SEVEN ARRAIGNED

BUSY SESSION OF COURT
HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Five Saloonmen to Plead to Charge of Selling Liquor to Minors at 4 O'clock—Freeman Who Robbed Huron Residence, Must Answer to Charge—William Quinn Arraigned on Charge of Converting His Home into a Bawdy House.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon five Umatilla county saloonmen, Gus Arp of Adams and Cloyd Oliver, M. H. Gillette, Charles Morrison and F. G. McNabb of Echo, will be arraigned by District Attorney G. W. Phelps on charges of selling liquor to minors. The accused men were expected to arrive from Echo this evening on the Portland local at 4 o'clock and the hour of their arraignment was set at that time.

The cases had been investigated by District Attorney Phelps before his departure for Morrow county to attend circuit court last week and upon his return from Heppner he immediately ordered the accused to appear in court and the result of the case is being looked forward to with interest.

At the same hour William Freeman accused of stealing from a residence, will be arraigned. Freeman was brought down from Huron a few days ago and is charged with having stolen goods from a dwelling house.

William Quinn, who is charged with having converted his home in Hermiston into a bawdy house, will also be arraigned with the others and it is thought that he will plead guilty to the charge.
