TICKET SALE FOR "MERRY WIDOW"

COMMERCIAL CLUB BENEFIT WILL BE BIG EVENT

Probably Brightest and Most Uptodate Performance Ever Given by Local Talent—Indentity of Cast Is State Secret—No One Will Know Until Curtain Goes up Monday Night—Good and Catchy Music Promised.

Tickets are now on sale for the "Real Merry Widow" to be given Monday evening for the benefit of the Commercial association and the rate at which reservations are being made indicates that the performance will be greeted with a packed house. But while seats are going rapidly there is yet ample room for all who have not yet purchased.

For the lower floor the admission price will be $1, excepting that $1.50 will be charged for the boxes. For the gallery 50 cents will be charged.

A Splendid Performance.
The entertainment that will be given Monday night under the direction of Mrs. Norton, will be the brightest and most up-to-date performance that has ever been given here by local people. From beginning to the close the "Real Merry Widow" is a captivating play and there is not a dull line in it.

Another feature about the play that makes it of increased interest is the mystery that surrounds those in the cast. Up to this time absolute secrecy has been maintained as to the identity of those in the performance and as a result the curiosity that has been aroused is something intense.
Not until the curtain rises Monday evening will it be known who the players are.

Aside from the catchy little play the entertainment Monday will abound in good music, some splendid chorus numbers and there will be lots of variety.

TO GET INDIAN VOTES.

United States District Attorney Elmer E. Todd Gives an Opinion.

It is now up to the politicians to figure on some method of catching the "red men's vote," says the Walla Walla Statesman. The colored, the Russian vote, the labor vote, the saloon vote and the church vote have all been considered from time to time when platforms and candidates were being made, and now at last the aboriginal is to enter into the calculations of the shrewd ones.

It is conceded that the Indian who accepts his allotment and thereby severs his tribal relation, becomes endowed with full citizenship, and if he has the necessary qualifications regarding residence, etc., he is entitled to vote.

United States District Attorney Elmer E. Todd recently gave an opinion on this matter in which he said:

While the state may have the right to limit the suffrage to persons who pay taxes, it cannot take away from a certain race, who are citizens of the United States, their right to vote because they do not pay taxes, unless it includes all non-taxpayers. The state can no more say that Indians, who do not pay taxes cannot vote than it could say that negroes who do not pay taxes could not vote.

I am of the opinion therefore, that Indians in this state, who have been born within the territorial limits of the United States, and have received allotments of lands from the United States government, are entitled to vote at all elections in the state of Washington, provided they can read and speak the English language and have residence in the state, county and precinct the requisite time.

MEMORIAL WINDOW FOR CHURCH OF REDEEMER

Homer Reeves Makes Beautiful Gift in Honor of Mother.

The Rev. Charles Quinby has just received a memorial window for the Church of the Redeemer, the same being given by Homer Reeves, formerly of this city, as a memorial to his mother. The window is from R.
Geisler of New York and will add to the beauty of the local church.

During his youth Mr. Reeves was an active worker in the Church of the redeemer and he has always maintained his membership in the local parish though he has been away from the city for several years.

THAW GOES BACK DESPITE HIS PROTESTS.

Harry Says He Was Abused and Persecuted at Mattewan—Doctor Says He Harbors Delusions.

Albany, N. Y., May 30.—Despite protests of mistreatment, Thaw must return to Mattewan, according to Dr.
Ferris, chairman of the state lunacy commission.

"Thaw is undoubtedly an incurable paranoiac and is liable to have an outbreak at any time," Ferris said.
"Mattewan is the only place in the state where the criminal insane can be properly cared for."

"I have carefully observed Thaw, so have the Mattewan doctors, and our opinion is not guesswork. I am positive the case is incurable."

"It would be a great error to allow even partial freedom." Thaw alleges that Baker, the Mat-tewan superintendent, "has it in for him." He says he was persecuted there by officials and attendants.

Ferris says he has investigated the charge and believes they are of delusions which Thaw continually harbors.
Thaw's attorneys are prepared to make a hard fight to keep their client out of Mattewan.

Denver Is Next.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 30.—Denver was chosen today as the next meeting place of the Presbyterian general assembly, which is bringing to a close one of the most successful conventions ever held. The contest was easily won by Denver after Oklahoma withdrew on account of the expense question.

Knox at Gettysburg.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., May 30.—Senator Knox was the orator of the day at the Memorial day exercises at the national cemetery. The address marks Senator Knox's departure from his life long custom of making addresses only on matters of public interest in which law questions are involved.

