

FRANTIC WOMEN

Organic disturbances of the feminine system act like a firebrand on the nerves of women, often driving them fairly frantic.

A nervous, irritable woman is a source of misery not only to herself, but to all those who come under her influence. That such conditions can be entirely overcome by taking is proven by the following letters.

Mrs. Mary Wood, of Christiansburg, Tenn., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had the worst form of female troubles and my nerves were all torn to pieces; sometimes I suffered so much that it seemed as though I could not live. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I feel like a different person. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold, and I cannot say enough for your advice."

Mrs. Wallace Wilson, Thompsonville, Conn., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was all run down, nervous, and could not rest nights. Doctors failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

BUSIEST WEEK OF CAMPAIGN

POLITICAL FORECAST SHOWS THINGS ARE WARMING UP.

State Conventions, Banquets and Speech Makings Follow Each Other in Rapid Succession—Grant's Birthday to Be Celebrated by Patriots.

Washington, April 25.—Next week will be the busiest since the 1908 campaign was opened, if the number of state conventions to be held throughout the country affords any criterion. While most of these gatherings may be safely forecasted, as to their presidential preferences, a few surprises are likely to develop.

While no conventions are scheduled for Monday, there will be several important meetings and banquets of a political nature in various parts of the country. Grant's birthday will be observed by many patriotic bodies in the large cities of the land. One of the most important of these will be the Grant day dinner in Pittsburgh, when Senator P. C. Knox, Pennsylvania's candidate for the presidency, will deliver the principal address. Secretary Taft will begin the week in Connecticut, and on Tuesday will go to New York, where he will speak before the Civic Forum. He has chosen for his subject on this occasion "The Influence of America on Popular Government in the World." The Independence league will hold its second annual banquet in New York on Monday evening, and it is expected that William Randolph Hearst will take advantage of the occasion to announce some of the plans of his new political organization.

Republican state conventions, to select delegates at large to Chicago, will be held on Tuesday in Arkansas, Colorado and South Carolina, while republican primaries will be held in New Jersey and the District of Columbia. Democratic state conventions, at which the Denver delegations will be selected, are to be held on the same day in New Jersey and Connecticut.

The Colorado convention will be held in Pueblo, and is certain to instruct its delegates for Secretary Taft. While some of the negro voters of Arkansas are opposed to Taft, it is almost certain that the Hot Springs convention will also go on record as favoring the war secretary. Similar conditions exist in South Carolina, where most of the white republicans look upon Taft as the logical successor of President Roosevelt. The primaries of New Jersey and the District of Columbia are also likely to be to Taft's advantage in the presidential race.

William Jennings Bryan will likely find lively opposition in both of the democratic state conventions to be held on Tuesday, that of New Jersey in Trenton, and of Connecticut in New Haven. A majority of the democratic voters of New Jersey are thought to favor an unopposed delegation to Denver. Both Judge Gray and Governor Johnson have many admirers in Jersey, and they will fight any attempt to pledge the state delegation to the Nebraska statesman. In Connecticut, too, there is considerable opposition to Bryan, which may result in an unpledged delegation.

Five republican state conventions will be held on Wednesday, that of Pennsylvania at Harrisburg, Vermont at Burlington, Mississippi at Jackson, West Virginia at Parkersburg and the Davidson faction of Alabama at Birmingham. Pennsylvania's convention will be notable as marking the formal launching of the presidential boom of Senator Philander C. Knox. Taft will probably receive the endorsement of the Vermont convention and that of West Virginia. Mississippi's delegation will likely be unopposed, but favorable to Taft, since the administrative forces are apparently in control of the situation. The Alabama convention will be that of the Davidson, or anti-Roosevelt faction, and will probably support Foraker. The Roosevelt faction in Alabama will hold a convention later, and there will be contesting delegation from Alabama to the Chicago convention.

The Maryland republican state convention will be held in Baltimore on Thursday, and while the delegation may be left unopposed, it will doubtless swing into line for Taft when the roll is called at the national convention. The Maine convention, which will be held in Portland on the same day, is also claimed by the Taft adherents, although this is denied in other quarters. North Carolina's white republicans are Taft boomers, almost to a man, and the state convention in Greensboro is expected to take action which will result in a Taft delegation to Chicago.

