AMUSEMENTS

Eagle Change Today.
The Eagle show shop will have a change of program today, one of the best that has been shown here. All new and up to date. Some very fine pictures have been shown there the past week, in beautiful colorings, and telling interesting stories. The change today promises to please.

Dime Pleases.
The change of program at the "Dime" pleased the usual large crowds yesterday. A number of new pictures were shown that were strictly new and up to date. A beautiful illustrated song was also shown. This change will continue until Tuesday, when there will be another excellent change.

Pastime Change.
The Pastime had a clever change of motion pictures yesterday, beautiful, realistic, and many of them very laughable. The illustrated song was also new and attractive. The management announces another good change for tomorrow, which will continue over until Friday.
The following change will go on at the Pastime tomorrow: "The Little Sweeps," "Village Fire Brigade," "Pancakes," "Merry Widow," and the illustrated song, "When the Sheep Are in the Fold."

BOWMAN HOTEL CHANGES HANDS

FORMER PROPRIETOR OF UMATILLA HOUSE IN CHARGE.

Well Known Hotel Man of The Dalles —Changes to Be Made—Office Will Be Moved Down Stairs and Third Floor Will Be Fitted Up, Doubling the Capacity—Gibbs Retires to Grant County Farm.

J. S. Fish, of The Dalles, and former proprietor of the Umatilla House of that city, has leased the Bowman hotel and will take charge of the same on the first of May.

When he takes charge of the hotel the new landlord will move the hotel office into the room on the lower floor now occupied by the restaurant and he will make other extensive changes about the place.

The third floor of the building is to be finished up and furnished for use, thereby making the hotel capable of handling nearly double the present business.

During the years he conducted the Umatilla house Mr. Fish earned a wide reputation as a hotelkeeper and with the fine building he will have here, there is little doubt but that he will make the Bowman into one of the leading hotels of the city.

W. C. Gibbs, who has had the hotel of late, will return to Grant county where he has a ranch. He will leave here about the first of the month. His ranch is located near Austin.

TRUE TO HIS LOST LOVE

Walla Walla Pioneer Wins His Wealth to the Sweetheart of His Youth.

A bright spot in the ordinarily cold and selfish record of the world has been found in a little incident reported from Walla Walla. A correspondent writing from that city to the Portland Oregonian, says:

When the will of the late Hermingie Bernier, who died last week, at the age of 76, was filed in the superior court for probate, a romance of 50 years was ended and the devotion of the dead man to his lost love was shown to be true to death. The terms of the will cut his two brothers and one sister off with a dollar each, leaving the whole estate, worth several thousand dollars, to Mrs. Mary Curran, formerly Miss Mary Donnette.

Fifty years ago, in one of the eastern states, Hermingie Bernier and Frank Curran were rivals for the hand of Mary Donnette. Curran won the heart of the girl and Bernier vowed he would never marry. For years, during the best part of his life, he served in the regular army, saving his comrades say, every cent he could possibly hoard. When he retired he came to Walla Walla, where his former sweetheart and her husband lived. Curran died some time ago, but Bernier never went near his widow. It is said that he was often seen in the neighborhood at night, as if guarding the home which sheltered his former love.

For the past few weeks the old man has been growing weaker and last Friday he died of heart disease, alone and unattended. When his will was read, it was found that he had left everything to the object of his youthful love, with the request that she be given no more trouble in law than was necessary.

Respecting the love of their brother, the relatives cut off by the will have expressed their intentions not to contest the matter, but to let the property follow the old man's wishes and go to his rival's widow.

After a quarter of a century of wedded life, Julius Bragg of Baker City, is suing his wife for divorce on the grounds of desertion. He alleges his better half left him four years ago.

PERSONAL MENTION

Col. and Mrs. H. G. Newport came up from Hermiston last evening.

Ross Newport of Hermiston, was here upon a short visit yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kunkel and son came down from Spokane last evening.

Al Slusher came up last evening from the Slusher sheep ranch at Nollin.

Miss Margaret Callison, teacher in the school at Helix, visited here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baker of Meacham, are in the city today on a trading trip.

Will Church of La Grande, was visiting friends and relatives in the city yesterday.

S. B. Calderhead, Walla Walla agent for the Northern Pacific, is here today on business.

Bert Smith came up last evening from the J. E. Smith company's sheep ranch west of here.

