

IT PAYS TO PREACH

BROUGHER IS WANTED IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Popular Baptist Pastor of Portland White Temple, Offered Oklahoma City Pulpit at Double Salary—Boston and New York Churches Also After Him at 10,000 Per Year.

That it pays to preach and that spectacular preaching is in demand is shown by the fact that Oklahoma City Baptists have made every effort to secure Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougier to be pastor of White Temple church at that place at a great advance in salary.

He is also wanted in New York and Boston by churches paying a salary of $10,000 per year. An item from the Baptist convention at Oklahoma City, says: Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougier, pastor of the White Temple, in Portland, Ore., may receive a call to Oklahoma City. The pulpit of the White Temple in Oklahoma City is soon to be vacant.

Rev. W. B. Hinson, the present pastor, is to go to San Diego, Cal. Dr. Brougier has been approached by influential members of the Oklahoma church and offered a call at almost double the salary he gets in Portland. He preached Sunday night in the First M. E. church, Oklahoma City, to an audience that packed the great auditorium to its doors. In introducing him the pastor, Dr. Urehs, said: "I came near being pastor of the Grace M. E. church, Portland, Ore., once. Bishop McCabe notified me that I was booked for that field, and I signified my willingness to go. By a turn of our ecclesiastical machinery I was sent here and Dr. Clarence True Wilson was sent to Portland, Ore."

"If I am to have Dr. Brougier as a co-laborer, we will have to join with the Baptists in getting him to come to Oklahoma City. If I had the appointing power, I would make him pastor of the White Temple here, for I like his way of doing things and Oklahoma City needs him."

In responding Dr. Brougier said: "I appreciate these kind words and all the courtesies shown me by the people of Oklahoma City, but to me there is no greater place on earth than Portland, Ore. It is a beautiful city with magnificent possibilities. I love my work and my people there. I see no reason why I should make a change. I hope you will all become Baptists next year and come out to Portland with the Northern Baptist convention in May, 1909."

Rumor also connects Dr. Brougier's name with a great church in New York City and another in Boston, both of which pay $10,000 a year salary.

Spinning on the Common.

That historic bit of ground known to the world as Boston Common has been the background of many a strange and picturesque scene. Surely not one of the varied events which have been acted upon it presents a quainter picture than one which took place about 1750. Mr. Francis Drake describes the occurrence in his article in "The Memorial History of Boston" on "Life in Boston in the Provincial Period."

In 1720 an attempt was made in Boston to encourage the art of spinning and to establish schools where the process could be taught to the poor. It was recommended that twenty spinning wheels should be provided by the town for the use of children sent from the almshouse and a premium allowed of $5 for the first piece of linen spun and woven.

In 1747 a society was organized for the encouragement of the industry, and the fourth anniversary was publicly celebrated.

"In the afternoon," says an old account, "300 young female spinners, decently dressed, appeared on the common with their spinning wheels. The wheels were placed in three rows, a female at each wheel. Weavers also appeared in garments of their own weaving. There was an immense number of spectators."

The Size of Great Men.

The Iron Duke has always been a mystery. I have read that he was six feet four inches tall. I have read also that he was only five feet six inches. Historians tell us he was anywhere from five feet six inches to five feet eleven inches. There are some things seemingly very simple which it is impossible to establish. This is one of them. Historians are still guessing the height of Julius Caesar, the size of Hannibal's head, the weight of Alexander the Great and the general dimensions of Solomon. Why, we are not even sure of the stature of George Washington. It might be believed that Napoleon, Alexander the Great and Jay Gould were of the same size, three bumptious little chaps. And it is common belief that Charlemagne, Erling the Bold, Frederick the Great, Robert Bruce, Sir William Wallace, General Winfield Scott and Richard Coeur de Lion were all top notchers. "Old Fuss and Feathers," formed in the prodigality of nature, leading in girth and weight—New York Press.

A Californian's Luck.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Charles P. Budahn, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at Tallman & Co's drug store.

According to a report from Kennebec fruit growers of Finley are protesting against the express rate on fruit shipped from that place. They claim their rate is 25 cents higher than that of other cities.

Celebrated Elopement.

Fifty years ago Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fritz and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Abbott, of Urbana, Ohio, eloped to Westfield and were married. They escaped from their parents on horseback over roads impassable to carriages. This week, on the 50th anniversary of the event they went over the same route and were married over again at Westfield, but this time they were whirled along in automobiles at the rate of 30 miles an hour.
