AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

New River Boat Ready.

C. A. Lundy of Kennewick was in the Express office one day last week and in speaking of the fast passenger boat that is now being built at Seattle for the up-river trade, says the Pasco Express. Mr. Lundy gave out that the boat would be a 130 horse power gasoline, 12 feet wide and 80 feet long, and that 75 passengers and baggage could be comfortably accommodated, besides the mail and the express which it contemplates carrying. The boat, which will be known as "The Kennewick," is guaranteed to make 15 miles an hour up stream, making it the fastest, by far, of any boat on the run, and where two days are now consumed by the freighters this little craft will make it in a day.

The Kennewick will travel from Seattle to Kennewick by its own power, making the ocean trip alone from Seattle to Astoria, and from there to Cello falls, where it will be taken over the portage and from Cello make the home run to Kennewick mission by the first of June.

Natches a "Spotless City."

Yesterday was clean-up day at Natches City, says the Yakima Republic. All day long thirty men and eleven men with teams worked on Natches avenue. The street was freed from rocks and graded thoroughly. The residence district was raked and trash burned. Men, women and school children contributed their efforts from early morning until late last evening. Today the city appearance is greatly improved and the little village which comprises some of the most energetic and public spirited men and women of the Yakima valley, resembles the fabled "spotless town."

Will Confirm Class of 200.

Bishop O'Dea, who is expected in North Yakima Saturday afternoon, will on Sunday, either in the afternoon or evening confirm a class which will have in excess of 200 members, says the Yakima Republic. Those who took the first communion this year, last and the year before.

fore and those people who have removed to North Yakima after communion but before confirmation, will compose the class.

The hour of the service has not been determined and probably will not be until after the arrival of Bishop O'Dea, who is expected to reach this city Saturday afternoon. Clergymen of the church and members in Seattle a week ago commemorated Bishop O'Dea's jubilee.

Sunday at high noon mass will commence the forty hours' devotion here which will conclude Tuesday evening. It is altogether probable that other clergymen of the denomination will be in North Yakima at the time.

Idaho Sunday School.

The report of the secretary of the Southern Idaho Sunday School association shows 216 Sunday schools in southern Idaho, with 1,922 officers and teachers, 13,968 scholars and an average attendance of 10,886, says the Boise Capital News.

Canyon county leads with fifty-one schools and 478 teachers and officers and 2,609 scholars with an average attendance of 2,553.

Ada county comes next with thirty-nine schools, 480 teachers and officers, 4,057 scholars, with an average attendance of 3,773, beating Canyon county in everything but the number of schools.

Custer county has but two Sunday schools with twenty-two teachers and officers and a membership of 100 and an average attendance of 80.

Bear Lake county has the same number of schools with fifteen teachers and officers, and an average attendance of 68.

Over twenty conversions have been made at the M. E. church since the revival meetings commenced. Rev. Carradine is a very forceful speaker, and much interest continues to be shown in the meetings.

A social dance was held at the opera house last evening and was enjoyed by a large number of people. There was a dance at Adams also, which was attended by a number of the young people from here.

A number of the different ministers in the county have attended the revival meetings of late.
