Latham of the Grand Jury, Ruick Made an Argument in Favor of the Indictments, and Stood Outside the Door of the Jury Room While the Indictments Were Voted—Before the Land Frauds Indictments Were Voted Ruick Exhibited a Printed List of Those Afterward Indicted.

Boise, Sept. 21.—United States Judge Whitson did not finally pass on the motions raised by the defendants in the land fraud cases this morning, as expected. Instead he said he would investigate the charges against Ruick, contained in the affidavits from grand jurors. These charges are so serious that the court could not overlook them.

George Latham of the grand jury, who made the principal affidavit against Ruick, was the first witness called. He stated that Ruick had come into the grand jury room the day before the indictments were returned with a printed list of those afterwards indicted. He said that Ruick wanted the indictments returned that day.

Asked if Ruick had made an argument, he said Ruick had made what he considered an argument. He said that Ruick said the responsibility for the indictments would be on his shoulders.

Hawley then took the witness for the defense, and Latham told the court in answer to Hawley's questions that he had wanted to explain his vote on the indictments, but was shut off by the foreman. He said Ruick stood outside the door while the indictments were voted and was in the room three minutes after the indictments were voted. No indictments were read to the jury but merely the names of those to be indicted.

Judge Burch then took the witness. "How old are you," he asked. "Sixty-two," said the witness. "Ever served jury before?" "Yes," said the witness. "Was Ruick district attorney then?" "Yes," said the witness. "Did you make an affidavit?" "Yes." "Who asked you to make a sworn statement?" "Hawley," said the witness. "I met Hawley at the postoffice and he asked me to come to Borah's office and talk it over."

FIVE KILLED IN RUNAWAY.

Engineer Fireman, Breakman, Two Tramps Killed by Freight Train.

San Bernardino, Sept. 21.—Five men were killed this morning in a runaway freight train through Cajon Pass, which crashed into a light engine near Devore station, wrecking the locomotive and many freight cars. The dead are: Engineer Stratton, Breakmen Ray and Bryan, and two tramps. The injured, Fireman E. Thresher, fractured skull. Fire broke out in the debris. The firemen and tramps died in the flames.

AGAINST THIRD TERM.

Congressman Hayes of California Says "No Despotism."

New York, Sept. 21.—"I shall resist with all the power I have, the breaking down, in any way, of the anti-third term sentiment." This is the way Congressman E. A. Hayes of San Jose, Calif., sums up his position in relation to the third term for Roosevelt. He declares that Mexico is practically a despotism because of Diaz' continuous service and that he believes that the executive is able to accumulate too much power if he remains in office over eight years.

FORECAST FOR NEXT WEEK.

National Events Are Scheduled to Take Place.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The trial of United States Senator Borah, who is charged with conspiracy to defraud the federal government by securing illegal entry of timber lands, is scheduled to begin Monday at Boise. The fight between Tammany hall and Mayor McClellan will attract attention to the primaries in New York city Tuesday.

It is expected that on Tuesday Judge Landis in the United States court at Chicago, will announce his decision in regard to granting immunity to the Chicago & Alton railroad in the cases in which they are charged with granting rebates to the Standard Oil company.

President Roosevelt will leave Oyster bay Wednesday for Washington and will start four days later on his western and southern trip. Secretary Root is to leave Washington Wednesday on his trip to Mexico. Secretary of War Taft is due to reach Yokohama about Thursday and will spend a week in Japan before resuming his journey to the Philippines.

General Booth of the Salvation army, will begin his tour of the United States at Boston, where he will arrive Friday for a stay of three days. The last session of the Hague conference will be held Saturday, and the protocols will be signed the following day according to advices received here.

In Berlin there will assemble next Monday the Fourteenth congress of Hygiene and Demography.

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State league of republican clubs will begin at Harrisburg Wednesday, when it is expected the presidential boom of Senator Knox will be given an enthusiastic endorsement.

ARE ASKING HELP FROM PENDLETON

LONG CREEK WANTS TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION

Twelve Miles Between Ukiah and Dale Not Supplied With 'Phone Line—Long Creek People Are Trying to Raise $400 in Public Subscriptions to Build the Line and Ask Pendleton to Help—Will Give Pendleton a Continuous Line to the Interior.

Another emphatic demonstration of the fact that Pendleton is now and will continue to be the commercial center of eastern Oregon is brought to the minds of business men this week, in the efforts of John Day people to raise funds by public subscriptions, with which to complete 12 miles of telephone line needed to connect this city with Long Creek, 80 miles south of here.

