AMUSEMENTS

Pastime Change.

There is an excellent change of moving pictures on at the Pastime at this time, all new pictures, among them being "Farmers Making Bread," "Drunkards Will Drink," "Two Sisters," "Nervous Kitchen Maid" and the illustrated song, "Won't You Come Back to Old Manhattan, Dearie?" This change will continue until Friday, when there will be another good change.

"Dime Pleases."

The Dime has a fine change of motion pictures on at this time, which is attracting the usual large crowds; new and in beautiful colorings. The present program will continue over until Friday, when there will be another good change, also illustrated songs.

Eagle Show Shop.

The Eagle Show shop has a fine lot of motion pictures at this time. Among the late pictures were "The Ups and Downs of a Hat," "Old Maid's Inheritance," and the illustrated song, "Somebody's Waiting for You." There is another change for tomorrow.

MEMORIAL SERMON AT M. E. CHURCH SUNDAY

Special Services for G. A. R. Will Be Conducted by Rev. W. T. Easter.

A memorial for the Grand Army of the Republic will be observed next Sunday. The local G. A. R. will assemble at the First M. E. church at 11 a. m., where patriotic hymns and songs and a patriotic sermon will be preached in honor of the occasion.

The Ladies' Aid society have been appointed a committee to decorate the church, and the G. A. R. of Pendleton, Kit Carson Post No. 37, will furnish the flags and have a special portion of the church for the occasion. It is being urged upon all the citizens of the community the duty of showing their interest in this annual custom of holding memorial services in memory of the soldiers who fell during the war and in appreciation of the few who yet remain of those who were in active service.

A beautiful custom in the west has been the participating of any remaining confederate soldiers who are found out here. In Helena, Mont., they

The Best Alarm Clock.

If you have use for an alarm clock to wake you up these spring mornings, then you should get a good one. A poor alarm clock is much worse than no clock at all. You cannot depend upon a cheap clock picked up probably in a place where the knowledge of clocks is unknown. When you buy a clock from us you know that if anything goes wrong we are ready to make good with the proper repairs.

All alarm clocks guaranteed and cost from $1.00 to $2.50.

OLD MAN RAIN.

Old Man Rain
At the window pane
Knocks and fumbles and raps again;
His landlaid fingers slip and strain;
Old Man Rain at the window pane
Knocks all night, but knocks in vain—
Old Man Rain.

Old Man Rain
With battered train
Reels and shambles along the lane;
His old gray whiskers drip and drain;
Old Man Rain, with ragged train.
Reels and staggers like one insane—
Old Man Rain.

Old Man Rain
Is back again,
With Old M's Wind at the window pane,
Dancing there with her tattered train;
Her old shawl flaps as she twirls again
In the wildman reel and is torn in twain—
Old M's Wind and Old Man Rain.
—Madison Cawell, in the Reader.

Hay for Philippines.

W. W. Robinson, who has an office here, was the low bidder on the government call for oats and hay for use in the Philippines, says a Yakima paper. On oats Mr. Robinson secured the contract to supply 5000 tons with his bid of $20.80 per ton. These oats are to be double-sacked. He was also low bidder on 5500 tons of eastern Washington timothy. His bid was $22.50 per ton compressed to 72 feet and $23.50 compressed to 60 feet. The aggregate value of both contracts is $278,250. The competition at San Francisco, where the bids have been placed for several years, was not very keen. The removal of the above quantity of timothy from eastern Washington territory cannot but have an excellent effect on the conditions generally, more particularly as it brings back to the sound the foreign export business which has been lost to it since the very high price in hay of a few years ago.

DEFANCE.

I go my way and do not care,
Though some, perforce, I must offend;
Who has no enemies can never
Know what it is to have a friend.
—Frank P. Short.

For the 12 months ended March 31, 1907, London's consumption of water amounted to $2,126,249,347 gallons, representing a daily average supply of 33 gallons a head.

Denby Stays In.

Baton Rouge, La., May 20.—United States Senator Denby was elected to succeed himself by the legislature yesterday.

POLITICAL SOUVENIRS.

This office has some souvenirs on its desk of political fidelity and gratitude for favors received and work done for the republican party in the past, says the Salem Journal.

There is an itemized bill of $106.80 for campaign of 1896. George W. Davis was county chairman, George G. Bingham, city chairman, and E. P. McCormack, state chairman. There is an unpaid bill against the Bryan club of $5.50. The Young Men's Republican club of 1903 has an unpaid balance of $9. The republican city central committee of 1904, has an unpaid balance of $68. The people's party central committee has a little love token of unrequited affection of $12.50. These sweet billet-doux remind the publisher of a newspaper that while others hold the office he holds the sack too often. But in our present happy frame of mind, wearing the Taft smile that does not come off, we can forgive them all and say come on, boys, this is a free country, and if you want to do politics and haven't any money, this paper will not kick you out.

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE.

Senator La Follette is a leader. He led the people of Wisconsin in a fight, which has lasted eight years, to recover self-government in that state, and, though he got "results," though he, like Roosevelt, put through laws in the common interest, and aroused the people to a vision of the system, the one great achievement of La Follette's leadership is this:

The people of Wisconsin rule the state of Wisconsin. La Follette has made them so clear and so self-reliant that they won't let even La Follette boss them. Now they have a representative democracy in Wisconsin. And that is why we have in La Follette a United States senator who tries to represent not interests; not Wisconsin; not even the people of Wisconsin; but all the people of all the United States.—Lincoln Steffens.

Frank Thompson, 18 years of age, has been arrested after bilking Portland merchants out of about 45 sacks of sugar. He would make the order by telephone, then intercept the draymen, have the sweet stuff unloaded, call another drayman and have his plunder delivered to a confectionery store or manufacturing establishment where he found a ready sale at about half the regular price.

Druggists of Idaho will fight local option and instead will work for total prohibition in that state. This is the most advanced ground taken by the druggists of any state.
