BIG FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION IN PILOT ROCK

Grand Ball Will Be Given on Night of Election—Many Thousands of Pounds of Wool in Warehouses—Many at Seattle—New Recorder in Place of Resigned.

Pilot Rock, May 25.—Pilot Rock expects to celebrate the Fourth of July as it has never been celebrated before. The citizens just held a mass meeting, an association has been formed, and committees are now at work planning for the big day. An effort will be made to secure excursions from Pendleton, and it is expected that large crowds will come in from there. Another meeting will be held this evening for this purpose.

Rev. Levi Johnson held services in the local church yesterday.

There will be a grand ball given at the opera hall on election night. It has been announced that there will be no more dances here until that time.

Wool hauling has been going on for the past couple of weeks, and there are now many thousands of pounds of wool stored in the warehouse for the big sale which will be held here tomorrow.

A number of the prominent ranchers of this section of the country have been taking in the sights at Seattle.

John P. McManus has been chosen on the grand jury in Portland and he will leave for that city this week.

Miss Nina Gard is assisting at the telephone office during the absence of Miss Ollie Smith, who is in Seattle.

At the last meeting of the city council Elmer E. Parker handed in his resignation as recorder. F. A. Done has been elected to fill the vacancy.

It Reached the Spot.

Mr. E. Humphrey, who owns a large general store at Omega, O., and is president of the Adams County Telephone Co., as well as of the Home Telephone Co., of Pike county O., says of Dr. King's New Discovery: "It saved my life once. At least I think it did. It seemed to reach the spot—the very seat of my cough—when everything else failed."

Dr. King's New Discovery not only reaches the cough spot; it heals the sore spots in throat, lungs and chest. Sold under guarantee at Tallman & Co.'s drug store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

For further particulars inquire F. J. Quinlan, agent O. R. & N., Pendleton, or William McMurray general passenger agent, Portland.

FILIPINO THRONE IN PORTLAND

Portland Commercial Club Possesses Queer Relic of the Islands.

An oriental throne sent across the sea to the Portland Commercial club as a gift from Captain George Wolff of Manila has been set up in the club lounge room and presents a sharp contrast of the furniture of semi-barbaric nations with that of the most civilized people on earth, says the Oregon Daily Journal. The chair has a flat seat and an immense flaring back, and is formed evidently for the purpose of compelling its occupant to "sit up and take notice." It is made of Philippine grasses and hemp.

Captain Wolff, the donor, is superintendent of Philippine prisons, and is a non-resident member of the Portland Commercial club. On his last visit to this city he was given special entertainment at the club, and his gift of the chair is to show his appreciation. The chair was made at Bilibid prison, in Manila.

The old Pennsylvania Dutch Dunkards recommended "Hickory Bark Cough Remedy." Guaranteed to cure your cough, and guaranteed to be pure. Made from the bark of the shell bark or white hickory tree. For sale by any druggist and all dealers everywhere. Pendleton Drug Co.

Price $1 a box; six boxes $5, with full guarantee. Address or call the Pendleton Drug Co. This is the store that sells all the principal remedies and does not substitute.
