

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

"LET US ALONE."

(By Glenn Guernsey.)

New York, May 23.—"Let Us Alone," that magic phrase which came out of the west, like Young Lochinvar, has taken New York by storm. New York is fond of slogans and catch phrases, and this one fits admirably. Down in Wall street it was received with exceeding great joy and, emblazoned in golden letters, shines from the walls of many a great financial institution. The proprietors of saloons, whose side-doors lead to the alleviation of a Sunday thirst, have taken up the cry. The gamblers, whose receipts suffer serious depletion from the rapacity of police with itching palms, share in the sentiment. Bookmakers with their occupation threatened by the reformers, reiterate the demand. Even the socialists, driven from street corners and bewail in the "demand of their 'inalienable right of free speech,' shout at the top of their voices, "Let Us Alone."

"One newspaper," the $100,000 editor of the Evening Journal inelegantly remarks, "carries this slogan at the head of its editorial page in New York," and the aforesaid editor assures us that "it will play a part in the coming national campaign undoubtedly." This is true, undoubtedly, even if it does fall to prove that a knowledge of the English language in New York is necessary to drawing a large salary as the editor of the Harbinger newspaper.

THE MASK TORN OFF.

Salaried "Officials" of the Anti-Saloon League Let the Cat Out of the Bag.

To the Editor: The Rev. J. R. Knodell of Portland, one of the many salaried "superintendents" of the Anti-Saloon league, stated, the other day that the local option elections this year were only skirmishes. He said that the real idea was to obtain prohibition for the entire state of Oregon in 1910, two years from now. That lets the cat out of the bag.

The people were assured four years ago that the local option law was merely intended to protect residence districts against the encroachment of the saloon.

"We are not prohibitionists, cried the supporters of the bill. "We are only local optionists." To those who claimed that the local option law was merely prohibition in disguise, its supporters presented an unbroken front. When taxed with the fact that their law was unfair they replied by asking the public to read it. As the law was 28 pages in length the public would not bother itself by making a more careful investigation.

When they were confronted with the fact that states and communities which adopt prohibition grew poor and lean, they said it was not so. When they were shown that the United States census proved that only three states in the union had ever decreased in population, and that two of them were prohibition states, they said "Do not worry. This is only a local option law. We are not in favor of prohibition."

When this same crowd of salaried agitators was asked if taxes were not generally higher in prohibition communities than in communities which handled the liquor business under the license system, they were quick to answer, "It is not so, but even if it were, it does not matter, for this is local option, not prohibition."

And now the cat is out of the bag. They are not local optionists. They are prohibitionists after all. The opponents of the local option law were right. It was really prohibition in disguise. And the scheme of the smart attorneys, lecturers and orators who make a fat living out of this prohibition agitation, is quite plain. The scheme is to start in quietly; to hold elections in precincts in which there are no saloons, never were any saloons and probable never would be any saloons. Such precincts being frightened with the absurd question, "Do you want a saloon next your home?" were easily put in the dry column. Then by adding each year in the dry territory acquired in this way, they have finally reached that state of arrogance in which they have thrown aside the mask and boldly declared for state prohibition two years from now. Voters have been filled with this kind of fraudulent election long enough.

Prohibition accomplishes nothing for real temperance or for morality. Bankruptcy does follow prohibition and the United States census reports prove this beyond a doubt. Here and there a prohibition orator may find a prohibition town or small community which has been fairly prosperous even in spite of prohibition. There are exceptions to all rules, but government figures, which do not lie, prove that prohibition is not only a mark of a stagnant community, but is a bight to a prosperous one.

Prohibition in Oregon would cause 2500 buildings to become vacant and would throw out of employment 9,000 men and deprive 4000 families of their livelihood. Where is the prosperity in this?

Remember a vote now for local option now is a vote for prohibition in 1910.

HONEYMOON TRIP

TO THE ARCTIC

Couple to Spend Summer Trading Among Indians and Esquimos.

Seattle, May 23.—A unique honeymoon trip, which includes cruising among the icebergs of the arctic in a $15-ton boat, dealing with Esquimos and Indians and cut off from civilization for months amid countless dangers, was begun last night when the gasoline schooner Trader left Seattle for the Far North. The Trader is only 50 feet long and is one of the smallest vessels that ever attempted to cruise among the icebergs of the arctic seas, but Mrs. Alexander Allen, who is accompanying her husband, who is in command of the little craft, is unafraid.

