FAITH CURE" CURRENCY BILL

Passed Senate Again

Bill to Legalize Currency Will Be

Submitted to the House.

May 15, 1898.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The Senate passed the "Faith Cure" currency bill again, and sent it to the House for its final action. The bill was introduced by Senator O. P. Taylor and passed without any discussion.

The measure is designed to make the currency legal in the state, and to give the people the right to hold their money in any form that they may choose. The bill was passed by a large majority, and is expected to be passed by the House in a short time.

RESERVOIR GATES WERE OPENED
