PENDLETON WINS IN GREAT GAME

YESTERDAY'S CONTEST WAS THE REAL ARTICLE Tallafiero and Van Houten Form Invincible Battery—Munson, Dropped by Lorimer, Is Picked Up By Walla Walla, to Guard Initial Bag—Ashe Houston, New Recruit from Portland, Is All to the Good.

With Tallafiero and Van Houten as the Pendleton battery Lorimer's stickers played with their old time spirit yesterday and in the third game of the series the Walla Walla team went down to the tune of 4 to 0.

If the game Monday was a disappointment the one yesterday certainly made amends. From beginning to the close it was a ball game. The first two innings were scoreless and the four points made by Pendleton were picked up one by one.

Munson, who was dropped from the Pendleton team after the game Monday, played first with Walla Walla yesterday and was seemingly worse for the change.

Points on the Game.
 In the pitcher's battle the palm was for Tallafiero. He struck out 8 yesterday, while Killilea canned but 7.
 Van Houten proved popular behind the bat and he made Munson's absence a blessing in disguise.

Houston showed up well on second and also indicated some progress with the stick.

Molly Baker, short stop, and Houston, second base, have some neat team work which they use on base runners.

Conrad is an old reliable and is generally "there," whether on the first bag or on the batting line.

Lorimer is a good ball player, but he played yesterday as though he was "filling in." As a manager he is "all wool."

Buerstette had a better eye yester-

CONCERNING WELL REGULATED SALOONS

The 14 business men and three business firms and a few councilmen on a petition begging for the life of the saloon tell us that the saloon should be left alone because it is so well regulated. We wonder how the 153 business and professional firms whose firm name is not upon that petition, and the more than 200 business men in Pendleton who have not signed that petition, look at this matter?

The police court records prove that up to the 21st of May there were 58 arrests, most of them occurring in that region where the electric bell calls a bartender to a house of prostitution in connection with saloons on Main street and where some 30 or 40 prostitutes live and pay a fine each month of $7.50 cents to the police court. All that has to be done in the saloon houses of prostitution is to ring a bell and a bartender appears and brings the stuff for the poor fellow to take who wants to be robbed not only of his manhood, but his money.

These 58 arrests for half of May do not include those for fighting, vagrancy and profanity. One month

MERRY WIDOW WINDOWS.

Merchants Will Compete for Two Valuable Prizes.

Pendleton merchants have offered to assist in advertising the "Real Merry Widow" to be presented by a local talent troupe, under the direction of Mrs. Norton, next Monday night. This morning Mark Moorhouse, chairman of the gymnasium committee, offered two prizes for the best "Merry Widow" display to be made by local dry goods stores or other business houses. The first award will be a cash prize of 25 cents, while a stick of gum will be awarded the second number.

Though the prizes are not heavy, the storemen have volunteered to assist the entertainment and within a few days some very artistic "Merry Widow" windows may be looked for.

 those of Wasco county, are now in favor of a division of Wasco county and the creation of the new county of Hood River. Formerly The Dalles People were opposed to the division, but now he says the majority of the people of that place are in favor of Hood River having a county if the people want it.

Local Carries Express.

Hereafter express matter will be carried by the Pendleton-Walla Walla local passenger trains, the announcement to this effect being made today.
 The change will mean a great accomthere were 110 arrests. Talk about well regulated saloons. You cannot regulate 26 saloons in a place of this size. Abolish them and begin over again for they will neither decrease in their work nor in their number.

One reason people give for not wanting to live here is that the mayor and council are ruled by the saloon.
 "The success of our business is dependent largely upon the creation of the appetite for drink. Men who drink liquors, like others, will die, and if there is no new appetite created, our counters will be empty as well as our coffers. Our children will go hungry, or we must change our business to that of some other more remunerative.

The open field for the creation of appetite is among the boys. After men have grown and their habits are formed, they rarely ever change in this regard, and I make the suggestion, gentlemen, that nickels expended in treats to the boys now will return in dollars to your tills after the appetite has been formed."—Extract

ANNUAL EXERCISES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Pleasant Program Carried Out—William E. Milne Wins First Prize for Excellence in Greek—Given $20 and Scholarship at Whitworth College—Miss Agnes Young Wins Second Prize—Eloquent Address by Judge Lowell.

Six young graduates were given diplomas from the Pendleton academy at the annual commencement exercises held in the Presbyterian church last evening. For the occasion the house of worship was packed by students and friends of the graduates and the program throughout was a most pleasant one.

Those in this year's academy graduating class were William E. Milne, Verna E. Roberts, William R. Blankenship, Maude Bentley, Agnes J.
 Young and Alpha Black.

The following was the detailed program for the evening.

- Oration.....The White Man's Burden Russel Blankenship
- "The Call to Arms".....Veazie Academy Chorus
- Commencement Address.....
Hon. Stephen A. Lowell
- Presentation of Prizes and Diplomas.
Benediction.

Of the prizes, the first honors for excellence in Greek, went to William E. Milne. The prize consisted of $20 in money and a four-year scholarship at Whitworth college. The second prize, $10 in money, was given to Miss Agnes Young.

Aside from the graduating orations the feature of the program last night was the address by Judge Lowell. It was an eloquent and scholarly appeal to the students and at the conclusion of his talk the speaker was vigorously applauded.

Following the graduating program the members of the graduating class were treated to a banquet served at Brown Hall.

ELECTION LAWS.

Severe Penalty Imposed for Influencing Voters.

The laws of Oregon are very severe in relation to voting at elections.

It is noted that anyone using any means whatever to coerce or influence unduly any voter is liable to a fine of $1000 and imprisonment in the penitentiary for from one to three years. Any corporation or organization which uses its financial influence to influence voters is liable to this fine.

Anyone having others under financial obligation to himself in any way who uses this to influence the vote of people under financial obligation to him is liable to this fine and imprisonment.

To intimidate, coerce, bribe, even with a drink of liquor, means the liability of being arrested. Section 1878 deals with this part of the law.
 Section 1907 gives the penalty for importing voters from any section for the purpose of voting in any time stated before hand. Section 1908 gives the penalty for inducing voters to absent themselves, no matter what the inducement may be, the penalty is severe.

Section 1909 gives additional penalty for this same purpose. The laws of Oregon in violation to any corrupting influence whatever in this matter of elections and voting are severe and comprehensive.

Having any liquor on election day, giving it away, or any disorderly conduct is punishable with heavy fine and imprisonment.
