DIXONS TRIP TO PACIFIC.

"Clansman" Author and His Play Will Visit Coast for the First Time.

Thomas Dixon, jr., author of "The Clansman," leaves New York next week on his first trip to California, preceding only by a few months the first visit of "The Clansman" to the Pacific coast. Mr. Dixon is well known in this section, however, through his famous novels, "The Clansman" and "The Leopard's Spots," from which "The Clansman," as a play, was dramatized and produced under the direction of George H. Brennan.

Mr. Dixon's object in visiting California is to get "atmosphere" and "local color" for a new novel, the scenes of which are laid in the great west. It is to be regretted that Mr. Dixon's business in California will not permit of his delivering any addresses, since he is one of the foremost public speakers in the country.

The proprietors have offered One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
