AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Long for Oregon.

A Beaver Falls, Pa., man writes to Secretary Patterson asking for literature concerning the country here, and saying that he and his wife are coming to Oregon this summer, says The Dallas Chronicle. He also says the climate there is getting worse and more unbearable every year. He writes that he and his wife want to make their home in either Oregon or Washington and seems to fairly thirst for knowledge of this locality. Mr. Patterson will send him all the information he can get bearing on Wasco county.

J. B. Riggs of Holly, Ore., was in the city yesterday. He says he was born in Linn county and went to Kansas to live, but that the longer he lived there the more he wanted to return to Oregon, so came back to this state. So it is with anyone who has ever lived in this, the best state on earth. They always "hanker after" Oregon when they leave it. There is an attraction here that is not found anywhere else. The climate calls, the fruit beckons, and the scenery invites, until one must return to still the yearning for the west, for Oregon. So it was with Mr. Riggs, and he returned to this state and says its good enough.

Strike Ties Up Papers.

Union printers employed at Senator Ankeny's print shop went on strike this morning and are still out, says the Walla Walla Bulletin. As a result, for the second time in about a month, the Morning Union and Evening Statesman, both of which are printed at the shop of the Washington Bookbinding and Printing company, are completely tied up and will be until all the troubles are finally adjusted.

The trouble resulting in the strike order this morning is of long standing and the printers are determined that the matter shall be finally settled, having become tired of the vacillating methods of Manager Holland.

Immediate cause of the strike was the refusal of Holland to reinstate three operators, Alvin Baldwin, John Meadows and Henry Helms. Further cause was that the foreman is not given complete charge. Holland

WESTERN MISSIONARY WORK.

Workers in Coast States Address Baptist Convention.

Oklahoma City, May 23.—Discussion of missionary work in the west and southwest largely occupied today's session of the Baptist missionary convention. Addresses on the subject were made by ministers and mission workers in Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Oregon and Washington.

The scope and purpose of the laymen's movement of the Baptist denomination was considered at a session this afternoon. The report of the general committee on Christian stewardship is scheduled for this evening.

Tomorrow the annual sermon will be preached by Dr. P. S. Henson of Massachusetts. At the afternoon service there will be an announcement of the plans of the Baptist Young People's Union by Secretary George T. Webb of Illinois.

Suffragists' Crusade.

New York, May 23.—Plans have been made by Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch and other leaders in the suffragist movement for a trolley excursion and crusade to follow the state convention at Seneca Falls next week. The Seneca Falls meeting will commemorate the anniversary of the first woman's suffrage assembly, which was held as Wesleyan church at that place in 1848. The convention will close next Thursday evening, and the following day the suffragettes will board trolleys there and work their way toward New York by easy stages stopping at every town of importance along the road, where demonstrations will be held.

Begin Church Jubilee.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 23.—A jubilee congress of the men's league, clubs and Bible classes of the United Presbyterian church was commenced here today, preceding the sessions of the United Presbyterian general assembly. It is expected that the gathering will be one of the largest of the kind in the history of the denomination and during its stay here all sorts of religious and secular subjects will be discussed.

himself, trying to do some of the foreman's work instead of giving orders through the foreman.

The three operators were discharged recently, their discharge leading up to the encounter between them and Holland, when Holland was arrested for assault and bound over.

La Grande May Pave.

A movement in the direction of street paving for La Grande was launched at the adjourned meeting of the council held last night, says the La Grande Star. On motion of Councilman Andrews a committee of three was appointed by the mayor to investigate the proposition as to feasibility, cost and other matters in connection therewith. This committee is to report at the next regular meeting. The members appointed for this work are Councilmen Andrews, Curtis and Kreiger. An ordinance was also introduced providing that sidewalks in certain portions of La Grande shall be constructed of cement when the present wood walks require rebuilding. The sections included are Main, Washington and Adams avenues from Fourth street westward, and portions of Second and Third streets.

Cement Plant for Lewiston.

If present negotiations between the West Coast Portland Cement company and a committee of Lewiston business men, representing the Commercial club, result as all indications suggest, they will result, the cement company will have installed and in operation in Lewiston within 90 days a cement plant with a capacity of 100 barrels daily, while the permanent plans are to make it one of the largest plants in the west, says the Tribune.

Two conferences were held yesterday between the club committee and the cement company representatives and the matter is now in such shape that a definite written proposal is to be filed by the company, which will be the basis for final action by the club.

Crushed Under Sand.

While working in a sewer trench at Tacoma Thursday Aaron Anderson, a plumber, was buried in a cavern which crushed him to death.

UNDESIRABLE ORDERED AWAY.

Sunnyside Rancher, Who Married Divorcee, Will Hold the Fort.

North Yakima, May 23.—Because he is alleged to have been responsible for the breaking up of the family of W. S. Ball, whose divorced wife he afterwards married, D. C. Huston, a rancher of Sunnyside, has received a notice signed by 16 citizens of that city requesting him to leave the place within 10 hours, never to be seen there again. Among the signatures are those of several merchants of the prohibition town. Huston came here yesterday and consulted an attorney and then returned home. He intends to hold the fort and bring action against the people who signed the notice.

The notice says Huston was guilty of a great crime in breaking up the Ball family. Huston was the man, who was responsible for some of the absurd stories circulated of the murder of Nicolai at the time that rancher left the city in the mysterious manner.

The contract for the building of the Citizens' National bank building was let yesterday to Johnson & Peterson of Boise. The total cost of the building will be in the neighborhood of $30,000. In harmony with the new buildings which have been going up in the city, native stone will be used and will be in addition to the ornamentation of the city. The building, according to the plans, will be a two and a half story building, the basement being elevated one half its depth.

GO BACK TO THE LAND

James J. Hill, and there is no more far seeing American living today than he, at the meeting of Governors in Washington two days ago, at which he was one of five special participants invited by President Roosevelt to meet the Governors of all states in the Union, said:—

"What I hope to see is the people looking ahead and planning for the future."

"We must go back to the land. There is no other way for us."

How would you like a ten or twenty acre tract of this land in a high state of fruit cultivation for your future days when the great rush is on. You would then be ahead of the game. Not behind it.