"There probably are some people who think me strange to take such a trip," said Mrs. Allen, "but my husband is engaged in this business and must attend to it. I married him to be with him, and I am sure where he is I will be safe and happy. I have no fear of hardships, and I certainly am glad to accompany him. We shall return next fall, and probably will spend the winter with my parents in Wisconsin."

Mrs. Allen, who was Miss Bertha Landers, never saw the sea until she came to Seattle last week to wed Captain Allen. Captain Allen is one of the pioneer traders of the north, and he is at the head of the interests in the north of the United States Trading company.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

RELY UPON

Newbro's Herpicide

Pilar Morin, the strikingly beautiful Parisian actress, of whom America's leading theatrical manager says: "I consider her the greatest actress in her line in all the world," writes as follows:

"NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE is the most delightful hair dressing that has ever come to my notice. It prevents the hair from falling out, does away with dandruff and gives the hair a beautiful luster.

Cordially yours,
(Signed) PILAR MORIN."

The fact that leading Parisian women prefer Newbro's Herpicide is certainly conclusive evidence of its superiority.

Beautiful, glossy hair, full of snap and life, is just as essential to a beautiful face as is the frame around a beautiful picture.

Nature does not permit every woman to have a great or unusual abundance of hair, but every woman who has reasonably good health may have beautiful hair if she will give it some care and attention.

First of all she must constantly strive to keep it free from the invisible, vegetable growth (the dandruff germ) that causes dull, brittle and lusterless hair with, later, dandruff, itching and falling hair.

PHILBROOK IS CAPTAIN.

Big Athlete Will Head Whitman Team Next Season.

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., May 21.—George Philbrook has been re-elected captain of the track team at Whitman college. Philbrook is the holder of the coast record in the discus, the holder of several college records, and easily the leading point-winner in track in the northwest this season.

The track team has broken training and Coach Murphy has completed his season's work with the squad. He has won the record of the whole institution, and on giving up the team was presented by the students with a handsome watch fob. The track season has been unusually successful under him, Whitman having defeated the Washington state college and the universities of Idaho and Washington, and being beaten only by the University of Oregon.

Hood River County

This bill is submitted under the initiative for the following, among other, reasons:

A county is a public corporation and it is apparent that said section 2 of article XI, as amended, reserves to the people the right to create a county by initiative vote.

There is no general law for the creation of counties now, and no one knows when, if ever, there will be one. The facts as to area, population and assessed valuation, show that we are able to maintain a county government. Out of a population of about 7500 the desire of a county for the Hood River country is earnest and unanimous with the exception of a small fraction of one per cent. We are assured by leading citizens of The Dalles, Dufur and other portions of Wasco county that they have no objections to the creation of Hood River county as proposed in this bill. More than 400 residents of The Dalles and Dufur have signed the petitions asking that this bill be submitted to a vote at the June election, though 45 names from Dufur were received too late to be filed with the secretary of state.

The people of Hood River country therefore ask favorable consideration of the voters of the state upon this bill for these, among other, reasons.

Because the new county will be a great benefit to the people residing therein and will facilitate the transaction of their county business.

Because as the law stands a county cannot be created by the legislature; and finally,

Because the people of The Dalles and the balance of Wasco county are willing that Hood River county may be created as provided in this bill.

The assessed valuation in the proposed Hood River county in 1903 was $908,568.00; in 1906 was $1,618,670, showing a gain in valuation from 1903 to 1906 of $710,102.00, or about 78 per cent. The valuation in 1907 was $2,762,250.00; a gain over 1906 of $1,143,580.00, or about 70 per cent, showing the proportionate increase in one year from 1906 to 1907 to be almost as great as that in three years from 1903 to 1906.

The proposed Hood River county has a population of about 7500; an area of about 500 square miles; and 20 school houses, seven of which are graded schools, having from two to eight rooms each and with a $30,000.00 high school under construction.

There will be left in Wasco county, after Hood River county is created, an area of 1646 square miles, a population of 11,500, and a valuation of $5,457,720.00, thus leaving it among the largest and strongest counties of the state.