Parade in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 30.—A great parade in Michigan avenue, made up of the Grand Army, veterans of the Spanish war, national guardsmen and troops from Fort Sheridan, was a feature of the Memorial day observance in Chicago.

Polar Commission.

BRUSSELS, May 30.—All the leading nations of Europe and America are represented at the meeting of the International Polar commission, which convened today. Herbert L. Bridgeman is the official delegate from the United States.

Demand Prohibition.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 30.—Meetings to demand state-wide prohibition will be held tomorrow in nearly all the churches of Knoxville, to be followed by a mass meeting in the afternoon. Anti-Saloon League leaders say that Tennessee has reached a point where state prohibition cannot be much longer averted.

BASEBALL SUNDAY

PENDLETON AND ADAMS
AMATEUR TEAMS MEET

Contest Promises to be Interesting—Same Nines Played Ten-Inning Contest Last Sunday with Score of 4 to 4—Game at Matlock Grounds at 2 p. m.—Devine and Tardiff the Battery.

Though the league ball team will be at Walla Walla tomorrow there will nevertheless be a ball game at the Matlock grounds and it promises to be a red hot one.

The game will be between the Pendleton and Adams second teams and will be called at 2 o'clock. Last Sunday the two teams played at Adams and when the game was called to permit the Pendleton boys to catch their train home the score was a tie.
This will be played off tomorrow.

In the game tomorrow the following will be the Pendleton lineup: Devine, catcher; Tardiff, pitcher; Johnson, first base; Glenn Sturdivant, second base; Vickers, third base; Leonard, short stop; Minnick, left field; Goodman, center field, and Beam, right field.

WYOMING PROJECT.

Engineer in Charge Says Path Finder Is Nearly Ready.

Mr. E. H. Baldwin, chief engineer for the reclamation service, who is in charge of the construction work of the Pathfinder dam and reservoir, about 45 miles southwest of Casper, was in this city the latter part of this week, says the Casper Tribune. He was accompanied by Mr. S. H. Fitch of Washington, who had been to the Pathfinder damsite inspecting the work. Mr. Fitch is chief auditor and executive officer of the reclamation service, and visits the Pathfinder project annually. Mr. Baldwin says the work on the dam is getting along nicely, and the dam will be completed by the first of the coming year. The contract calls for its completion by the middle of February. The dam is now built to a height of 100 feet, of solid masonry and when completed will be 210 feet high, and will cost nearly $4,000,000. The cost of the entire project, including ditches and reservoirs, will cost about $9,000,000 and will reclaim more than 350,000 acres of land.

A great many people from the east, as well as the western states, will visit this project this summer, and two large automobiles will run between Casper and the dam if the roads can be gotten in good condition.

FOUR MUTES MARRY.

"Silent" Weddings Solemnized by Spokane Pastor.

Two couples who secured marriage licenses at the court house yesterday afternoon were shortly thereafter married quietly, in more ways than one, says the Spokesman-Review.

That is to say, they were united in regular orthodox fashion, but so far as the contracting parties were concerned deep silence brooded over the ceremonies. In each case the men and women chiefly in interest were deaf mutes, and deaf mutes acted as interpreters.

To make one marriage all the more remarkable it amounted simply to a ratification of a wedding which took place more than a quarter of a century ago.

John M. Smith, aged 65 years, and Elmira Smith, aged 61, who had not seen each other for 27 years until a story in the Spokesman-Review united them last Saturday, decided that a remarriage would make them feel more like husband and wife. They were particularly inclined to this way of thinking when a deaf mute friend reminded them that in the eyes of the law Mr. Smith became legally dead 10 years after his wife lost track of him when he came west, and that remarriage was the best way of bringing him to life.

YAKIMA WOOL PRICES.

Oregon Sales Fix Prices of the Central Washington Clip.

Wool sales in Oregon this week at which most of the clip changed hands at or near 12 cents, according to H.
Stanley Coffin, go a long way towards establishing a price for the clip here, says the Yakima Republic.

As a general thing the clip in this part of the country sells at about 2 cents a pound below that of the Umatilla country so that 10 cents or thereabouts may be expected for wool held in this valley.

This is a slight increase in the price

T. A. C.

The annual business meeting of the Thursday Afternoon club was held at the home of Mrs. M. J. Lane in the the reports of last year's work were read the election took place which resulted in the following officers being chosen for next year: Mrs. C. J.

Smith, president; Mrs. M. J. Lane, vice president; Mrs. E. P. Marshall, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. J. Bean, secretary, and Mrs. T. M. Henderson, which was much appreciated by the members.