Clarence Adams came in Saturday from his ranch at Ukiah, and visited with relatives here until today.

Miss Vera M. Vannander, one of the teachers in the schools at Milton, has been here upon a short visit.

P. T. Harbour, manager of the brick yards at Weston, came down last night on a short business visit.

Bob Clements, advance agent for Norris and Rowe's shows, is a guest of Hotel St. George while in the city.

Attorney Francis H. Bartlett and W. A. Kidder of Hermiston, are in the city today on a short business trip.

R. R. Lewis, deputy county recorder, made a flying trip to Hermiston yesterday, returning home in the evening.

J. T. Langley, master mechanic of the O. R. & N. at Albina, is a guest of the St. George while in the city for a few days.

J. W. Kimbrell, county surveyor, returned home last evening from Gilliam county, where he had been doing some engineering work.

Glenn Goodman left last night for Portland to take up his new position as traveling salesman for the Honeyman hardware company.

A McCorquodale, division freight agent of the O. R. & N. at Spokane, is in the city today after attending the conference of officials here Sunday.

Dr. S. A. Baxter and L. S. Rand of Minneapolis, Minn., are in the city on a brief visit, and they are very favorably impressed with this section of the west.

Miss Dot Gilliam, who has been spending the past several months on the ranch near Pilot Rock, has accepted a position as sales clerk in the Livengood store.

Dr. Wohlenberg, a prominent Seattle physician, spent Sunday in Pendleton on his way home from a visit to Twin Falls. He was the guest of W. R. Graham, the furniture man.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Metz returned yesterday from La Grande, where they had been for several days. They will be at the Hotel Pendleton for a few weeks before returning to Chicago.

Miss Clyde Whittemore and sister, Mrs. Gertrude Davidson, are expected from California about the first of May, and will spend the summer here. The former has accepted a position with the Fair store.

Otto Berger, the pioneer brick mason of this city, left Saturday evening for Colorado Springs to work during the summer at his trade. A great deal of building is going on at that place and he expects to find constant employment there.

Runaway Narrowly Averted.

A. Kunkel, formerly of this city but now of Spokane, who is in the city on a business trip, had a narrow escape from serious accident at the railroad crossing east of the city this morning. Just as he started to cross the track a freight train came along and whistled as it passed him, scaring the team and causing it to lurch to one side, capsizing the buggy, breaking out the pole and smashing one wheel and otherwise injuring it. Mr. Kunkel was dragged by the team for some distance, but finally succeeded in stopping them and came on to the city without further trouble.

Strain Has Appendicitis.

Assessor C. P. Strain is ill at his home with appendicitis. He was taken suddenly with the disease and for a time his condition was thought to be such that an operation would be imperative. However, he is reported to be improved this morning and as a result he will be able to do without an operation.

Tuesday night George Torney made a sensational escape from the city jail at Train, B. C. He locked the policeman left to guard him in the kitchen and escaped through the office. On the way he stopped a young woman who was on horseback, compelled her to dismount, and rode away.

Walla Walla has a rich and eccentric Italian gardener who pays a five dollar fine every time he comes to town in preference to hitching his horse. He seems to glory in breaking the city ordinance, which prohibits leaving horses unhitched.

Dr. J. W. Evans, fourth assistant physician at the state asylum for the insane, has been stricken with diphtheria. His case is one of the results of the recent epidemic which broke out among the children in the idiotic ward.

The town of Pomeroy is greatly excited over the prospect of an electric line between that place and Lewiston. The North Coast Power company is expected to construct the road.

Irrigation Talk No. 6.

Scientific Irrigation.

To pour water upon the ground in endless quantity is not scientific irrigation.

The truly scientific irrigator of practical experience seeks to use the right amount of water at the right time of the year.

The experience of twenty years in similar deep soil underlaid by similar cement gravel in upper Butter Creek across from the has conclusively demonstrated that January, February, and March are the months to saturate the soil for the largest crops.

As an evidence of the damage to crops from late watering in this soil and climate, it may be stated that some potatoes watered under the Furnish Project as late as July 20th last year, sprouted from such late watering.

We have a scientific irrigator this year--scientific through the hard school of experience--who will guard against a repetition of such over-watering.

Buyers of our lands will have the advise free of our irrigator.