L. F. Resing, a representative of the people of Long Creek and Grand county, is in Pendleton for the purpose of securing help to build a connecting link of 12 miles in the Long Creek-Ritter Telephone company line between Dale and Ukiah, by which the people of that section will have direct telephone connections with this city. As it is the only communication is by way of Baker City, over 200 miles out of the way.

The Long Creek-Ritter line extends from Long Creek to Dale, a portion of the way being on barbed wire fences, but it is in working order most of the time, but there is a gap of 12 miles between Dale and Ukiah not supplied with a line and the people of Long Creek are making every effort to secure help from this city in raising $400 needed to build that 12 miles of line.

As the line from this city now reaches to Ukiah, the completion of the line between Ukiah and Dale would give Pendleton direct communication with practically every farm house over and with every town and postoffice from this city and Long Creek in the interior of the state.

As the freight for all the Long Creek district is now hauled out from this city the people of that section desire direct telephone communication and are asking Pendleton to help get it.

Examination for Carriers. A civil service examination for post-office clerks and carriers will be held at the postoffice in this city on September 25. Any one desiring to take this examination may secure information from Ralph Howland, clerk of the examination board, at the postoffice.

DEFENSE RESTS IN RHONIMUS TRIAL

Court, Attorneys and Defendant Will Visit Scene of the Killing on Monday.

RHONIMUS' NEIGHBORS SPEAK WELL OF HIM.

Bad Reputation of Myers Was Testified to by Many Residents of Cabbage Hill, While the Same Witnesses Unanimously Commended the Character of the Defendant—All Testimony Now Taken With Possible Exception of One Witness to Be Here Monday—Court Will Drive From Mencham to Cabbage Hill.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the defense in the Rhonimus trial rested its case, though Judge Fee stated that he had another witness yet to examine. As he cannot be here until Monday the defendant's attorney asked that the rebuttal evidence be heard this afternoon and the additional witness used next week. This plan was assented to by the lawyers for the state and a brief recess was then declared by Judge Bean.

It is the expectation to have the rebuttal evidence completed this evening and on Monday morning the court, jury, attorneys and the defendant himself will all go to the scene of the killing. The party will take the early morning train to Mencham and drive from there to Cabbage Hill. They will return in the evening and on Tuesday the case will doubtless be given the jury.

Bad Reputation Alred. After having finished with Rhonimus' personal recital of the killing of Myers and the incidents leading up to the affair, Judge Fee, attorney for the defense, then began the introduction of evidence tending to show the bad character of Myers and the general good reputation of his own client.

Yesterday afternoon many well-known McKay creek ranchers were called to the stand in succession and almost as one declared that Myers had the reputation in that community of being a horse thief and a cattle rustler. Among those called were Dave Horne, J. W. Winn, Joe Hubbard, Frank Hubbard, G. F. Dunn, Willis Fee, James Isaacs, Ernest Isaacs, Harry Folsom, Allen Rhodes and others.

Neighbors Upholding Rhonimus. When the above line of evidence was completed the same men were recalled and testified as to the good reputation of Rhonimus, both for truth and veracity and peace and quietude.

Until Dick Adams was upon the stand no testimony had ever been produced upon the subject of the defendant's standing for peacefulness. Adams testified that his reputation in that regard was good and the admission allowed of a cross-examination by the state upon that point.

With successive questions Colonel Raley inquired if the witness had ever heard of Rhonimus having trouble with or drawing a gun, at different times, upon E. P. Marshall, John Temple, Sam Bell, Allen Rhodes, Alice Padawah and others. However, the witness had heard of no such occurrence, though he remembered of the old man's being arrested for some trouble with two boys, Morris and Rhodes, who were said to have been tormenting him.

When the other witnesses recalled were asked the same questions it was found they were likewise in ignorance of any trouble excepting that with the two boys and with Myers. Old man Rhodes denied he had ever had any serious trouble with Rhonimus, but said his son had once been accused of stealing by the old man. However, he says that the charge was untrue and that Rhonimus afterwards found that out.

PUTER TO BE PARDONED.

Portland, Sept. 21.—S. A. D. Puter, the man who confessed in the land fraud trials and whose testimony brought the conviction of Mitchell and others, it is said, will soon be pardoned by the president. It is said Henry promised this to Puter when in Portland last month. Puter is now serving a two-year sentence in the county jail, and has seven months still to serve. He is writing a book giving away the secrets of the land fraud ring.

Exploded Shell Kills Five.

Wilhelmshaven, Germany, Sept. 21.—Five persons were killed and six wounded today when artillerymen unloading ammunition at the depot dropped a shrapnel shell, which exploded.

Second Degree Murder.

Bellingham, Sept. 21.—After being out over 32 hours in the case of Dean Dell, charged with the murder of Addie Roper, the jury found a verdict of murder in the second degree.
