

Now just see Japan,
Though such a small man,
He's going to swipe
All the trade if he can.

There's no denying the fact that Japan is a big factor in commerce. We are also making big inroads upon the clothing patronage of the public. Our trade is constantly increasing owing to the fact that we never take any unfair advantages. For good treatment and high quality goods, at reasonable prices, come to us.

Railroad Trains and Fares.
The following letter from general agent H. S. Rowe of the C. M. & St. P. railroad to Mrs. Sarah A. Evans of the Oregon federation gives specific information as to the railroad fares and trains to take. Mr. Rowe says:

Portland, Ore., May 15th, 1908.
Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, care evening Journal, city.

My dear Mrs. Evans:—With reference to the contemplated trip of yourself and party to attend the meeting of General Federation of Women's Clubs, Boston, Mass., June 22nd, to July 1st.

Under dates of June 5th, and 6th, and again on June 19th and 20th, there will be on sale at Portland, Special Summer Excursion Round-Trip tickets to Chicago at rate of $72.50. The going limit of these special tickets is 15 days, which necessitates that those who wish to attend the opening meeting, must leave Portland, via the route which you have selected, the O. R. & N., O. S. L., U. P., and C. M. & St. P., not later than the 8:30 a. m. train June 13th, which is due to arrive at Chicago 12:30, noon, June 16th. The return limit is 90 days from date of purchase. Tickets may not be purchased at later dates of sale shown above, but going journey need not commence on date of sale, it only being necessary that you reach destination within the ten days.

At other dates the fare to Chicago will be $110.00, round-trip, or $57.90 1st class and $48.00 2nd class for one-way tickets.

As there will no doubt be large demand for sleeping car space it will assist us materially in placing you comfortably to learn at an early date on what train you will leave Portland and the space that will be required to take care of your party.

I attach copy of itinerary showing time of train through to Chicago. Any information or assistance will be gladly furnished.

Yours truly,
H. S. Rowe, Gen'l Agent.

Here to Stay.

The truth of the whole matter is, that the modern saloon is here to stay, says the Wilmington News. The modern saloon is the club room of the masses, who do not care to bear the expense of an expensive sideboard in their residences. If you believe it is a hell on earth, ask the police or go into one and see for yourself. A common regard for the truth ought to be sufficient reason for any one to ascertain the facts about the conditions that exist.—Central Committee.

MI-O-NA MEANS STOMACH COMFORT.

It's of Special Value to Many Here in Pendleton.

A notable discovery, and one that appeals especially to many people in Pendleton, is the combination of stomach help in the Mi-o-na treatment. This preparation works wonders in cases of indigestion or weak stomach.

It acts directly upon the walls of the stomach and bowels, strengthening and stimulating them so that they readily take care of the food that is eaten without distress or suffering.

So positive are the good effects following the use of Mi-o-na that the remedy is sold by Tallman & Co. under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails to cure. A 50-cent box of Mi-o-na will do the good the stomach needs, which is simply to make it do its own work.

DOVE OF PEACE DEVOTEES MEET

PROMOTERS INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION AT MOHONK.

Distinguished Men in All Walks of Life Gather to Discuss Ways and Means to Convert Weapons into Plow Shares and Pruning Hooks—Many Nations Represented—Three-Day Program Arranged.

Mohonk, N. Y., May 20.—With distinguished men in all walks of life in attendance, the annual Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration was opened today and will continue its deliberations through tomorrow and Friday. Senators, congressmen, diplomats, clergymen, educators, jurists, government officials, bankers, business men, governors, army and navy officers and editors are included among the throngs which are gathered here by Albert Keith Smiley, the founder of the conference. Smiley's magnificent estate on the shores of Lake Mohonk has been the scene of many famous gatherings to discuss arbitration and other humanitarian movements, but none more notable than the assemblage here today.

The program for the three days will provide a thorough discussion by men of many nations, of the advancement made in the cause of arbitration. The work of the second conference at The Hague and of the General American peace conference will furnish a text for many addresses, the speakers including James E. Scott of the state department, a member of The Hague conference; Minister Correa of Nicaragua; Minister Calvo of Costa Rica; Dr. Benjamin F. Trueblood of Boston; John Barrett, director of the bureau of American Republics, and many others.

Educational phases of the arbitration question will be considered by presidents of the leading colleges and universities from New England to California, while distinguished laymen, senators and congressmen will also speak. Half a hundred commercial organizations in various parts of the country have sent delegates. Newspaper men on the program include Rollo Ogden of the New York Evening Post; A. C. Lambdin of the Philadelphia Public Ledger; Walter N. Page of the World's Work; O. S. Marsden of the Success Magazine; and Hamilton Holt of the Independent.

Perhaps the greatest public service the conference can perform this year will be to set forth squarely just what the second Hague conference did. Considerable uncertainty on this point still exists in the public mind, and much of it is doubtless unjust to the men who went to The Hague. Two of these men are to participate in the Lake Mohonk meeting, where they will have an opportunity to place themselves on record, and where too they may meet in discussion some of the ardent peace advocates who profess dissatisfaction, or at least disappointment, with the results of The Hague.

Results Accomplished

Despite the racial and temperamental differences of the delegations from the forty-five countries, it is pointed out that the second Hague conference gave to the world a decree that henceforth an offer of arbitration must always precede the use of force for collection of contract debts; it provided for an international prize court to which appeals may be taken from biased decisions of national prize courts; it resolved that a third conference, in about eight years, should take up and continue its work under international direction; it gave to either party to a controversy the right to publicly ask the services of the Hague Tribunal, thereby forcing its adversary to arbitrate or to publicly admit its fear or its unwillingness to do so, thus doing away with the former incongruous requirements that two nations on the verge of war must first agree to ask for the arbitration; it extended the work of the Red Cross to naval warfare and it greatly improved the Hague convention of 1899 by making mediation, good offices and commissions of inquiry more easily offered or invoked.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
