WOOL OUTLOOK NOT GOOD.

New Mexico Wool Man Tells of Eastern Conditions.

James Wilkinson, president of the Albuquerque Wool Scouring Mills, who was called to Dover, N. H., a few weeks ago on account of the death of his father, returned to the city last night, says the Albuquerque Journal. While in the east, Mr. Wilkinson visited Boston and other wool centers, and says that the prospects for the wool market the coming season are not very flattering.

"Money is very tight all over the east," said Mr. Wilkinson, "the manufacturers are over a month late in getting started in their weaving. There is not much demand for woolen goods and consequently the demand for the staple article is rather light. The financial stringency and the coming presidential election tend to make the eastern wool buyers rather conservative in their speculations."

"Altogether, I am afraid the demand for wool will not be very heavy the coming season, and the price will be affected somewhat as a result. Just what effect this will have on local prices remains to be seen."

Frank C. Myers of Bellingham, is heralded as an honest man. Myers entered suit against the city for damages from a fall on a sidewalk. He asked $1000. Later he recovered from his injuries and reduced the suit to $35 to cover only the medical bill.

Sale on Trimmed Hats.

All "left over" trimmed hats for ladies or children to be closed out at once regardless of cost. No winter patterns to be carried over as we need the room for new spring goods. THE VOGUE MILLINERY, 822 Main St. Mrs. N. E. Harris, proprietor.

It will be unnecessary to go through a painful, expensive operation for piles if you use ManZan. Put up in a collapsible tube with nozzle, ready to apply. For any form of piles, price 50 cents. Sold by A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

Carload of Fine Pianos.

The Thornton music store enjoyed such a fine holiday trade on their famous standard makes of pianos, that they were compelled to place a rush order for another car, which will arrive in a few days. This shows that the public wants high grade goods. Be sure and see these new instruments upon their arrival.
