RETURNED FROM PORTLAND.

J. H. Estes Denies That He Is In the Second Hand Business.

J. H. Estes, wife and child, returned home last evening from Portland where they have been visiting since Mr. Estes sold his barber shop in this city. On their return they were accompanied by Misses Margaret, Etta and Maud Shutrum, who will visit here for a short time and then return to Portland to live.

Mr. Estes denies the report that he has become engaged in the second hand business at Hermiston, or at any other point. He says that within a short time he will take up the matter of diminishing the number of trout in the creeks of this county and will also assist in boosting the Pendleton baseball team. However, he has formed no business plans for the immediate future.

ANSWER TO A. H. SUNDERMAN.

Joe Bailey Replies to Charge That He Is Not a Taxpayer.

Echo, April 16.—(Editor East Oregonian.)—Seeing in your valuable paper an article from A. H. Sunderman using my name, I think it no more than fair that I should answer the same.

Would say that the office of county commissioner has not been sought by me, but by my friends for me.

In regard to the letters sent out. They were unsolicited. My friends very much desiring representation on the board of commissioners, have asked me to allow my name to be used as a candidate from the western portion of the county.

I am the only candidate for the office west of Pendleton. My home is in the vicinity of Echo. A. H. Sunderman is a resident of Pendleton.

My people are only asking a fair thing that the west part of the county be represented.

My claim for recognition is not that I pay taxes on a residence in Pendleton and on 14,400 acres in Union county, but that I have the support of the heaviest taxpayers in the west end of the county who are very earnest in their support.

Therefore the people do not feel as though I am disqualified for the reason that my taxes are small.

Yours respectfully,
JOE BAILEY.

Fine Picture of Pendleton.

W. S. Bowman, the photographer, has just taken a splendid panoramic view of Pendleton, the photo being taken at the instance of M. A. Rader, who will use a half-tone engraving of the same in the souvenir booklet he is now having printed. The picture is taken from the hill on the north side and shows that entire section of town, the business portion and the greater part of the east end. It is the most extensive photo ever taken of the city.