Two Taft delegations will be elected to represent Alaska in the republican national convention, in a territorial convention to be held in Ketchikan next Saturday. Another important political event scheduled for next Saturday in Texas, when the principal question to be decided is whether United States Senator J. W. Bailey will be sent to Denver as one of the representatives of the Lone Star state in the national convention. The anti-Bailey campaign has been carried on with great bitterness, and the result, which will go far toward deciding the political fate of the brilliant Texas senator, is eagerly awaited in the national capital.

CATHOLIC CENTENNIAL.

Anniversary of Founding of New York Diocese to Be Celebrated.

New York Catholics will tomorrow begin a celebration, to last through next week, of the centennial anniversary of the founding of the New York diocese. The real anniversary falls on April 8, but the exercises were postponed on account of the Lenten season.

Many famous prelates, including Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Logue of Ireland, and Mgr. Diomede Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States, will participate in the festivities, which will culminate next Saturday with a great parade in which 40,000 Catholics are expected to participate.

The growth of the church in this diocese has been commensurate with the growth of the city and surrounding country. The original diocese, with its one church, four or five priests and 15,000 members has now been divided into nine dioceses, that of the city alone having 230 churches and 1,200,000 members.

The official papal bull which established the diocese of New York, together with the dioceses of Philadelphia, Boston and Bardonia, was issued on April 8, 1808.

SANTA BARBARA IS GAY.

City Blossoms Out in Honor of the Coming of the Fleet.

Santa Barbara, Cal., April 25.—Santa Barbara blossomed out into a veritable sea of gay colors this morning, with flags, bunting and flowers lining every important street and the stars and stripes floating from nearly every building. For this is the day of days in Santa Barbara, marking the arrival of the great armada of battleships that is now steaming northward through the blue waters of the Pacific to the enthusiastic welcome that awaits it here this evening.

For many months the preparations for the entertainment of the sailors of the fleet have been going forward and, now that the great day is at hand, everything is in readiness for a happy culmination of the anxious planning and heroic endeavors of past days.

A crowd of joyous visitors such as has never before gathered on the streets of this little city is on hand and every passing hour adds to the happy throngs that will give a tumultuous greeting to the ships of the mighty fleet when they anchor off Santa Barbara this afternoon.

The local committees have spared no expense in making the stay of the officers and sailors here one of the most pleasant of the entire voyage, and between now and next Thursday when the ships will resume the northward journey, many thousands of dollars will be expended in providing entertainments for the tars.

What Santa Barbara lacks in size, it makes up in enthusiasm, and it is entirely likely that the sea-fighters will look back upon their visit to Santa Barbara as one of the notable experiences of the long cruise.

Big Parade of Catholics.

Philadelphia, April 25.—As a climax to the centennial celebration of the creation of the diocese of Philadelphia, thousands of Knights of Columbus held a parade through the streets of the city today. Many of the distinguished prelates who have been here during the week will proceed to New York, where a similar centennial celebration will be held by the Catholics of the metropolis.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Pendleton Drug Co.

Moving Pictures in Schools.

City of Mexico, April 25.—Moving pictures as an aid to education are now being utilized in the National preparatory school, where a machine of the latest pattern has just been installed. The pictures will illustrate subjects in geography, history, physics, morals and manual training. Mexico is the second country to adopt the cinematograph as an educational factor, Germany having been the first.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Pendleton Drug Co.

Memorial Day in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., April 25.—Memorial Day will be celebrated in Atlanta on Monday by the Ladies Memorial association, when crosses of honor will be conferred upon veterans by the Daughters of the Confederacy. The exercises will also include the decoration of the graves of dead Confederate soldiers and a monster parade, in which veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy and local military companies will participate.

Mr. S. L. Bowen of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Cure. One bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Cure works wonders where other drugs are total failures. Pendleton Drug Co.

The Riverside Argus has been sold by H. H. Proctor to Wallace R. Struble, editor of the Record, who will take editorial charge of his new purchase with the beginning of Volume V, next week.
