

SAN FRANCISCO HAS GONE FLEET MAD---SAILORS TAKE THE CITY

San Francisco, May 7.—A grand street parade in which nearly all the 15,000 sailors of the fleet participated opened the festivities in fleet-mad San Francisco today. Tonight there will be athletic events in the naval pavilion for the sailors band concerts and other amusements. The governor's banquet to Secretary of the Navy Metcalf will be held at the Fairmont this evening.

Not since that memorable day when the first California volunteers returned from the Philippines has San Francisco entertained such a vast crowd as that which is today swarming through the streets, lining the water fronts, piling pell-mell into the excursion boats and other craft and clamoring for admission to the big battleships of Uncle Sam which lie at anchor in the bay.

The fleet is a magnet which has attracted countless thousands, and the hotels are having great difficulty in caring for the throng. Among the arrivals are scores of men of national reputation, but they attract little attention from the enthusiastic crowds.

Today all civilians must take a back seat for the men who wear the uniform of the United States navy.

Jack Tars in Parade.
Thousands of Jack Tars came ashore today and were given a tumultuous greeting when they paraded through the streets.

Following the great street pageant every Jack not a confirmed woman-hater soon found a Jill, and many more than one. A brawny sailor, with a beaming, admiring girl on either arm, and other fair Californians, jealous and disconsolate, trailing in the rear, was a common sight.

Other tars sought enjoyment in the cup that cheers and also inebriates. Civilians with coin-filled pockets swarmed about the convivial ones and begged them to have one on me. It was not strange, in the face of this temptation, that many fell by the wayside early in the day. These were cared for by the ship's police and hurried out of sight.

Evans to Be Relieved.
The grand review will take place tomorrow and later Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans will be relieved of command. He will be succeeded in command of the fleet temporarily by Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas now commanding the second squadron, but before the fleet starts from San Francisco for the Orient Admiral Thomas will also be relieved and the fleet will complete its cruise around the world under command of Rear Admiral Charles S. Sperry, now commanding the fourth division.

Following the review, a banquet will be held at which Secretary of the Navy Metcalf will be the guest of honor, and in which the admirals and officers of the fleet in full uniform, the governor and his staff and other prominent men, will take part.

Grand Ball for Enlisted Men.
Nor will the enlisted men of the fleet be neglected for a moment. On next Tuesday night they will be given a grand ball at the Auditorium, when the belles of the society of San Francisco and California will be their associates. Nothing resembling social discrimination will be permitted and the sailors will dance with whom they please.

The round of events for the blue-jackets begins this evening with wrestling contests in the naval pavilion. Tomorrow evening will be devoted to the same sport in the same place. Monday, in the afternoon, athletic sports will begin at the stadium in Golden Gate Park. At night there will be the first boxing tournament in the Auditorium rink.

Regatta on Bay.
Tuesday afternoon will be left open for the regatta on the bay, when the crews of the different ships will compete for prizes and trophies. The night will be the occasion of the official reception and ball of the enlisted men.

Wednesday afternoon will be children's day at the stadium, when the sailors will again compete in athletic events. The night will be devoted to another boxing tournament in Dreamland rink.

The Auditorium rink is assigned for the afternoon and night of Wednesday for the use of friends of the sailors. Athletic contests at the stadium will be held on the afternoon of next Thursday and Friday, May 15, and a tug of war will take place at night on May 15 in the Auditorium.

The final athletic events will be held on the afternoon of Saturday, May 16, at the stadium. Then the contests will be for champions who were tried out at the former field days.

Upon the completion of the grand review by Secretary Metcalf, in San Francisco Bay, tomorrow, the Pacific fleet will leave port on Saturday for the southward to carry out a program of drills and exercises.

The battleship fleet will leave for Puget Sound on May 18 and upon arrival there May 21 four ships will visit Port Angeles. Eight ships will visit Port Townsend, one ship proceeding at once to the navy yard at Bremerton to be docked.

On Saturday, May 23, all the ships of the fleet with the exception of the one in dock, will rendezvous in the vicinity of Port Townsend, and will proceed to an anchorage in the vicinity of Seattle.

