Mrs. W. L. Thompson gave the second lunch of a series at her home on Water street on last Monday afternoon. There were four tables tastefully arranged at which the guests were seated and served a most delicious luncheon of courses, after which 500 was played until a late hour in the afternoon, Mrs. Leon Cohen winning the bouquet of carnations which was given as favor. The affair was characterized by a delightful spirit of hospitality and informality, which put the guests at ease at once and guaranteed the most pleasant of afternoons.

Everything that goes to make a large card party delightful, a beautiful day with the temperature at a happy medium, was the favor bestowed upon the four hostesses, Mrs. J. F. Robinson, Mrs. Frank Frazier, Mrs. Max Baer and Mrs. Harry Johnson at their delightful card party given on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robinson on Jackson, when they entertained about 60 guests who all seemed to be in the best of good humor as jollity prevailed while playing the game of five-handed 500. The rooms were made attractive with spring blooms, yellow blossoms being the predominant color, which was in keeping with the color scheme of the afternoon. At the close of the game Mrs. D. C. McNabb and Mrs. W. L. Thompson held the highest scores for points and progressions and were awarded two beautiful prizes. Miss Rena Collins, niece of Mrs. Frazier, and Miss Lotta Livermore assisted the hostesses in keeping tally. Dainty refreshments were a fitting close for a most enjoyable afternoon.

Thursday evening a number of the friends of Miss Blanche Bryan tendered her a pleasant surprise at her home at 604 Thompson street, before her departure for Wallowa county, where she will spend the summer. The evening proved to be a very enjoyable one, dancing, music, singing and games being in order. Miss Bryan and Mr. Streeter rendered some of their best songs, and Mr. Streeter played the piano in his usual able manner during part of the evening. Mr. Frank Weeks also played a number of selections on the banjo. After this the guests repaired to the dining room where Miss Bryan's mother, Mrs. Nettie Foster, had prepared a most sumptuous spread, covers being laid for 20, and a beautiful souvenir shawl was found at each place. Among those present were: Mrs. A. J. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Huston, Misses Genevieve Clark, Edna Florence, Bertha Anger, Lulu R. Lorenz, Miss M. Taylor, Mrs. Olcott, Mrs. A. Club Notes

The Holy Land.
Mrs. E. J. Sommerville entertained the Current Literature club Friday at her home on Lewis street. This was the last meeting for the club year and delegates were chosen to represent the club at the coming conventions. Mrs. M. B. Johnson was elected a delegate to the biennial meeting of the general federation which will be held in Boston in June. Mrs. D. Tatom, the president, Mrs. M. B. Gwin and Mrs. Starkweather, were selected for the Oregon state convention which meets at La Grande this year.

At the conclusion of the business, Mrs. C. J. Smith gave a delightful talk on her trip to the "Holy Land" which she illustrated with numerous photographs and postal cards.

She related several interesting events that occurred that had not been thought of when they planned their itinerary before their departure.

Delicious refreshments were served during the discussion which followed.

T. A. C.

The Thursday Afternoon club will hold its annual business meeting Thursday at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. M. J. Lane in the Schmidt building.

After the business, Mrs. C. J. Smith will give a talk on her recent trip abroad.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN MODERATOR IS CHOSEN

Dr. W. H. Fullerton Nominated and Elected by Acclamation—First Man From Southern Branch to Occupy Position.

Kansas City, May 23.—Rev. Dr. Baxter P. Fullerton of St. Louis, was elected moderator of the Presbyterian church in the United States today to succeed Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts of Philadelphia.

Rev. Fullerton was not opposed in his candidacy for the office of moderator. He was placed in nomination by Rev. Dr. F. J. Nichols of St. Louis, and the nomination was seconded by Rev. Dr. Mark A. Matthews, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Seattle.

In assuming the duties of moderator Dr. Fuller also became stated clerk of the assembly.

The election of Dr. Fullerton has a happy significance in the fact that he belongs to the so-called southern branch of the church, being the first moderator that branch has had since the amalgamation of the two churches.

Dr. Roberts delivered his farewell sermon as moderator before the greatest audience ever assembled at a conference of the church. There were 50 authorized commissioners present from all parts of the world, besides thousands of other Presbyterians and spectators. There were present representatives from Philippines, Porto Rico, Alaska, and a dozen countries. Ten thousand churches with fully four million adherents, most of them communicants, were represented.

SCHOOL GIRLS

Most of our ambitious young American girls work too hard at school.

Many teachers have little or no judgment about pushing a child beyond her endurance. They ought to know that girls especially have a danger period. Often, too often, utter physical collapse is the result, and it takes years and years to recover lost vitality.

Many a young girl has been helped over this critical period, and been prepared for a healthy womanhood by

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Miss Elsie L. Hook, of Chelsea, Vt., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I am only sixteen years old, but I want to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your advice cured me of sideache, periodic pains and sleeplessness, also of a nervous, irritable condition after everything else had failed, and I want to thank you for it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Old Time Railroaders.

Des Moines, Ia., May 23.—Agents, telegraph operators, engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and men who have worked in various other capacities on the railroads of the country will gather in Des Moines next week for the first annual reunion of Old Time Railroad Men, which will include veterans both in and out of the service. It is expected that hundreds of "vets" from all over the country will be here and that a permanent organization will be effected.
