

SOCIETY EVENTS

On New Year's night three well known homes kept "open house" for New Year's callers and it being leap year the gentlemen received while the ladies did the calling.

At the Raley residence on College street Colonel J. H. Raley and son, J. R. Raley, received and they were assisted by many members of the Pendleton bar and by several friends of the younger host. The list of those assisting is as follows: Judge H. J. Bean, Judge S. A. Lowell, J. P. Winter, R. J. Slater, W. C. E. Pruitt, Roland Oliver, Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald, C. H. Carter, Dan P. Smythe, Roy W. Rittner, E. B. Waffle, Allie Knight, Royal Sawtelle and Ben Burroughs.

The home of C. E. Nelson, on the north side, was also the scene of a New Year's reception, and in entertaining those who called the host was aided by the following friends: Mark Moorhouse, George Hartman, Jr., L. G. Frazier, Ernest Ruppe, Fred Earl and Thomas Vaughan.

The third place kept open was the beautiful Tallman home on Water street, and while Mr. Tallman did not decide to receive until late in the day, there were many callers and all were pleasantly entertained. Those assisting the host were T. W. Ayers, Leslie Matlock, J. M. Keeney, Winn Stewart and I. W. Ware.

About 30 guests spent a most delightful evening on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., who entertained at cards in honor of their house guest, Miss Elizabeth Milne of Hillsboro, and Miss Sally Gray, sister of Mrs. Hartman. Progressive "500" was played at six tables, Miss Maud Sheridan and Mr. Royal Sawtelle winning the prizes given for the highest number of points.

Mrs. W. J. Furnish, assisted by Miss Kathleen Furnish, entertained at a dinner on New Year's eve, followed by a box party at the Oregon, in honor of Miss Eleanor Vincent and Miss Edith Slusher. Covers were laid for 10 at a prettily appointed table, which was made very attractive in its decorations of holiday colors. The guests besides the honor guests were Miss Syble Cleeton, Miss Euna Smith, Messrs. Jack Vincent, John and Brook Dickson, Harold J. Warner and Cressy Sturgis.

A pretty party of last week was given by Mrs. Max Baer on last Saturday evening at her home, when she entertained about 30 of the young people in honor of her nieces, Miss Elizabeth Baer of Baker City, and Miss Irene Hexter. Five-handed "500" was played, at which Miss Stein, of Walla Walla, and Cressy Sturgis proved to be the successful contestants. Mrs. Baer was assisted in the entertainment of her guests by Miss Bertha Alexander and Miss Gertrude Sheridan.

Eagles' hall presented a pretty picture New Year's night, when the Alpha Psi fraternity gave their dancing party. The decorations were in holiday colors, which were enhanced by numerous college pennants. These parties are annual affairs with the fraternity and are always looked forward to by the younger set. Much credit must be given the young men for the good taste shown in the arrangement of the decorations. Punch and ices were served in the ante-room at one side of the hall, made cozy with fancy robes and rugs. Johnson's orchestra played 18 numbers of delightful music, which was interspersed with vocal selections by Mrs. Selkirk Norton, Mrs. J. R. Dickson and Miss Bernice Ruppe.

Mrs. Ernest Tatom returned to her home at Baker City on Wednesday, after a week's visit with friends and relatives in this city.

A small company numbering about 14, watched the old year out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mayberry.

Miss Pearl Hoch gave a watch party to a number of friends New Year's eve, at her home on Thompson street.

A pleasant farewell reception was tendered Prof. C. W. Steele, retiring principal of Pendleton Business college, on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. Struthers, at 604 Thompson street, where Mr. Steele has made his home while in the city. A musical and literary program consisting of instrumental pieces by Miss Means and recitations by Miss Hazel Crossen and Miss Dorsey were rendered, and Mr. Steele was presented with a fountain pen as a souvenir from the students of the college. Over 30 students and friends were present and light refreshments were served, and a most enjoyable evening spent. Mr. Steele will leave for his home at Altamont, Mo., this evening, after a residence of two years in Pendleton.

A mile-post was passed in the home of Colonel and Mrs. J. M. Bentley in this city on New Year's day, when the 40th anniversary of their marriage was pleasantly celebrated at their home on the north side. Colonel and Mrs. Bentley were married in Stanislaus county, California, 40 years ago on New Year's day and came to Umatilla county in 1871, where they have since resided and where they have hosts of friends. They are among the most highly respected pioneers of Umatilla county and have enjoyed a most pleasant wedded life.

A delightful watch party was enjoyed witnessing the advent of the new year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nissen on the north side on New Year's eve. A musical and literary program was rendered and a delicious luncheon was served at midnight. A score of friends were present and the evening was most pleasantly passed.

A pleasant party in honor of Mrs. W. H. Isaacs and daughter, Ada, of Caldwell, Idaho, was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Mattie La Dow, at her home, 219 Beauregard street, last Saturday night. Club Notes

Mrs. W. J. Furnish Entertains. One of the most delightful of this season's series of interesting club affairs was the one given by Mrs. W. J. Furnish at her residence on Water street, Friday, to the members of the Current Literature club and other guests.

Two excellent papers were read. One, by Mrs. G. H. Clarke, on "Clocks," was replete with interesting facts concerning time pieces. The other, an able paper on "Annie Laurie," giving the romantic story of how and by whom it was written, and a brief sketch of the Scotch lassie who inspired it, was read by Mrs. T. M. Starkweather.

Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton then sang "Annie Laurie," and responded to an encore with "An 18th Century Gentleman." But her splendid voice was heard at its best in Gluck's "Orfeo ed Euridice" in Italian. Her accompanist was Mrs. Edgar Fischer, of Walla Walla.

Tea was served from a prettily appointed table and small photographs of "Annie Laurie" were given as souvenirs.

How to Avoid Pneumonia. You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough and expels the cold from the system as it is mildly laxative. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package.—Pendleton Drug Co.

It always makes us mad to hear anybody boasting of how early they arise in the morning.
