O. R. & N. FARMING TRAIN A SUCCESS

Success is marking the journey of the O. R. & N. farming demonstration train through the eastern Washington counties, according to the reports from the train. The Portland Oregonian of Tuesday says of the train:

"R. B. Miller, general freight agent for the Harriman lines in Oregon, yesterday telegraphed the local office that the farming demonstration train of the O. R. & N. company through the Patuxent, Touchet and Walla Walla valleys is proving a decided success. Mr. Miller is accompanying the train, and his telegram from Pomeroy, Wash., was as follows:

"Demonstration here a great success. Six hundred farmers turned out. The schools were dismissed and 400 pupils marched in a body to the train. Much enthusiasm and interest are manifested."

"The train started from Starbuck at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, reaching Pomeroy at 3 o'clock. At this point the train remained until 4:45 o'clock while the demonstration was conducted by speakers from the Washington state college. Today the following points will be visited: Turner, Dayton, Huntville, Wainwright, Prescott and Walla Walla. The itinerary will be concluded tomorrow by visiting other points in the vicinity of Walla Walla."

Coming to Umatilla. On next Wednesday, May 13, the O. R. & N. Co. will run the demonstration train through western Umatilla county, reaching western Umatilla at 4 p. m. for a lecture.

The farmers of this vicinity are especially urged to be present at this lecture which will be given in the demonstration car.

All the lectures will be given on the train in cars provided for that purpose by the following members of the Oregon Agricultural college faculty:

Dr. James Withycombe, director experiment station.

Professor C. I. Lewis, horticulturist.

Professor C. E. Bradley, chemist.

Professor H. D. Scudder, agronomist.

The principal subjects to be discussed are: Summer fallow, horticulture, animal husbandry, chemistry of the soil, rotation of crops, general cultural methods.

The East Oregonian takes pleasure in reprinting the complete itinerary and urges farmers from all parts of the county to attend the lectures at the points named.

FIGHT TO MAKE STATE "DRY"

ELECTION IN EIGHTEEN COUNTIES IN JUNE

Anti-Saloon Workers Say This Is Only Preliminary Skirmish—Plan to Vote Oregon Dry in 1910—Battle Royal Will Be Waged in That Year—Only Five Counties Without Prohibition Territory Now.

Local option elections for county prohibition will be held in 18 of the 33 counties in Oregon next month. Eight of the other 15 counties are "dry," and in four of these the question of saloons or no saloons is to be resubmitted at the June election on petition of the liquor men. There are only five counties in the state in which there is no "dry" territory, and the local optionists have called for a county election in each one of these counties next month. This extensive campaign to invade further the territory now held by the saloon interests is only a preliminary step to an election on state prohibition, which is planned by the cold water people for 1910. The Anti-Saloon Leaguers and the prohibitionists have made up their minds to cooperate in a campaign that is expected to add Oregon to the list of prohibition states two years hence.

In the meantime both organizations are doing effective work in spreading an influence positively opposed to the saloon. State prohibition two years hence, declare the temperance workers, will more surely be brought about by adding to the "dry" territory in the coming election. With this object in view elections on the subject of county prohibition will be held in the following 18 counties this year: Clackamas, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Douglas, Grant, Harney, Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Marion, Morrow, Polk, Umatilla, Union, Wasco and Washington.

Included in this list are the five only counties in the state in which there is no "dry" territory, as follows: Grant, Harney, Klamath, Lake and Polk. On the petition of the liquor men the question of county prohibition will be resubmitted in June in the following counties: Linn, Lane, Sherman and Wasco.

The local optionists have also filed petitions for precinct and subdivision precinct elections in nine counties, including Multnomah, in which 13 of these petitions have been filed. A majority of these petitions have been attacked on legal grounds and the question of deciding in which precincts the election will be held will be determined some time this week. This list of counties also includes Clackamas, Wasco, Umatilla, Grant, Lake, Josephine, Douglas and Marion.

With the exception of Marion county, all of these counties will also vote on county prohibition, but the anti-saloon people have decided to take up the crusade from two positions arguing that should the county as a whole go "wet" it is possible that some of the precincts may oust the saloon and add more territory to that already gained.

"For four months the Anti-Saloon League workers have been laboring assiduously and successfully to organize the state or such counties in the state as were desired for voting on the local option question at the general election June 1," said James R. Knodell, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, yesterday. "Eighteen counties have filed petitions with their respective county courts for an election. In addition, about 23 precincts and combinations of precincts have done the same. Forty-one separate opportunities will be given the people of the state to say whether or not they want the saloon. Not one of these would have been filed, if after investigation, it had not appeared to us that we would be successful. In the interior counties—Klamath, Lake, Crook, Grant and Harney—we find that the cattle-men and ranchers are arrayed against the saloon and probably will vote it out of their territory. The same is true in mining districts among the employers of labor and the laborers themselves. We find both joining the ranks of the anti-saloon people.

"During the last few months we have been solicited by every county in the state, with the exception of one, to carry our fight into every county and drive out the saloon. But this is not a fight for this year only, or to carry the easy spots in the state. Our unchangeable purpose is never to cease in our efforts, nor to turn aside in our endeavors, until every licensed liquor dispensary in Oregon is closed. Wherever we succeed in June we will inaugurate in July a campaign of law enforcement. We do not expect the saloons to lie down when the ballot only is against them. Also, wherever we are defeated in June we will immediately arrange for another campaign.

"What Next" meetings will be held all over the state, whether we win or lose on June 1 and the plans for the future work will be arranged. The benefits we will gain in this present struggle is the alignment of our forces against the saloon and the training we will get for a greater battle in 1910."—Portland Oregonian.

The soothing spray of Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, used in an atomizer, is an unspokeable relief to sufferers from catarrh. Some of them describe it as a Godsend, and no wonder. The thick, foul discharge is dislodged and the patient breathes freely, perhaps for the first time in weeks. Liquid Cream Balm contains all the healing, purifying elements of the solid form, and it never fails to satisfy. Sold by all druggists for 75 cents, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Royalty Gathers in Vienna. Vienna, May 6.—Demonstrations on a scale never before witnessed in Vienna on a similar occasion will probably mark the arrival here this week of the German emperor and empress and other sovereigns who come to take part in the celebration of Emperor Francis Joseph's jubilee. No less than a dozen German rulers, including the kings of Saxony and Wattenburg, the prince regent of Bavaria and the grand dukes of Oldenburg and Mecklenburg, will wait upon the emperor and will be the guests at the state banquet in the imperial palace.