On Tuesday, May 26, twelve ships will leave the anchorage near Seattle and will steam to Tacoma in order that the people in that vicinity may have a view of the fleet. Thence, without anchorage, leaving four ships at anchor near Tacoma for a visit of three days, when the vessels will go to Bremerton for docking.

It is expected that eight ships will arrive at San Francisco on Friday, May 29, where they will be docked in succession.

The ships docking at Bremerton will sail for San Francisco as soon as they are ready, the last one not to arrive until July 3. Preparations will be made for the fleet to sail from San Francisco for Honolulu on Tuesday, July 7. This date, however, is only tentative and may possibly be advanced if the docking is completed sooner than expected.

WATERWAYS CONFERENCE.
New York Still Seeking to Improve Its Transportation Facilities.

Albany, N. Y., May 7.—A conference which has for its object the improvement of the waterways of the empire state, and which has attracted many prominent men from other sections of the country, was opened in Albany this morning. Mayors of many cities and towns and heads of numerous large industrial concerns are present. The conference is solely for educational purposes and no organization will be effected nor resolutions introduced.

Among the speakers on the program are Congressman Joseph E. Ransdell of Louisiana, member of the river and harbors committee of the house and president of the national rivers and harbors conference; Congressman James H. Spencer Eddy Coming.
Berlin, May 7.—Arrangements have been made by Spencer F. Eddy, secretary of the American embassy here, to sail tomorrow for New York. Later he will proceed to Argentina, to assume the duties of American minister to that republic. Mr. Eddy's wife and child will accompany him home. John W. Garrett, second secretary of the embassy, will act as charge d'affaires here during the absence of Mr. Tower and Mr. Eddy. Secretary Eddy has been highly popular in Berlin diplomatic circles and his promotion is considered an act of wisdom on the part of the state department at Washington.

To Unveil Monument.
Raleigh, N. C., May 7.—Clasping hands in fraternal friendship on the "dark and bloody ground" where the soldiers of the north and the south once battled to the death, Governor Glenn of North Carolina, and Governor Cobb of Maine, will meet tomorrow at Salisbury, at the unveiling of a monument to the soldiers from Maine buried there. Governor Cobb will be accompanied on the trip by his entire staff and a party of Maine veterans. Several distinguished confederate soldiers will probably take part in the reception.

Harvard Men Meet.
Philadelphia, May 7.—Harvard men from all over the country are beginning to gather in Philadelphia today for the 12th annual reunion of the Associated Harvard clubs, to be held here tomorrow and Saturday. President Elliot and other prominent men will speak, and there will be smokers, dinners and cruises on the Delaware in honor of the "grads" of the old Massachusetts university.

The Best Security on Earth Is the Earth Itself.

With your savings invested in land you have absolute control over it. You are independent of everyone. The profits to be had in orchards are far greater than the same amount of money can earn invested in any other line of business. And these profits are certain and sure every year, increasing as the orchard grows older.

Railroads

In railroad facilities Hanford will excel any fruit district in America. It will have connection with four trans-continental railroads—The Great Northern and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul on the north; the Northern Pacific and North Coast on the south. One electric railroad surveyed on the west bank and one on the east bank of the Columbia while daily boats now ply the river between Hanford and Pasco.

Water Supply

The water for irrigation at Hanford will be steady, abundant and cheap. We have the whole Columbia river, one of the largest in the United States, for our supply. Water will be delivered to the fruit growers at a cost not exceeding $1.50 per acre each year, in quantities guaranteed to be sufficient to successfully irrigate their land.

Sweeps the Early Market

Owing to its favorable location and its mild climate, the fruit at Hanford ripens from three to five weeks earlier than the fruit in any other district in the northwest. This is a great feature. It means that the Hanford fruit reaches the market first in the early spring, when people are eager to gratify their desire for fruit and willing to pay high prices to do so. This desire to taste the first luscious fruit is worth thousands of dollars to the growers at Hanford, for they are the first to receive its benefits.
